Notice For Publication.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE,
Roseburg, Oregon, Mar. 11, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory,"

COZ G. BURLAND

Of Oakland, County of Douglas, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement, No. 657 for the purchase of the lots 8, of section No. 22, in township No. 25 S., range No. 6 west, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Roseburg, Oregon, on Friday, the 19th day of May, 1899.

He names as witnesses: Dwight Reed of Oakland, Or., Hardin Davis of Wilbur, Or., James Templin of Roseburg, Or., Louis M. Parrott of Roseburg, Or.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 19th day of May, 1899.

Oakland Items.

(From the Oakland Gazette.)

Miss Dora Page is home from school at Eugene.

W. R. Medley is confined to his home, suffering from la grippe.

Our genial townsman, John Crouch, is back from Roseburg, for a few days.

Uncle Fin Sutherlin will erect a dwelling house near his warehouse in the "gap."

Miss Lizzie Cooper opened a private school with seventeen scholars, last Monday.

Elmer Parker opened school at Brockway, and David Parker at Camas Valley, last Monday.

The Misses Mattie and Ora Perry and Miss Grace Carroll, of Roseburg, spent Sunday in Oakland.

Jess Shambrook, after a week's stay at Oregon's metropolis, returned to The Maples, last Tuesday.

J. A. Hanson shipped two carloads of brick the past few days, one going to Roseburg, and the other to Myrtle Creek.

Mrs. Smith Bailey, of Roseburg, spent the closing days of last week in Oakland, the guest of Mrs. H. D. Graver.

F. W. McKechnie and family, after a few weeks at Portland and other northern points have returned to The Maples on the Umpqua.

Mr. Spooner, who has been under the care of Dr. Gilmore for sometime, is showing signs of improvement, and is able to be out and around town.

C. H. Barnett and wife, of Walla Walla, are at the home of E. G. Young. Mr. Barnett is a brother of Mrs. Young, and at one time owned the town site of Oakland.

W. J. Mahoney left for Medford, Tuesday morning, where he will act as ass stant agent for the S. P. Company. Wallie is a hard worker and is forging to the front.

J. W. Ross and family, of Salem, are at the home of K. S. Taylor. Mrs Ross is a daughter of Mr. Taylor, and we understand Mr. Ross intends to locate permanently in Oakland.

Mrs. Shambrook, former postmistress at Kellogg, has resigned, and stopped in Oakland a few days while on her way to Dunsmuir, Cal., this week. Mrs. John Elliott takes her place as postmistress.

The wife of G. A. Spooner, who has been ill for sometime, was taken suddenly worse last week, and had to call Dr. Gilmore for assistance. At last reports she was somewhat better, and resting easy.

Revival meetings have been in progress at the Southern Methodist church this week. The Revs. Shangle and Hyatte have been preaching some very effective sermons and have awakened considerable interest.

The horses driven by Mr. Simmons, the Looking Glass mail carrier, while passing under the trestle, just north of town, became frightened at the cars, broke the wagon and hurt themselves, Thursday morning. He came back, got another rig, and started on his journey again. It was reported that Simmons was killed, but he was very much alive when we saw him last.

Drain News.

(From the Watchman.)

Judge Lyons left Tuesday morning for a brief visit to Eugene, Portland and Astoria.

Mr. Haskins has leased the Frank Kent farm, near town, and has moved the family thereon.

Miss Lura Hefty returned to Comstock, Sunday, and began her school at that place Monday.

Hon. W. A. Perkins returned home the latter part of last week, from a business trip to Portland.

Miss Abbie Taylor came down from Comstock, Saturday, and began her school at Hayhurst Monday.

John Freyer and two children left Saturday for Cottage Grove, where Mr. Freyer has engaged in business.

J. H. Cox was in town Monday after two loads of machinery—circular saws, etc., for the Hudson Lumber Mills.

Miss Ella Gordon, who has been a guest of her brother, W. S. Gordon, and family, in this city for the past few weeks, left Sunday for Elkton, to take charge of the spring term of school at that place.

Ned Burt, who was discharged over a trivial matter, has been re-instated into the service of the S. P. Co., and now has a position as operator at Junction City. He spent Tuesday in this city with his numerous friends.

C. H. Clements, who has for the past six months held a position as salesman in the merchandise store of J. A. Black, left Sunday for Portland, where he has accepted a position in the Orphans' Home. His many friends wish him success in his new field of labor.

Prof and Mrs. E. O. Parker, of Yoncalla, returned home Saturday from a few days visit with relatives in this city. Prof. Parker's school at Yoncalla has been closed for the past six weeks on account of so much sickness in that locality, but he was able to resume school work Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Anlauf, of Comstock, were in town Saturday. Mr. Anlauf came down to sign a contract to allow the S. P. Co., to put in about a quarter of a mile of track on his ranch for the benefit of Kent & Bridges, of this city, who have received a large wood contract from the railroad company.

Mrs J. H. Cox, who has been spending the past winter with relatives in Arkansas, has returned to her home near Hudson. Although still in frail health, Mrs. Cox reports having had a very enjoyable visit. She returned home via the Sunset Route, and stopped off with friends in Texas to recuperate, before starting on the remainder of her journey home.

A Big Timber Deal.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—One of the biggest deals in timber lands in Oregon made in some time, was consummated Friday in the purchase, by the Booth-Kelley Lumber Co., from the Southern Pacific Co., through W. H. Mills, of a large tract of land in Lane county, the consideration being $121,200. The lands purchased are tributary to Mill creek, and are located east of and about sixteen miles from Coburg, the terminus of the Oregonian railway on the east side, which runs out from Portland. It is the purpose of the Booth-Kelley Co. to construct a railroad from their newly-acquired lands to Coburg, and the road may ultimately be extended westward to connect with the main line of the California & Oregon railroad, about five miles north of Eugene city. This enterprise means the employment of a large amount of capital, and a large number of men. The company expects to cut 1,000,000 feet of lumber during the season.

For fine tone and high grade piano get a Needham. They speak for themselves. It does not take a cracker jack at a big salary or a paid musician to sell them. All we ask is to look at the instruments, try the tone yourself, and you will be convinced that Needhams are the best pianos on the market, except Chickering or Steinway. For reference see O. F. Godfrey, A. C. Marks, or I. B. Riddle, who has just received at his home a beautiful one in figured mahogany case. The prices of these pianos are the most reasonable for the quality of goods ever offered in this city. I can also give you inside prices on any make of piano. Call and see

T. K. RICHARDSON,

NEARLY
Fifty-eight Years Old ! ! !

It's a long life, but devotion to the true interests and prosperity of the American People has won for it new friends as the years rolled by and the original members of its family passed to their reward, and these admirers are loyal and steadfast today, with faith in its teachings, and confidence in the information which it brings to their homes and firesides.

As a natural consequence it enjoys in its old age all the vitality and vigor of its youth, strengthened and ripened by the experiences of over half a century.

It has lived on its merits, and on the cordial support of progressive Americans.

It is "The New-York Weekly Tribune," acknowledged the country over as the leading National Family Newspaper.

Recognizing its value to those who desire all the news of the State and Nation, the publisher of THE PLAINDEALER, (your own favorite home paper) has entered in to an alliance with "The New-York Weekly Tribune" which enables him to furnish both papers at the trifling cost of $1.75 per year.

Every farmer and villager owes to himself, to his family, and to the community in which he lives a cordial support of his local newspaper, as it works constantly and untiringly for his interests in every way, brings to his home all the news and happenings of his neighborhood, the doings of his friends, the condition and prospects for different crops, the prices in home markets, and, in fact, is a weekly visitor which should be found in every wide awake, progressive family.

Just think of it! ! !
