Spain wants to quit.

Imperialism is a word coined by cowards.

Emilio Aguinaldo has a well developed case of the swell head.

If any other country is spoiling for a fight with Uncle Sam let them show up now while he has his coat off.

There will probably be no negotiations looking to peace until the United States forces are in undisputed possession of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines.

The most widely advertised man in the United States today, is not Mark Hanna or William Jennings Bryan, but Bob Moore, of La Fayette, Indiana, who took DeWitt's Little Early Risers.

This government should never restore the Philippines to the tyranny of Spain nor to the equally barbarism of the native population. To do so would be to forfeit to a large extent those results which justify the present war.

Miss Laurie Jones, the proprietor of this paper, has at last been heard from. Word came today of her going over the bar at Eureka.—Drain Watchman.

We hope she will not contract the habit of some editors, of taking too much over the bar.

Wm. J. Bryan has gone to war but Harvey Scott, Mark Hanna and several other gold standard patriots we might mention are still from 7,000 to 9,000 miles in the rear.—Roseburg Review.

Harvey Scott and Mark Hanna are both old men and would not be accepted were they to make application. The editor of the Review is a sitting duck and has been very profuse in his advice as to how the war should be conducted, but his love of country did not prompt him to enlist. He is just like some more of these "on to Havana" yawpers that have only advice and criticism to offer their country.—Junction City Times.

RESOURCES OF DOUGLAS COUNTY.

The article appearing on pages 3 and 4 of this issue was written by Colonel D. S. K. Buick of this city, for publication by the state board of agriculture, in a pamphlet upon the resources of Oregon. The pamphlet is now in print and we are permitted to publish the same through the kindness of Colonel Buick.

WHY NOT CAPTURE IT OURSELVES

Eugene papers are subscribing money for the purpose of repairing the military wagon road which connects Eugene with Eastern Oregon. The Klamath Republican says that thousands of dollars from the Paisley and Silver Lake sections annually go into Eugene and that it is now the intention of the Eugene merchants to capture all the big Klamath marsh trade. All this Klamath county trade which goes to Eugene and a large part of that which goes to Jackson county, should come to Roseburg, and would come here if a wagon road were opened into that country by way of either the east or south fork of the Umpqua. Either route is entirely feasible, and when opened would be much shorter and more practicable than any now connecting that country with the railroad. Roseburg people should move in this matter at once and the county court should be petitioned to appoint one or more persons with the necessary experience and knowledge in regard to such matters, to make an examination of these routes, and report as soon as possible in regard to the advantages to be derived from the improvements and the probable expense of the same.

NICARAGUA CANAL.

A strictly American Nicaragua canal may be set down as one of the inevitable results of the present war. The perilous and long voyage of the Oregon around the Horn, instead of across the Isthmus, and the wonderful service rendered by that battle-ship in destroying Cervera's fleet, will add emphasis to the popular demand for the construction of that water way, and having it under American control. Whatever diplomatic obstacles there may be in the way will be swept aside. The cost will be great, yet small as compared with the advantages, naval and commercial.

It is safe to say however, that the general public is giving very little thought just now to that vast project. But there is at least one city of the country which is already keenly alive to the importance of this canal, and has already started in to arouse public interest—San Diego, Cal. Its movement would be of no consequence if it stood out by itself, but by the time congress convenes again there will be a general feeling in favor of pushing the canal.

There should be no delay in removing all doubt about the abrogation of the Blayton-Bulwer treaty, which James G. Blaine insisted had been set aside, but which the British government insists is still in force. There must be no partnership in that canal, as between nations. On that proposition the country is sure to be agreed.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

HE DEFIES US.

Aguinaldo Commences to Make Trouble.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—A dispatch from Admiral Dewey announces that Aguinaldo has assumed a bold attitude of defiance, and that it will take a large force from this country to subdue the insurgents.

The following has been received at the war department:

"Cavite, July 29.—Arrived today about noon. The health of the command is good. The remainder of the fleet is about four days in the rear. All the troops assigned me will probably be needed. MERRITT."

The navy department has made public the following:

"Cavite, July 26—Secretary of the Navy: Merritt arrived yesterday on the Newport. The remainder of expedition is expected within the next few days. DEWEY."

Petitions to Mckinley.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—The Merchants' Association, at a special meeting today, adopted a resolution, petitioning the president to hold and retain the Philippine islands.

Troops for Dewey.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—The Third battalion of the South Dakota volunteers, the Thirteenth Minnesota recruits, and 155 officers and men of the Colorado recruits, today went on board the transport stermer St. Paul. The vessel will sail tomorrow for Manila.

Sighted a Derelict.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—A message from the Umpqua, received in this city, report that the schooner Louise is at that port, and that she reports having sighted at sea in 38.40 north latitude, 129 west longitude, the hull of a vessel bottom up. The derelict is about 165 feet long. It is believed the wreck is that of the bark Forest Queen, which left Tacoma for San Pedro last March. The vessel was given up for lost last May.

THE NEW BOND ISSUE.

A Statement Given Out By the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The following statement concerning the new bond issue was made at the treasury department today:

"The first shipment of the new war bonds was made today. They consisted of 1000 bonds of $20 each and 1000 bonds of $500 each.

"The public mind is poorly prepared to comprehend the enormous labor and multitudinous delays connected with this great popular loan. In the first place, after the rejection and return of thousands of subscriptions, for which no allotments could be made, there remain about 500,000 persons to whom bonds will be allotted and forwarded in due course by express. It is not a question of only 500,000 names. The name, including state, county, town and street number of each subscriber must be transcribed and rewritten in various ways at least 10 times. This is equivalent to entering once, fully extended, 5,000,000 or more names.

"The mere clerical work, however, is but a part of the problem. The collection of checks and drafts received as payment for bonds, the computation of interest, preparation of checks in settlement of same, the engraving and printing of 10 kinds of denominations of bonds, the accurate disposition of these in envelopes properly addressed—all these are a part of the system that must be solved without error or omission. One thing will impress the mind with the magnitude of the operation—each envelope must be sealed with three seals and 9,000,000,000 seals in wax must be placed on outgoing bonds.

"Another feature is the limitation in the ability of the express companies to provide for forwarding the bonds after they are committed to their care for this purpose. This limitation is estimated by the express companies at 5000 items per day. Possibly if this limitation of ability did not exist, a naturally prudent limit, since there is on an average of only $500 in each envelope, the express companies would receive as agents $2,500,000 of the securities per day and if it required an average of three days to make deliveries, there would be a continuous trust of $7,500,000, as large an amount perhaps, as the responsibility of the express companies would justify.

"The facts thus cited show that subscribers in the sum of $1000 or less may rest secure in the certainty that the bonds will come all in due time. They must patiently wait the operation of the government's machinery.

"It is to be understood that deliveries on the subscriptions of $500 and less, for which the money has been already received, will be made before the larger subscriptions are attended to. Of these small subscriptions, there are 200,000 in number, and it is estimated that forty days will be required for their delivery. From this it will appears that subscribers in amounts larger than $500 will not begin to receive their bonds until after September 1. From that date on the bonds will be put in the hands of the larger subscribers quite rapidly, since, numerically speaking, they aggregate less than one-third of the number of small subscribers. In the meantime, the larger subscribers will be officially notified by the treasury department when and how payments in addition to the 2 per cent deposit will be required, and before remitting funds they are required to await such notice. Much confusion will thereby be avoided."

ONE CLAIM IN TEN PAYING.

Few Men in the Klondike Making a Living.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—E. Lewis, of Circle City, Alaska, who came down on the steamer Portland, bringing over $25,000, states that only one out of every ten claims around Dawson is paying wages. Those that pay at all are paying big money. On Eldorado creek, he says, there are about three miles of really rich ground, and on Bonanza creek every foot of which has been advertised as paying, there are more than 20 miles of absolutely worthless claims.

Captain Lindquist, of the Portland, reports that on the 16th inst. he sighted the steamer Nanaimo, with the Rideout in tow, just off St. Lawrence. On the 15th the steamer Navarro, towing the State of Minneapolis, was sighted 10 miles north of Unalaska.

When the Portland left Dutch harbor, on the 19th, the steamship Brunswick, the tug Holyoke and three barges were in port. The schooner H. C. Wright arrived there on the 16th of last month.

Quartermaster-Sergeant James A. Young, of the Twentieth Kansas regiment, has been ordered under arrest by Colonel Funston, charged with embezzlement of government property. He is alleged to have sold stores issued as goods for the regiment. Young admits his guilt and gives the excuse that he was doing only what every other commissary officer at Camp Merritt has been doing all along. The regimental commanders deny that such a state of things existed in their commissary departments, but the matter will be investigated at once.

Glendale is the liviest town in southern Oregon. Work of all kinds is being done and many strangers are arriving here daily, who go to work at once.

Mr. Smith of Portland, who spent two weeks at Glendale with his family who are here for the season, is now at Buchanan, Mich., visiting his aged mother in the old homestead.

Mrs. C. Clarke and her daughter, Miss Jennie, have just returned from San Francisco, where they went to visit their son and brother, F. W. Clarke, who is a soldier in the 6th regiment of California volunteers. Mr. Clarke spent some days with them at San Francisco on special leave granted by his officers, who are enthusiastic in their praises of the brave young men who have enlisted in their country's service, and are impatient to engage in a fray with the enemy. We feel justly proud of the fact that Mr. Clarke is a Glendale boy. At one time he was engaged in mercantile business at this place and also was postmaster, filling all positions admirably. He has a host of friends in Douglas county who will appreciate the following clipping from the S. P. Chronicle and is an utterance of Col. Johnson of the 6th regiment: "Frank Clarke, for instance, is a gentleman, only private who has little to say at any time, but he performs every duty with promptitude and precision, and I am satisfied that such men as Clarke will gain immortal glory if we have an opportunity to mix things with the enemy." Glendale is proud of Mr. Clarke.

Oakland News.

(From the Gazette.)

J. W. Beckley has secured the mail contract between Roseburg and Millwood. A daily hack plays between these points.

W. P. Sedge, of California, who some time ago purchased the Thornton ranch about seven miles east of Oakland, arrived with his family Sunday.

We regret to announce the serious illness of Mr. A. G. Young, who has been confined to his home during the week with an affection of the throat.

W. T. Emery and wife were in Oakland Wednesday. Mr. Emery was formerly connected with the Oakland Mills but is now extensively engaged in the purchase and shipment of cattle. Billy shook hands with many of his old friends.

Since April, 1st, 1898, there has been shipped from Oakland 125 car load of freight as follows: Hops 4; wool 2; cattle 71; sheep 13, horses 1 and wheat 29, while the less than car load lots would aggregate more than half the above.

Letters received this week from Mr. Reidle says the cement made from Oakland rock has proved to be the best in the world, and negotiations have been opened for additional quarries and from present indications Oakland's cement factory is assured.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Evans, of Portland, who have been guests at the Shambrook home for the past fortnight, left for Roseburg Wednesday evening where they were joined by Miss Maud Shambrook and all proceeded per overland to Ashland where they will sojourn with F. W. McKechnie.

A horse attached to a buggy which was driven by Mrs. Horace Deardorf, ran away last Tuesday, leaving the buggy in fragments along the way. When the horse became unruly Mrs. Deardorff stepped from the buggy and attempted to take the animal by the bridle, but before she could do so the horse took a hasty departure.

A few days ago W. D. Griffith met with an accident, which seemed trivial at the time, but which now has the appearance of terminating seriously. Mr. Griffith had kneeled down to a spring and in rising received what he considered a slight sprain in the right knee cap. Pain and soreness followed, and now a stiffening of the knee joint threatens to be permanent.

On returning from Roseburg Tuesday, a team driven by P. B. Beckley collided with a wheelman, a bruised scorcher and a damaged wheel being the result. Under the law a team is obliged to give a wheelman half the way, but there are few horses that will not frighten at a wheel, and when a wheelman scorches by a team, and seeing as he does that the team is restless and unmanagable, a knock out would seem to be a just penalty.

Mr. Giles of Myrtle Creek is the guest of A. S. Buell.

Grandma Buell is quite ill, we trust not dangerously so.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Goodman rejoice in the advent of a daughter.

Williams and Goodman have about 100 acres of grain to cut with their header.

Mr. Edward Morgan is making some improvements on his house. Also Job Deming.

James Newland has about completed his new barn. Improvements are always a welcome sight.

The runaway of Mr. David Grenot's team resulting in his sad death, fills us with awe, and we realize again how uncertain is life.

The house of J. L. Goodman caught fire from the chimney. Little Jim discovered it and gave the alarm. It was extinguished with but small loss.

Enos Goodman's team became frightened while in Roseburg, and turning sharply threw Mrs. Goodman from the seat, bruising her somewhat, no serious results.

The past week has been filled with casualties. Grandpa Morgan fell from the scaffolding on his house, although not seriously hurt was unconscious for about an hour, his head being slightly cut.

The funeral services of David Grenot were held here Friday, Rev. Moore of Roseburg officiated. A goodly number were present to pay their last respects. He was a member of the I. O. O. F.

REX.

Geography Abridged.

The World Herald says that a North Omaha boy of a few years rushed into the house with a whoop and a hurrah the other day.

"Why, what is the matter son?" asked his alarmed mother.

"Whoop! Hurrah! We won't have to study any more about Spain in our geography!" howled the delighted youngster.

"Why not, dear?"

"'Cause there ain't a-goin' to be no more Spain when Uncle Sam gets through with this job!"

With this the lad turned a cart-wheel and flew through the door, leaving behind a series of warwhoops that would arouse the jealousy of a Brule Sioux.

Albert Safley, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Safley, while out playing in the yard, ran a wire nail into his heel, making a slight wound. Nothing was thought of it until a few days ago, when it began to swell and the child could not sleep at night. Becoming alarmed, Mrs. Safley brought him to town Monday, and upon examination by Dr. Wade, it was found necessary to chloroform him, cut open the fleshy part of the heel and remove a portion of the bone and insert a drainage tube. The little fellow is now getting along nicely, and will soon be able to run and play again.

Store Burgalized

Cottage Grove Messenger. C. Stevenson's jewelry store was entered by burglars Wednesday night, and about $80 or $10 worth of silverware and jewelry was taken. Lucally Mr. Stevenson keeps his more valuable articles in a safe, or the loss would have been greater. The robbers entered by unlocking the front door with a skeleton key.

Those Dreadful Sores

They Continued to Spread in Spite of Treatment but Now They are Healed—A Wonderful Work.

"For many years I have been a great sufferer with varicose veins on one of my limbs. My foot and limb became dreadfully swollen. When I stood up I could feel the blood rushing down the veins of this limb. One day I accidentally hit my foot against some object and a sore broke out which continued to spread and was exceedingly painful. I concluded I needed a blood purifier and I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. In a short time those dreadful sores which had caused me so much suffering, began to heal. I kept on faithfully with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and in a short time my limb was completely healed and the sores gave me no more pain. I cannot be too thankful for the wonderful work Hood's Sarsaparilla, has done for me." MRS. A. E. GILSON, Hartland, Vermont.
