Letters From Cavite.

Through the kindness of H. C. Stocum we are permitted to publish the following extracts from an interesting letter received by him yesterday from his son Harry:

CAVITE ARRIVAL, PHILIPPINE ISLANDS, August 6th.

Dear Father: As a boat is to leave today for the U. S. I will drop you a few lines and let you know how I am getting along. I have enjoyed the best of health so far and am feeling O. K. Most all of the boys have been sick, some of them very sick, and a few have died. This is an awful unhealthy place; the water is very bad. One has to be very careful. I try to take good care of myself. It is getting very monotonous here, the same old thing every day. Am expecting some mail from home most any time. We don't get hardly any news at all; the last good news we heard was that Sampson had destroyed the Spanish fleet, and that peace negotiations were going on.

Nothing has happened here of any importance yet. We are still stationed in the barracks here. Most of the 2nd and 3rd expeditions are stationed near Manila, expected to start in taking the city yesterday but they did not; don't know if they will bombard the city or not, but I think they will.

I think they will surrender very quick when Dewey sends a few shots towards them. They have been fighting near the town already, 12 United States soldiers have been killed so far and 200 Spaniards and about 1000 wounded.

I think the Oregon volunteers will stay here and hold Cavite, this is quite a town itself. They say the insurgents are turning against the Americans, if they do we won't do a thing to them. They have got a good thing. I am getting sick looking at them. I hate them about as bad as I do a Spaniard. I suppose everything is war at home now. I hope peace is declared soon. I want to get out of this hole and get back to the United States once more, no foreign countries in mine. It rains most of the time here lately. I never saw it rain before I came here.

Give Paul my very best regards, also all our friends, tell them all that I am getting along the best I know how. I don't get to see Alex very much. He is stationed up town. He is getting along all O. K. Everything is so strict here you can't get out of the lines once a week now to buy a banana. The only thing any one can do here is to hope, it is like that old song, there will come a time some day. Dave and George send their best regards, they are getting along nicely. How are Burdand Bill getting along? Give them my best regards.

Well, Pa, I guess I will have to close for this week. Hoping to hear from you soon and often, I remain,

Your loving son,
HARRY.

Looking Glass.

Threshing is completed here and the yield is very satisfactory among most of the farmers.

Mr. Job Denning met with a serious accident a few days ago. While out in the field he accidentally ran a rye seed in his eye, which might have proved quite severe had it not been for the skill of Dr. Hoover, who was soon called.

Flourey Williams moved his family into the "Uncle Jeff Williams" property in our village recently.

Mrs. Hoover of Myrtle Creek has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ollivant.

School commenced here Monday with Prof. Davis at the helm.

Misses Cora Denning and Myrtle Spang were shopping in Roseburg last Wednesday.

Mr. Lincoln Wade of Portland is looking business matters here, and also visiting relatives.

"Joe Lari" was seen in our valley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds were in Olalla this week.

The "broom" factory is doing quite a rushing business.

Pears, peaches, apples and plums are abundant in this section.

Job Denning was visiting his daughters in Tenuille Sunday.

Improvements are steadily going on in our beautiful little village. Wm. Cochran is building a very nice residence and when completed will add much to the appearance of our village. The public school building has been repaired in the way of adding a new roof, and Marsha's prime rick will be quite a help, and other improvements too numerous to mention.

We noticed the familiar face of J. W. Winger greeting old friends here last week. His genial countenance seemed familiar after so long an absence from our midst. May success smile on him in our wish.

Several families of this community have gone to the hop yards to remain for several weeks. Among them were: Mr. O. H. Duell and family and Miss Emma Goodman.

KLODYCKER

Factional Strife.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 7.—Early this morning a riot occurred in the Colorado Springs opera-house, between 22 men representing State Chairman Blood and the Teller faction of the silver republican party, and Sheriff Byrnes and Chief of Police Gastright, with about 75 men representing the Wolcott-Stevens faction.

Charles Harris, of Denver, was killed, being shot through the bowels. An unknown man was seriously injured.

The opera-house is now in possession of the police, deputy sheriffs and supporters of ex-Chairman Blood.

A Small Fire.

At about 9 o'clock P. M., last Tuesday evening, an alarm of fire brought the fire department to the office of Dr. Strange, on Jackson street. The fire was soon extinguished, without having done great damage. It is supposed that the fire started from a small oil stove which is used for the purpose of heating material used in the dental business.

The damage amounting to, perhaps, $50, was covered by insurance. It was fortunate that the fire did not occur at a later hour, as considerable damage might have been done had not the fire been promptly discovered and extinguished.

Mr. U. S. Nichols left Thursday, for a visit with relatives in Iowa.

Elbert Jackson and Otto Logeden went to Myrtle Creek, Sunday, on their bicycles.

Modesty has charms that can only be appreciated by the person who does not possess it.

Did doughty Dewey do a daring deed? Doughtless doughty Dewey did a daring deed, and "done" the dusty Dons, with double-darted diction.

Geo. K. Quise and family returned Sunday from an outing at Bandon beach. Miss Clara Riddle accompanied them, and will visit at her home at Glenbrook.

School in the upper district, under the management of Miss Ethel Riddle, closed Friday. Miss Riddle has taught several terms in this district, and has given excellent satisfaction.

Mrs. Olive Mynatt, who was called to this place by the recent illness and death of her father, Mr. John Catching, left Thursday night, for her home at Port Rogers, Washington.

Capt. Scott, of the United States Life Saving Service at Bandon, accompanied by his wife, arrived here Friday, and will spend a few days visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

"Petoria, off on a spree,

Away, a larking he did go;

Bill in the bow upon his knee,

What sport a riding on the sea,

When something came form just below,

That set the fishes laughing so.

Mrs. D. W. Crosby went to Roseburg, Friday night, to meet her husband from Walla Walla, Washington, and together they arrived at this place Sunday morning. We understand that they will assume charge of the Hotel Riddle, for the coming winter, while Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Riddle will move to the Cracker Jack mine, so that Mr. Riddle can have the mine under his personal supervision.

Master Andrew Huggins sustained an accident, Thursday morning, that proved to be rather serious, but not dangerous. He had just chopped down a small tree, and in falling the tree struck the boy, cutting a gash in the back part of his head and hurting his hip, so that his brother, Robert, who was with him, found it necessary to carry him home. He is improving nicely at present, however.

Died, at his home in this city, Saturday, August 27th 1898, Mr. John Catching after a brief illness resulting from a stroke of paralysis, which he received a little more than a week prior to his death. Deceased had been an honored resident of this city for several years, was an esteemed member of the Baptist church, and leaves behind a wife, five sons and two daughters, who have the deep sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. Mr. Catching was one of the early pioneers of Oregon, he having crossed the plains from Missouri in 1845, thus braving the perils of early western life, and enduring the hardships attendant to those who laid the foundation for a future civilization. All honor then to the brave old pioneer, for death robbed in its most gasty aspect, claims one by one its victims, and in the passing away of Mr. Catching we see another evidence of the fact that what is mortal must yield unto its sway.

C. Weatherly and Jesse Beckley have gone to the beach.

Ed. Grubbe has returned from North-eastern Oregon.

Miss Susie Sawyers, Miss Ella Dickerson and Mrs. Dickerson have gone to Tin Pot.

We learn that Mrs. Lizzie Allen, though almost recovered from her cancer, is quite poorly from a bad cough.

About thirty passengers came through from Coos, on the stages, on the 6th.

Rev. Malkey closed a series of interesting meetings, on the Sabbath, and will return to his home in Drain. A large gathering listened to his remarks, on Sunday. Mrs. Nash united with the church.

Quite a number from here are going, and have gone to the Shambrook hop fields, and the pruna orchards.

Several of the PLAIN DEALER correspondents, have added, now and then, a word of praise for long published newspapers, and we do not wish to be outdone, and will say that we have had some interest with the paper for ten years; and although it has changed proprietors several times, it has always been sent to us regularly, except in two or three instances, when it got appropriated before it reached us. The republican sentiments have always been good, and it has refrained from vile epithets, which are unbecoming in a paper, the same as in our affairs. We hope the paper will keep on for many more years, and gain its subscribers yearly.

The school house seems to be getting on a new dress, for the coming winter.

Several of the farmers have begun tri-weekly trips to Scottsburg, with big loads of grain. Some report that the yield was not up to the usual amount, and not so large as last year.
