Obituary.

Glendale Or., May 29, 1899.

Mrs. Mary Caldwell was born in White county, Tennessee, Dec. 10, 1812.

She was married to Washington Caldwell in 1830, with whom she lived most happily until his death which occurred in 1888.

They crossed the plains to Oregon in 1859. She was the mother of ten children, six of whom preceded her to the better land, leaving two sons and two daughters to mourn the loss of a devoted mother.

Since her widowhood she has made her home with her daughter Mrs. J. C. Gibbs, who has surrounded her with every comfort and luxury that the most devoted filial affection could suggest, and together with her husband and two daughters have made Grandmother Caldwell last days a blessed benediction, and stored up for themselves the sweet peace that is the reward of those who are dutiful to their parents, and honor their declining years. From all of her children she has ever had the deepest affection.

She was greatly beloved by all who knew her and she will be sadly missed in the locality where she has lived for nearly forty years. She united with the Christian church thirty one years ago, under the gospel of the Rev. E. J. McCallister, in which faith she beautifully exemplified a consecrated life. She simply trusted Him who had called her according to His all wise purpose. And in the trying hours of illness and death even as in her life He led her beside the "Still Waters."

We tender to those bereaved a full measure of sympathy. The gentle voice they loved to hear is forever stilled. The sweet monotone to the dear ones of the home are silenced, the easy chair is empty, and from their hearts come the bitter cry, "Mother is gone."

May they look beyond the silent grave to the glorious resurrection morning, that will give us all back our dear ones of earth, and clothed in celestial beauty, we shall join in the songs of the redeemed, and see them in His likeness.

Dear friends let your sorrow find consolation, while you cherish the memory of her spotless life, and as you cover her grave with laurel flowers, and write her name in spotless marble, may gentle winds warm her the sweet rest in heaven.

Mother, dear mother in heaven at rest, She in her sorrow is happy and blest.

Watching and waiting our coming above, Sheltered and safe in His infinite love.

M. L. LEE.

A Great Book—"Hero Tales."

It is the best of the publishers that every thrilling event of the Spanish-American war is narrated in this great volume, by actual participants or eyewitnesses. It is the only book written by the heroes themselves, thus strictly official. It contains hundreds of vivid and handsome illustrations and fine pictures of our heroes of the war. In addition to all the other magnificent features "Hero Tales" contains an authentic life of Admiral George Dewey, with many sketches from his own pen. This volume has received the very highest endorsement, and you should see it before placing an order for any similar book. The Rosburg agent will introduce this most interesting volume to the public in a few days.

A Pleasant Evening.

The Long Patria box social came to a reality on the evening of the 27th.

Quite a lengthy program of readings, recitations, and vocal and instrumental music, kept the attention of the audience until 10 o'clock, when the numbers were sold by H. Westbury. The little school house was filled to its utmost capacity. Much credit is due Miss Zelia Byron for her endeavors and she was ably assisted by Miss Kate Sgaherd, Messrs. W. G. Grubbe and H. Westbury furnished the instrumental music with violin and flute. Several tableaux also were among the features of the entertainment.
