

Philosophy and Things.

Killing footpads is a dead sure way of stopping hold-ups. One of the greatest beautifiers of women—and it is not patented, either—is happiness.

The young woman in Berlin who eloped with an aeronaut was probably just carried away with him. The idea of woman's suffrage is all tummy rot. There are entirely too many losses in politics now.

Riches: Poverty is the only load which is the heavier the more loved ones there are to assist in bearing it.

At the proposed peace conference in St. Petersburg the conversational powers of Europe will be on exhibition.

Johnson: When any calamity has been suffered the first thing to be remembered is, how much has been escaped.

Henry Ward Beecher: A proud man is seldom a grateful man, for he never thinks he gets as much as he deserves.

A New England manufacturer is so fearful of labor troubles that he will not permit the girls to come to work in striking costumes.

Diarrhea: Next to knowing when to give an opportunity the most important thing in life is to know when to forego an advantage.

John Quincy Adams: Always vote for a principle, though you vote alone, and you may cherish the sweet reflection that your vote is never lost.

Montaigne: Every period of life has its peculiar prejudices. Who ever saw old age that did not applaud the past and condemn the present times?

"What makes your nose so red, Mr. Taub?" "It glows with honest pride, perhaps, because it does not poke itself into other people's affairs."

"That pavement," said the sad-faced man as he brushed the snow from his coat tails, "is a good deal harder than ice when you come right down to it."

There are three places where the snow that falls is green in color. One of these is near Mount Hecla, Iceland; another 14 miles east of the mouth of the Obi, and the third near Quito, South America.

Jack Tar used to get his run undated till Admiral Vernon, whose nickname was "Old Grog," instituted the practice of watering the liquor before it was served out, and the mixture has gone by that name ever since.

To the Public. On and after this date, I wish it understood that my terms for all undertaker's goods are cash with the order. I find it impossible to do business on a credit basis, and believe that I can do better by my patrons and myself by selling strictly for cash. P. BENNETT, Undertaker, Roseburg, Ore., April 12, 1895.

Notice is hereby given to the public by the undersigned that I do not allow dead animals to be buried on my premises, at Roseburg, Oregon, or garbage dumped thereon or sand or gravel taken therefrom, unless the party taking sand or gravel first contract with me for the right to do so.
