We are informed that the school board at Wilbur has engaged Prof. and Mrs. O. C. Brown to teach the ensuing term of public school at that place. The board is fortunate indeed to secure two such eminently well qualified educators to take charge of their school, which has been a most interesting and successful school year in that district.

For the past twelve years Mr. Brown has been teaching school in this county and his ability and success is well known. Mrs. Brown has been teaching about seven years in this city and has a no less enviable record as a successful educator than her husband. Having previously, with her husband accepted the Wilbur school, was her reason for not again applying for a position in the Roseburg public schools.

A Great Book—"Hero Talks." It is the boast of the publisher that every thrilling event of the Spanish-American war is narrated in this great volume, by actual participants or eyewitnesses. It is the only book written by the heroes themselves, thus strictly official. It contains hundreds of vivid pictures of our heroes of the war. In addition to all the other magnificent features "Hero Talks" contains an authentic life of Admiral George Dewey, with many sketches from his own pen.
