S. Buell, an old pioneer of Douglas county, residing at Looking Glass, died Friday, Jan. 27, was given sepulchre Saturday. His funeral was largely attended by neighbors and citizens from other parts of the county, so general was the esteem in which he was held. He was an esteemed member of Mirror lodge, of the I. O. O. F., which conducted the last sad rites over his remains. Father Buell, as he was familiarly called, was an exemplary man, a kind husband, indulgent father and a good citizen, and lived to the ripe age of four score and four years.

On Friday evening last, the chorus of the First Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. S. C. Flint for practice, and we believe for fun too. After singing for an hour and a half, the remainder of the evening was given up to a jolly good time, and a royally pleasant evening was spent; an elegant lunch was served, games were played, jokes were told and many topics were discussed, among which we note politics, expansion and dress-making. When we started for home at a late hour, we left with an earnest desire that Mrs. Flint would soon invite us to her hospitable home again.

Farmers say prospects were never better, and the Watchman—well we've been hitting the high places only, for so long now that we can't think of anything less than an eight page paper and a new dress—for the paper, of course.

On Saturday evening, Jan. 24, 1899, occurred one of the social events of the season. At eight o'clock the Misses Hyland and Pull served a dainty tea to a few of their intimate friends. The table was beautiful arranged and daintily served. Some time was spent in partaking of the refreshments, after which the remaining part of the evening was devoted to games and social converse. Those present were, Misses Mary J. Jones, of Portland, Trista Anderson, Carrie Hyland, Laura Myers, Lulu Pull, Estella Hyland and Dora Myers.

The Honorable Board of Trustees of the Oregon Soldiers' Home.

Gentlemen: December 27th 1898 I had the honor of reporting to your honorable body that I had, on Dec. 8th, 1898, suspended Miss Viola Mann from duty, as matron of the hospital, at the Oregon Soldiers' Home, for cause or causes, which were as follows:

1st. Because I considered her physically unable to perform the duties required of her in that capacity.

2nd. Because her treatment of the patients heretofore under her charge has not been proper or right.

3rd. Because she has frequently absented herself from the Home and hospital without leave to the detriment of the sick in the hospital and the discipline of the Home.

4th. Because she frequently interfered with the help in the Home and hospital to the injury of the management and good government.

I proposed to furnish evidence in support of these charges, but your honorable board saw fit to take other action and re-instated Miss Mann, on the date above referred to, without further investigation. Miss Mann being present and fully advised as to the action of the board.

Notwithstanding all these facts she absented herself from the Home and hospital for eight successive days, viz, from Dec. 28, 1898 to Jan. 4, 1899, inclusive, without leave and in violation of her duties as said Matron.

Upon the last date above referred to, she presented herself for service, I, having secured other help, informed her that there was no place for her and that she was discharged.

She, apparently, not comprehending the situation on Jan. 7th, presented a copy of the board resolution of the re-instating her, to which I gave her this reply:

Roseburg, Oregon, Jan. 7th, 1899.

Miss Viola Mann.

Dear Miss: That there may be no misunderstanding as to the reason why you are discharged is to the reason why that you were discharged for having absented yourself, after having been re-instated without leave of absence from the 28th day of December 1898, to the 4th day of January 1899. While this, under the circumstances, was so plainly in defiance of my authority in the control of the Home, that I was compelled to do as I have.

Respectfully,

W. H. BYARS, Commandant.

Believing that I was fully warranted in this action, I trust your honorable board will approve of same. R'sp'tfully,

W. H. BYARS, Commandant.

At the late meeting of the board, when the investigation was in progress as to why I discharged Miss Mann, H. H. Northup stated before the board that he had given Miss Mann a leave of absence without my knowledge and consent.

This state of facts so thoroughly vindicated me, that to make my actions in regard thereto the grounds for my discharge was so untenable that it became necessary for him to substitute a fictitious charge, at a variance with the facts, for my removal.

I never presumed to re-instate Miss Mann, I had no authority to do so. The board did that and I discharged her afterward for cause, plainly stated.

Very Respectfully,

W. H. BYARS, Commandant.

Surprise Party.

A very pleasant surprise party was tendered Miss S. Ora Perry last Friday evening at her home on Short street, by a number of her young friends. Music and games were indulged in until a late hour when an elegant lunch was served, which was enjoyed by all. Among those present were:

Misses Ella E. Flook, Grace Carroll, Jennie Gilvin, Dolly Snyder, Mattie F. Perry, Messrs. Will H. Carroll, Paul Ziegler, Tom J. Brown, Raymond Jackson.

STATEMENT FROM GEN. BYARS.

His Version of the Soldiers' Home Troubles.

EDITOR PLAINDEALER: I observe that the resolution passed by the board of trustees of the Oregon Soldiers' Home, for the purpose of "ousting" me from the position of commandant, of said institution, has been furnished you for publication. I have no objection to that part of the program and am perfectly willing that all the facts connected with my administration of the Home be published, and let each side where it properly belongs.

All the facts cannot be published from the fact that the board, to cover up some of their work, ordered a portion of the records burned. In justice to Messrs. Abraham and Sheridan, I will say that neither of these gentlemen were present, nor participated, nor gave countenance to such procedures.

I wish you would publish my last report to the board upon which they have based the cause for my removal.

It is as follows:

Roseburg, Oregon, Jan. 23, 1899.

The Honorable Board of Trustees of the Oregon Soldiers' Home.

Gentlemen: December 27th 1898 I had the honor of reporting to your honorable body that I had, on Dec. 8th, 1898, suspended Miss Viola Mann from duty, as matron of the hospital, at the Oregon Soldiers' Home, for cause or causes, which were as follows:
