SPAIN WILL NOT ACCEPT

Our Propositions of Peace Settlement.

ADJOURNED UNTIL TUESDAY.

The Spanish Government Expects to Get a Better Bargain From Us.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—The joint session of the peace commissioners today lasted two hours. The Spaniards refused the proposals made by the Americans on Monday last, but negotiations were not broken off. While it is believed no formal counter proposition was made, there was a brief discussion of the Philippine question outside the lines of the American propositions.

The commissioners then adjourned until Tuesday next. The statement is printed here today with much prominence that the Americans will insist upon the immediate and complete surrender of Spain's sovereignty over the Philippines, and in the event of the Spanish commissioners refusing to agree to this, Judge Day, acting under instructions from Washington, will present an ultimatum to the Spaniards. It is further alleged that this seeming haste is due to a desire to settle the negotiations before the elections in the United States take place.

Reference is made to these allegations in view of the fact that they may also have been circulated in the United States, but there is no truth in the statements made. No ultimatum is contemplated, and there is no probability of drastic measures being taken by Americans. The two commissions are now considering an open question, and the Americans expect to patiently weigh the points involved and to carefully consider the arguments of the Spaniards.

The Americans were aware before today's session opened that the Spaniards would decline the proposition made Monday last.

R. A. Booth, of Grants Pass is in the city.
J. M. Shelley is up from Eugene on business today.
G. W. Bamford, of Medford, is in Roseburg today.

T. F. Churchill and wife and J. E. Churchill, of Dillard, were in town Saturday.

Ladies rubbers at 25 cents and first quality at 40 cents per pair. Novelty Store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth returned from a trip to Saginaw on Sunday evening's local.

Mrs. Dr. H. Little, of Oakland, has been visiting her sister Mrs. M. Fickle during the past week.

J. A. Hanson, proprietor of the Oakland brick and tile works is in Roseburg on business today.

To be entirely relieved of the aches and pains of rheumatism means a great deal, and Hood's Sarsaparilla does it.

Geo. Kohlhaas has purchased the Cass Street meat market of John S. Beckley, and will continue the business there.

J. I. Jones, who was at one time proprietor of the big lumbering plant at Jonesville near Cottage Grove, is in the city today.

Arthur Benson, son of Hon. H. L. Benson, of Klamath Falls, came down from Grants Pass Saturday and is in the city visiting relatives.

J. T. Clow went to Myrtle Creek last week to enjoy a brief season of recreation. He will also visit friends in Medford before he returns.—Junction City Times.

Dr. J. W. Strange, the dentist, returned from Portland Saturday, where he has been attending his brother, Prof. H. S. Strange. He is hopeful of the latter's recovery.

Gorton's (all white) minstrels is the attraction at the Opera House Tuesday, Nov. 8th. The papers all speak in highest praise of this troupe. Don't forget to see the parade at noon tomorrow.

David Haskins charged with larceny of a cow from W. L. Nichols, had his preliminary hearing before Justice Miller Saturday. Deputy District Attorney Riddle represented the state and Bryon & Long the defendant. Little evidence was introduced. W. L. Nichols testified as to losing a cow and identified the brand upon its hide after having been butchered in Roseburg. T. F. Churchill testified that he saw the cow, with the Nichols' brand upon it, in Haskins' pasture. J. S. Beckley, of the Roseburg meat market, testified to having purchased the cow of Haskins. The defense introduced no testimony, and Justice Miller held the defendant to answer before the grand jury in the sum of $250. In default of bonds he was returned to the county jail to await his trial at the December term of circuit court.—Daily Review.

CEO STARTER IS DEAD.

Jas. Brown Confirms the Report in a Letter.

In a letter to Dr. Myra Brown, from her brother James, at Manila, the death of Geo. Starnier has been confirmed. It says:

"George Starnier died on Sept. 24, from injuries from a fall on board ship. Geo. Starnier, is in the brigades hospital, has the malaria; he is getting along very well."

The death of Geo. W. Starnier is sincerely regretted by all who knew him. He was a manly young fellow and gave his life honorably for his country. To the sorrowing family it could ever be a consolation to know that there was not a blemish on his character and that there is a hereafter for the good and the brave.

Gorton's Famous New Orleans Minstrel

Stars and Grand Concert Band will be the attraction at the Opera House Tuesday night.

They will present a program of refreshing minstrelsy devoted to special features, and nicely surprised, while the entertainment in its entirety is "sweet by the ocean breeze" of genuine up-to-date wit.

A brand new curtain raiser, the newest thing in minstrelsy, is called "An Evening with the Notables," which serves to introduce the entire company in a series of song and story of recent issue.

A bright, new number, "Harmony" by the Crescent City Quartette, is a decided novelty, (this is an all white Co.) introducing only artists of rare ability, giving an entertainment free from objectionable features, their banner bearing the motto, "refinement."

We predict a crowded house for them.

Quecu Esther, Nov. 11th.

Bradbury's beautiful cantata will be presented to the public, next Friday evening, Nov. 11th.

The choral choir of the Presbyterian Church has spared no pains to secure the best local singers to present this cantata.

A chorus of 25 voices has been in constant rehearsal for three weeks, and the public may expect to see a very creditable performance.

L. L. Ware, of Chicago, will have charge of the customing and staging of the cantata, and will also sing Mordcaai, the leading tenor.

Seats on sale Wednesday morning, Nov. 9.

Admission 35 cents, reserved seats 50 cents.

GORTON'S FAMOUS MINSTRELS

At the Opera House Tomorrow Night.

This big company is the best known minstrel organization in America, and this year boasts of an exceptionally strong list of minstrel stars, (all white) who introduce all new and taking acts, specialties, dances, marches, musical absurdities, etc.

Gorton's Grand Concert Band is without a doubt the finest on the road. Don't miss hearing them in concert, on the day of their appearance. Prof. Joe Gorton always directs the band at all concerts. This will be a musical treat which will be looked forward to with unusual interest.

MARIA TERESA SUNK.

Went Down in a Furious Gale

November 3.

OFF THE BAHAMA ISLANDS

The Crew all Saved—The Loss Much Greater than Intrinsic Value of Ship.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 5.—The tug Merritt put into Charleston this morning, and reported the loss of the cruiser Maria Teresa off San Salvador, the Bahamas, November 3. A furious storm overtook her and in her condition she was unable to weather the gale. The strain opened rents in the hull which had been patched to enable her to make the journey, and she began to fill rapidly. The Merritt took off Lieutenant Commander Harris and crew from the sinking ship, and the soon went down. The Merritt brought the officers and men here. No lives were lost. The Teresa now lies at the bottom in water three miles deep. The greatest regret is expressed in official circles at the loss of this prize cruiser. Acting Secretary Allen, of the navy, said the loss was much greater than any intrinsic value represented in the ship. She was the link that connected the great naval victory with the United States. It was a sentiment bred in this country that succeeded in raising her, and it was the wish of the whole people that she should be brought to the United States. It was the general impression about the state, war and navy departments that the loss of the Teresa would prevent any further attempt to bring any of the other vessels to this country.

Jesse Miller, a cowboy from the Starkville vicinity, went to LaGrande last Sunday in search of adventure. He found it. Biding a gaily caparisoned steed, dressed in the latest cowboy style, leather leggings with long fringes and wide Mexican sombrero, he attracted the attention of a citizen in the suburbs, who was trying to drive a refractory cow home. Miller volunteered to help, and commenced to shoot his revolver at the cow. After firing a few volleys, he lassoed the cow and tied the other end of the lariat to his saddle. His horse then kicked both rider and saddle off and ran away. Miller next proceeded to fire a few volleys at his fleeing horse, but was eventually arrested by the city marshal and kept in confinement until the next morning.

ANOTHER MANILA LETTER.

Frank Godfrey Writes to His Parents at This Place.

Frank S. Godfrey, quartermaster-sergeant, with the 2nd Oregon at Manila, writes a letter to his parents at this place, from which we are permitted to publish the following extracts:

MANILA, P. I. Oct. 4, 1898.

Dear Father and Mother: My health is very good now. Sam Starnier is the only Roseburg boy in the hospital and he is not seriously sick. The sick in quarters are, Chas. Leatherman, J. D. Dixon and Robt. Wilcox. Sick in quarters, means slight illness, just enough to excuse them from duty, sometimes sore fingers, heat-blisters, boils, blistered feet, etc. The Roseburg people have a great deal to be thankful for in regard to the health of Co. B. Mrs. Wires' son, of Portland, has been sick in the hospital 30 days. Private Wheeler of Co. D. had typhoid fever and after being discharged went down town; the exertion caused a relapse and death was the result. Sergeant Gantenbein of Co. H. wrote a very touching letter from Hong Kong in regard to the death of Private Ordway. The Emergency Corps has been doing a fine work; the $100 given us has done a great amount of good for our sick boys who could not eat the food we had to live on. Jim Brown is taking care of sick in quarters and when they need anything in the way of extras he goes to Capt. May and gets it from the Emergency fund. But we are so far away it is hard to reach us with anything in that line, as it is even impossible to keep the commissaries supplied with canteens for the soldiers to buy when they have money. This is no place for American or United States' soldiers. God pity them! It makes a man's heart throb with pity to see the poor boys suffering with wounds and sickness far from home and loved ones. I heard there were over 5,000 invalids brought home from Cuba at one time. We are more fortunate than they, although Luzon will furnish quite a number. Father Time is here with his sickle and death with his white horse, but the boys are just as ready to meet him with sickness, as they were in the field with lead and shinning steel, and are to be honored just the same.

Judging from the papers, you have reports that are greatly exaggerated in regard to sickness and most everything else here. That man that wrote to the Oregonian and said this was the most beautiful country in the world and had the finest climate, and that all the boys intended to take up ranches wrote his letter before he landed at Cavite and left on the first boat that contained invalids for the United States. The boys of Co. H., his own Co., were very angry when they read it and thought him the most graceful liar they ever saw.

Men in the regulars, whose time expires, accept their discharges, say "Buncoes tardes" and sail by the first boat for the United States, and that is what we will all do the first chance we get, so don't worry about my re-enlisting, unless war is sure thing and in that case I might go again, but we do not want to do garrison duty in a foreign country. It is alright in time of war to fight and starve for the upholding of the teachings of Christ and the cause of humanity.

I remember the time when we boarded the Australia in S. F. and saw the people lining the docks, cheering us on while they staid at home, but there were strong men there with tears in their eyes, women whose forms were shaking with grief, whose souls across the sea never to go back, while some will return physical wrecks, there were others that would gladly have gone if they had had means to leave their loved ones, others who served their country by cheer and talk, and there were the Red Cross women, God bless them for what they have done and are doing, who came out on the steamer as far as the bar, to cheer the soldier boys, not only the Californians but the Oregonians and make their hearts thrill with joy to think we were going to fight for such women as can be found only in America, our mother country.

Yesterday I bought for the Company 3 gal. of oysters for $1.00 and 25 lbs of Tapioca for $2.50 Spanish money and today I bought 10 cucumbers for 85c each that is enough for two weeks for the company and tomorrow I am going to try and have something extra for company's Sunday dinner.

It is quite warm now. We have 12 summers here, one each month and each one hotter than its predecessor. The moment season is declared we want to start for "Home Sweet Home."
