LOUBET WAS CHOSEN

Assembly Elected Him President of France.

MELINE WAS SECOND CHOICE.

Nasty Street Scenes by Nationalists and Populists—Sketched at the New Executive.

Paris, Feb. 18.—The assembly met at 1 o'clock this afternoon to elect a successor to President Faure, the palace being closed to the public. M. Meine begged his friends not to vote for him. During the progress of the balloting several deputies attempted to speak, and cries of "Down with monarchy" were heard, but no actual disturbance occurred. At 2:40 the balloting was completed.

The official count showed that 812 votes were cast, and that M. Loubet received 483, M. Meine 279, and 50 were scattered. The progressists insisted on voting for M. Meine, which explains the vote cast for him. The vote not cast for Loubet or Meine was divided between Cavagnole, Jeumont, General Saurat and others.

When the sitting of the assembly opened, the public galleries were crowded. Tellers entered, headed by M. Chauveau, who announced that Loubet had been elected. Amidst applause from left and center groups, Chauveau added:

"Loubet having obtained an absolute majority, I proclaim him president of the republic."

The announcement was greeted with prolonged applause, mingled with violent protests from the rightists, and the leftists shouting "Vive la republique." Chauveau then declared the sitting closed.

After the announcement of the result, M. Chauveau and many members of the assembly repaired to a dining saloon, where M. Loubet awaited them. The result of the election was communicated to him and he received the congratulations of his friends.

The newly-elected president has promised to devote his best efforts to fulfilling the wishes of the country and to "reunite the republicans, who have been drifted apart by the current of unhappy events." President Loubet's remarks brought forth lively applause from his hearers.

The premier, M. Dupuy, then formally transferred the executive power to M. Loubet, and congratulated him upon his election. The president, in thanking M. Dupuy, expressed the hope of having the support of the cabinet.

The senators and deputies then filed past and shook hands with the president who afterward received a deputation of newspaper men, and through them addressed to the whole press of the country to work in union and apportionment.

Loubet has asked M. Dupuy to retain the premiership and the present cabinet.

M. Loubet left the palace in a carriage accompanied by M. Dupuy, and followed by the ministers. The crowds along the route acclaimed President Loubet with cries of "Vive la republique," "Vive Loubet," "Vive Loubet."

At 5 o'clock Versailles had resumed its normal aspect.

Loubet's Arrival in Paris.

President Loubet arrived here from Versailles at 5:45 p. m., and was received with military honors. As the presidential carriage left the St. Lazaire station, a band of 30 or 40 persons ranged themselves on either side of the landau under the leadership of a couple of individuals who kept giving signals for shouts of "Down with Loubet!" and "Reign!" The general public was apparently indifferent, and no hostility was displayed. Many in the crowd saluted the president and cried "Vive Loubet!" and "Vive Loubet!" but the shouts of demonstrators running beside the carriage drowned the friendly salutations.

The noise and excitement were redoubled when the carriage stopped at the Elysee. Here two compact hostile groups were massing, hooting and blowing whistles. M. Loubet and Dupuy spent 10 minutes with Mme. Faure, and then proceeded to the Quai d'Orsay. On his journey thither M. Loubet was favorably received by the public. At the foreign office he received the high officials of state and the diplomatic corps.

Winchester.

Wood chopping is the order of the day.

Mr. S. J. Cheneveth, of Wilbur, passed through our burg enroute to the county seat yesterday.

Miss Lillie Gilliam looks rather sad this week. Wonder what is the cause?

Mr. J. S. McKay, the popular S. P. section foreman, is putting the rail-road track in excellent condition. He is the right man in the right place.

Mark Turpin was doing business in Roseburg yesterday.

Steve and Hugh Pearson are the boss luncheon here.

W. F. Gilliam is having some wood chopped on his place south of town. He does not believe in freezing during the cold weather.

W. R. Vinson is having considerable wood sawed this winter, and intends to dispose of it at Roseburg as soon as the roads are in good condition for hauling.

W. Hooper, a pioneer of Gilbo, was in town last week. He tells us that early snow grain is looking well.

Oakland Items.

(From the (aesthetic).)

Stearns & Cheneveth shipped two cars of wheat to Salinas, Cal., this week. C. L. Cheneveth, for Stearns Bros., shipped thirty-bales of hops to Indianapolis Monday.

We are pleased to note that Rev. Hyatt, who has been suffering from the grippe, is again about.

Mrs. L. W. Curtie, wife of Hon. L. W. Curtie, of The Dalles, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Penton.

On last Tuesday, while J. H. Grubb was detaching a nail, he had the misfortune to seriously cut two fingers of his left hand.

The Misses Shambrook were shopping in Oakland Thursday. Cecil will return to Umpqua, and Martha will go to Portland for a prolonged visit.

Mrs. Thomas Clark, of Shoestring, who has been in Portland the past few weeks receiving medical treatment has returned not greatly improved.

Mr. John Banks met with a painful accident last Saturday. While cutting brush, a bending branch struck him in the eye, injuring the ball to some extent. The injury is painful and may impair the sight of the eye.

St. Powell, like many other people in this world who are not always satisfied, left here some time ago for Southern California and Arizona. He is now back in Oakland and thinks Oregon a pretty good place to live for most anybody.

On last Saturday Mr. Andrew Webb, of the Scale, fell from a wagon and received injuries from which he is now suffering. Mr. Webb is 70 years old and the fall gave him such a jar as to require the services of Dr. Gilmore, who reports his patient as improving.

On last Sunday evening while C. C. Watkins, of Crox Foot Valley, was tightening the shoe on a horse, the animal becoming restive, threw Mr. Watkins in such a manner as to dislocate his shoulder and elbow. The injured man was attended by Drs. Page and Gilmore.

On last Saturday, while V. A. and Thomas Abene were riding a horse the animal fell, throwing the young men to the ground. V. A. fell striking his chin upon a bucket, which he carried, cutting a gash four inches long just below the mouth. Dr. Page attended the injured man. Thomas Abene was also jarred and bruised about the breast.

Roby Estes met with a painful accident last Tuesday. He was handling ducks, and discharged both barrels at once, the gun kicking and the hammer of the left barrel caught Roby in the corner of the mouth, tearing the flesh from the jaw. Roby was lying down at the time, and says the gun kicked him into the perpendicular and several times afterwards.

Death of a Pioneer.

Jefferson Williams, a well known and highly respected pioneer of Douglas county, died at the home of his son J. E. Williams, at Looking Glass, in this county, on Tuesday, February 17th, aged 75 years.

Mr. M. Williams was born in the state of Missouri, and on February 17, 1823. He was married to Miss Susan Furry who died August 28 1893.

Together they crossed the plains and settled in Douglas county, Oregon, in 1853, where they resided until their death. There was born to them twelve children of whom ten survive.

The deceased children were Mrs. W. T. Wright and Mrs. J. C. McCulloch. The living are Mrs. M. Wade and Mrs. Mary Cochran of Portland, Mrs. Susan Croston of Spokane, Mrs. Nettie Wright of Coquille City, Mr. W. A. Williams of Yachima Bay, Mr. T. J. Williams of Ten Mile, Mrs. Lucy Ollivant and Messrs. J. E. F. A., and M. C. Williams of Looking Glass.

The funeral services were held at 2 p. m. yesterday from the M. E. Church of this city. Rev. G. R. Arnold officiating at the services, preached an eloquent and impressive sermon, after which a very large concourse of relatives and friends followed the remains to the Masonic cemetery.

PHILIPPINE GOVERNMENT.

An Aggressive Campaign to be Launched at Once.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The administration has determined as rapidly as possible to extend the jurisdiction of the United States over the Philippine group in its entirety, acting on the theory that delay is dangerous and anarchy and general paralysis of such interests as the islands support will be brought through a failure promptly to replace Spanish sovereignty by that of the United States. This decision involves the necessity of a naval campaign and this will be initiated as soon as necessary and his re-inforcements in the shape of the gunboats now at Manila.

On last Saturday morning at about 2 o'clock the Hudson saw mill, situated about three miles north of Drain, burned. The loss will not be less than $5000, there having been no insurance on either mill or lumber. Most of the lumber outside the mills together with the sheds were saved. The engine and rollers were not an entire loss. No cause for the fire is known, but it is supposed to have been of an incendiary origin.

The property belonged to Mrs. Perkins & Bidlow, who have a lumber yard in this city. The mills will probably be rebuilt, but the loss is a heavy one on the owners of the property and it will take them some time to regain their loss.

Notice is hereby given to the public by the undersigned that I do not allow dead animals to be buried on my premises, at Roseburg, Oregon, or garbage dumped thereon or sand or gravel taken therefrom, unless the party taking sand or gravel first contract with me for the right to do so.

Trespassers will be prosecuted according to law. AARON ROSS, Roseburg, Oregon, March 17th, 1895.

Caro Bros. inform their patrons that they are in receipt again of Clark's Spool Cotton. Same old price.

Notice is hereby given to all parties holding Douglas county warrants indorsed prior to July 15, 1896, to present the same at the treasurer's office in the Douglas County bank for payment, as interest will cease thereon after the date of this notice.

Dated this 16th day of Feb. 1899, at the City of Roseburg, Oregon.
