SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.

Initiatory Steps Taken for the Erection of a Monument in Roseburg.

Persistent to the end, published in the PLAINDEALER, a number of citizens met in the office of City Recorder D. S. West, on last Thursday evening for the purpose of taking steps for the erection of a monument to those of the Douglas county volunteers who have died since their enlistment for the war with Spain.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor Marsters, and on motion, E. D. Stratford was chosen chairman of the meeting and E. E. Richards secretary. After an informal discussion of the subject, on motion the chairman was instructed to appoint a committee of five, to have full charge of the matter, with authority to appoint sub-committees. The chairman appointed as such committee: Thomas Gibson, J. W. Wright, M. McCoy, Mrs. E. E. Richards and Mrs. H. G. Stanton.

These present were enthusiastic in the advocacy of their measure. It is intended that the monument shall be the gift of the people of the whole county and all the citizens of the county will be given an opportunity to contribute to its erection.

The Salvation Army Prepares for a Week of Self-Denial.

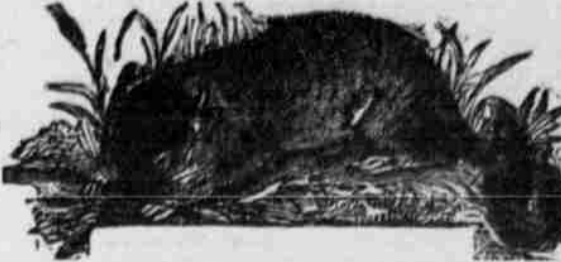

A unique effort, a so-called self-denial week, is scheduled by the Salvation Army to take place during the week of March 19th to 25th, all over the state. The members of this enterprising organization will then not only join in bands and hands themselves in a special effort to create a fund for the benefit of the Army's operations, but will try to prevail on everybody within their reach to participate according to ability and inclination, on a plan that admittedly embodies some very practical and admirable features. It is proposed that sympathizers of the Army's work during this week should voluntarily deny themselves of some little comfort or luxury, or even of things that can hardly be called either, that they may give the amount thus saved to the self-denial fund. In this way, it is claimed, everybody will have a chance to help, even such as are regular supporters of other churches or institutions.

This public for this one week will be asked to give up such things as tobacco, candies, wines, concert tickets, etc., which, since, concert tickets, etc., all the year round deny themselves of these luxuries, will make sacrifices in articles of food, clothing, carriages, etc. All these little savings run up an astonishing figure, the world total for last year being not less than $400,000, a startling sum when it is taken into consideration that the vast majority of the Army's soldiers are poor people, who regularly give to the utmost of their ability. This great missionary plan stands alone in the field, and certainly has novel and practical features which must commend themselves to all. We wish the Army all the success it so fully deserves.

A Tragedy Near Ashland.

Lon Edwards, on Wednesday, shot and killed his mining partner, C. I. Evans. The scene of the tragedy was in the cabin belonging to the two men. They were developing a quartz claim at Wagner Gap, 6 miles west of Ashland. It is known that the two partners had a quarrel on Tuesday, at Ashland and that Edwards' face was scratched up in the melee.

Evans returned to the mine Tuesday, and slept there that night. Edwards left Ashland on Wednesday at 6 a. m., and returned at noon and surrendered himself, stating he had shot Evans in self-defense.

Olatia.

Miners are busy now, that they have an excellent head of water.

The Olatia Mining Co., is preparing to make many improvements the coming season.

Col. W. H. Taylor is preparing to place a joint, and operate it, on his mine. The joint has not yet arrived. The col- onel's mine is located on the coarse gold gulch and is thought to be a good one.

R. Brandon, manager for the Roseburg Myrtle Point Sago Co., was here this week buying hay and grain for the company. He goes from here to Myrtle Point.

Reports say that the late high water damaged the road from Camas Valley down to this county line, very materially. We understand that the proprietor of the stage line makes the proposition to give a like amount that the county court may appropriate for the improvement of that portion of road; with that proposition before them we think the court should donate liberally to the same.

Commissioner Byron is now in attendance at the county court at Roseburg. He will probably return some time during the week.
