Mr. T. R. Sheridan accompanied him to the city, where his family is at present, and where they will remain this winter.

Oliver M. Southwick, of Roseburg, is a guest of the Esmond for a few days.

Mr. Southwick has a potato ranch on the Flanagan, where he says the "spuds" grow so thick and so rapidly that the ground appears to be in perpetual motion, giving out a kaleidoscopic effect, and that by the time the succulents are ripe, they have "ding themselves," so that all subsequently required is to sack 'em and haul 'em to market.—Portland Telegram.

Hamilton's Wizard Oil Company, stronger and better than ever, will open a week's engagement in the Opera House next Monday night, Nov. 21st. They carry 11 people and give a first-class show in every respect. They give a bright, clean program, introducing many novelties, anyone of which is worth more than the price of admission charged. Most all of their company are new to Roseburg, and some of our citizens who have seen them in Portland and other towns up the valley, say it is a better show than most of the dollar attractions coming this way. Don't fail to see them on Monday night and you will attend all week. Admission 15 cents.

Some of the leading citizens of Douglas county are deeply concerned over a danger which they think they see confronting them on account of the annexation of the Philippines and Porto Rico. It has been figured that there will be 3100 new positions created in the land department on account thereof, and, aslinger Hermann is commissioner of the general land office, they fear their county will be depopulated.—Salem Statesman.

P. J. Jennings and party of expert mining men and capitalists from Idaho and Montana, Messrs. I. H. Bingham, J. P. Irwin and A. Stewart came down Sunday from inspecting the Helena mine and the Bohemia district. The gentlemen express themselves as well pleased with all the appearances of the mine and district, and their belief that in the near future Bohemia will be a great mining camp. Mr. Jennings is doing good work in bringing in prominent parties to view this district and deserves a whole lot of credit for the prominence Bohemia is securing as a great mining district.—Cottage Grove Messenger.

MUST SIGN OR FIGHT

Spain Will Give Up the Philippines or We Will Take Them.

SHE CAN SETTLE THAT POINT

Unless She Agrees to American Demands, the War Will Be Resumed at once.

Paris, Nov. 19.—There was no meeting of the joint peace commissioners today.

In their next memorandum the American commissioners will go the vital points. Definite notice will be given that the United States will take over all the Philippines, and Spain will unquestionably learn the terms from which there will be no deviation. It is more than likely that the Americans will flatly summon Spain to effect an immediate amicable adjustment. Should Spain refuse to make a treaty ceding the Philippines to the United States, the instant alternative for America will be the conquest of that territory at an increased cost to Spain in the final settlement and possibly with the loss of Spanish life.

Moreover, a satisfactory adjustment of lost Philippine conditions is demanded. Spain could not in any circumstances effect this. The Americans have assumed responsibility, and they feel that the day has come when Spain must discharge it.

Spain must confront Philippine surrender. She may prefer acquiescence and some financial relief by protracted operations and greater loss in the end. If she acquiesces, then peace will follow immediately; if she does not, war will continue.

In the window of Sam Sykes' hardware store, may be seen one of the cutest little pets that could be imagined. It is a little sugar cane larger than a cat, whose eyes are still blue, having not yet taken the proverbial topaz, of the feline race. His body has the dark spots still on it, and his fur is very beautiful. During the day, this youngster is quite drowsy, but when evening approaches his soft rounded head will begin to come out of his nest and the blue eyes, as yet innocent in expression, look about with more interest. Sam thinks a great deal of his mascot, and would not accept any price for him.

STABBED TO THE HEART

Fatal Tragedy at Fairview, Coos County.

RESULT OF A BOYS' QUARREL.

Roy Hollenbeck Stabbed and Almost Instantly Killed by Guy Bickford.

Last Saturday evening a brutal stabbing affair occurred at Fairview, which adds another fatal tragedy to the criminal history of this county. The particular scene of the deplorable affair was the North Fork school house, which is situated in what is commonly known as the Moon district. There had been a debate conducted in the school house on this eventful evening and at the conclusion of the debate after the majority of those in attendance had departed to their homes, two young men, Guy Bickford and Roy Hollenbeck, engaged in an altercation over a very trifling matter—the re-arrangement of the desks and blackboards in the school building. The argument soon became violent and the young men coming in close quarters, it is stated by Frank Pierce, the only eye witness of the tragedy, that Bickford wanted Hollenbeck to stand back or he would stab him, but Hollenbeck, it seems, disregarded the threat, and retorted, "that is a game at which two can play." Hollenbeck then drawing closer to his antagonist, Bickford in a rage of passion dealt him a blow with his pocket knife, driving the blade home to his heart. Hollenbeck faintly gasped, "I am killed!" and falling in Pierce's arms, expired almost instantly. An awe stricken crowd soon gathered around the corpse, which was carried into the school house and the coroner and sheriff were summoned. Bickford immediately became very pentient and weeping very bitterly declared he had killed his best friend. He made no attempt to escape, but went to his father and mother, who were living near by in the house of a neighbor, and told them what he had done. He is almost heartbroken over the awful consequences of his act.

Deputy Sheriff Clyde Gage and Deputy Coroner Dr. Cullen appeared on the scene of the tragedy early Sunday morning, and returned to the county seat in the evening with the prisoner and placed him in jail. He was given a preliminary examination before Justice Cecil Tuesday and was held without bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

The young men are both of good families and have lived as neighbors for a long time. Bickford is not yet 19 years of age, while his victim was just 20 years and one week old. Funeral services over the remains of Hollenbeck were conducted at the family home by Eld. Geo. C. Carl, of this city, the remains being interred in the Fairview cemetery.

Coos County News.

A letter from R. A. Graham announces that a new steamer will be put on the Coos Bay, San Francisco route within the next ten days.

Grandma Schroeder died at the home of her son, A. H. Schroeder, Thursday, Nov. 17, 1898. She was a noble old pioneer lady and came to this country with her husband in May, 1850, in company with a number of Baltimorians.

W. H. Schroeder and the patrons of the Arago creamery have posted notices guaranteeing a reward of payment of one-half of the respective amounts lost by each in the recent Arago robbery, which reward aggregates a sum of over $300, for the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties.

The steamer Myri in making her regular run from Coquille to this place Thursday afternoon, struck a snag at Clinton's landing making a hole about a foot in diameter in her hull. She began filling with water very fast and to prevent her from sinking Capt. McCloskey ran her ashore near Daniel's landing. By the aid of barges she is kept afloat and will soon be repaired and paced on the run again.

A. H. Black has perfected his Floor Sales Book and has a patent pending on the same. L. W. Deyoe has taken a half interest in the book for the states west of the Rockies, and he left this week to canvas the book. It so shortens and simplifies the old method of book-keeping that to introduce it to a merchant is equivalent to a sale of a hot and right use the book. It has many merits and will no doubt become very popular.

WRECKED AT ALSEA BAY. Twenty-Five of the Crew Lose Their Lives.

Newport, Or., Nov. 18.—News has just been received from Alsea bay, 16 miles below here, that the ship Atalanta is ashore. She had a crew of 27 men, only two of whom got ashore alive. The masts were gone and the decks swept clean of everything. She was bound from Tacoma for an African port, with wheat. The vessel has broken in two. The life saving crew has gone to the scene. The Atalanta is a vessel of about 2800 tons.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 18.—The ship Atalanta, which has been wrecked on the Oregon coast, sailed from Tacoma last Saturday afternoon, Captain Charles McBride commanding, with a crew of 27 men. The vessel was loaded with 1750 tons of wheat for Cape Town. She was a trim, first-class ship, in good condition when she left this port.

Oregon Beats 'Em All.

Oregon people have just grounds for feeling pretty good over the result of prize and medal awarding at the Trans-Mississippi exposition. The reports of the committee on awards were made public last Friday and the findings are eminently satisfactory, so far as the state's exhibits are concerned. Oregon is awarded 128 medals, three more than was given to any other state, and five diplomas of the highest award of merit.

While other state representatives are inclined to feel envious, it is conceded that Oregon was her laurels fairly, and the fact that the state came so far to exhibit a small portion of her resources is doubly gratifying.

The big tree will not be sent back. It has been bought by an Iowa for a freak show.
