Gravel trains will soon be running to fill in and level up the grounds. We believe that the company will do all they agreed to do and a great deal more. On a conservative estimate they will spend more than $50,000 in improving the depot and grounds within the next two years, and that will mean a great deal to Reseburg.

PATRIOTS VS. COPPERHEADS.

During the rebellion there was a large class of people in the north who declared the war to be a failure, who said enemy. They were traitors.

Again our nation is plunged in war, the hands of the senate. Again we see senators opposing, abusing and traducing the administration cillo, and repeating his warnings with oppress the people.
