A RECEPTION PLANNED

San Francisco Will Welcome the Second Oregon

WILL PAY OFF SECOND OREGON

Major William Monaghan Ordered to Portland for This Purpose.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—The Second Oregon volunteers will find many old friends to welcome them when they reach San Francisco. Oregon residents here will co-operate with the Red Cross Society of California, Mayor Pielan, Major-General Shafter, and other patriotic citizens, in extending the heroes a whole-hearted welcome. The regiment is expected to arrive here early in July.

Paris Kilbourne, president of the state harbor-commission, said today: "The Oregon boys are welcome to the upper nave of the new ferry depot for a reception parlor. Decorations would make it the most beautiful place in the city. Anything else at our disposal will be theirs while they remain in San Francisco. We think at much of the Oregon boys as they do in Portland."

Major-General Shafter will give the volunteers a military reception, and all available troops at the Presidio will turn out as an escort.

"The Oregon boys will not remain here an hour longer than is absolutely necessary," said General Shafter, "I do not know how much time it will require for the handling of the regiment, but while they remain here they will be heartily welcomed."

The reception will be under the auspices of the Red Cross Society of this state, the members of which speak in grateful terms of the Oregon society.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Major-General Monaghan, paymaster, has been ordered to Portland, for duty pertaining to the payment of mustered-out volunteers returning from Manila. He is to pay off the Second Oregon upon its arrival.

Captain Charles L. Hodges, Twenty-fifth infantry, is ordered to Portland to relieve Captain Joseph P. O'Neill from recruiting duty.

Second Lieutenant Frank A. McCall, First Idaho, is discharged on account of a wound received in action.

Otis Organizing Regiments.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Pursuing a policy determined upon some months ago, General Otis is organizing three regiments in the Philippines composed of officers and men of the state volunteers who desire to remain in the service. The army bill authorized this kind of enlistment in the Philippines. General Otis and the volunteer officers in the Philippines have been consulting to see how many men will enlist.

The number has not been very large, as there seems to be a desire on the part of the volunteers to return to the United States with their organizations. These three proposed regiments, with the three regiments of regulars to sail from San Francisco on the 22nd and 24th, and those under orders for Manila, will give General Otis 35,000 fighting men.

The new county rock crusher is steadily grinding away on the point just below town and is reported as doing splendid work grinding about 100 or 150 tons of rock per day. It is certainly a success and the county court never did a better thing than when they made that start toward better roads. The crusher's massive jaws should have little rest for the entire season. The fine new engine for the rock crusher was unloaded from the cars Monday, and taken to the Cochran place where it replaced the old engine then running the crusher. It is the finest traction engine ever received in this part of the valley.—Cottage Grove Leader.

"Durability is Better Than Show."

The wealth of the multi-millionaires is not equal to good health. Riches without health are a curse, and yet the rich, the middle classes and the poor alike have, in Hood's Sarsaparilla, a valuable assistant in getting and maintaining perfect health. It never disappoints.

Scrofula—Three years ago our son, now eleven, had a serious case of scrofula and erysipelas with discharging, discharging and itching constantly. He could not walk. Several physicians did not help for sixteen months. Three months' treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla made him perfectly well. We are glad to tell others of it." Mrs. David Lusk, Ottawa, Kansas.

Nausea—"Yomiting spells, dizziness and prostration troubled me for years. Had neuralgia, grew weak and could not sleep. My age was against me, but Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me thoroughly. My weight increased from 125 to 145 pounds. I am the mother of nine children. Never felt so well and strong since I was married as I do now." Mrs. M. A. Waters, 1229 33d St., Washington, D. C.

Eczema—"We had to tie the hands of our two year old son on account of eczema on face and limbs. No medicine even helped until we used Hood's Sarsaparilla, which soon cured." Mrs. A. Van Wyck, 123 Montgomery Street, Paterson, N. J.

Payments of Cuban continue.

Arbuckle's manager says the sugar war will continue.

Seventeen hundred medals have been struck for Dewey's men.

Canadians are talking of an all-Canadian railway line to Dawson.

A. H. Withers has sued Arlington for $7500 for false imprisonment.

More cattle will be shipped out of Oregon this year than ever before.

The Pendleton grand jury has indicted 17 persons for running slot machines.

One fare for round trip from East during W. C. T. U. convention at Seattle in October.

The battleship Iowa is in dry dock on the Sound having the banquets scraped from her hull.

Dr. Lamberson, of Lebanon, will buy 300 tons of cascara bark this year. It will cost him $18,000.

C. L. Dalrymple, an alleged attorney of Gold Hill, has skipped, leaving many mourning creditors.

O. R. & N. railway has filed its profile of the proposed extension from La Grande to Elgin and Joseph.

The little hop house is reported as making all the necessary arrangements for his annual visit in the yard.

A woman near Weiser stood in the center of the track and defied a locomotive. She was buried the next day.

Ringling Bros' circus license was cut in Seattle from $500 to $150, and everybody around the city hall had passes galore.

Hon. Richard P. Bland, (Silver Dick Bland) died at his Lebanon, Mo., home, last Thursday morning, after a sleep of 32 hours.

Admiral Watson has formally taken command of the Asiatic squadron, relieving Captain Barker of the Oregon, who has had charge.

Dewey is the lucky man among the admirals. His pay has been fixed at $12,500 a year, nearly double that received by any other admiral.

Helen Gould's income is the largest of any unmarried woman in the country. She does not spend much on herself. On churches and charities she spends $100,000 a year.

Grants Pass will celebrate the 4th. A game of baseball between that town and Gold Hill talent is among the features. State Senator B. F. Mulkey of Monmouth will deliver the oration.

Rev. Jeffrey, of Los Angeles, says his boy Jim will keep fighting until he gets licked into salvation. Then he will quit, and that he would wish him to get licked if he was going to fight three minutes from then.

State Senator B. F. Mulkey, who was elected to the presidency of the Brain normal school, has declined to accept. Professor Mulkey is now teacher of science in the state normal school at Monmouth.

A Grants Pass paper complains that the law against nickel-in-the-slot machines is not enforced in that town. Ashland people comply with the law and the machines have been put away ever since District Attorney Watson's warning.—Tidings.

Spencer K. Sewell, of the Earl Fruit Co., was in Medford Tuesday and purchased the entire crop of Bartlett pears from the orchards of Capt. Gordon Voorhees, C. E. Stewart, Weeks & Orr and E. E. Gore. It will be from 20 carsload to 40 carsload, according to the crops. J. A. Whitman will work for the Earl people again this season.

Prof. Golden, while enjoying an outing lately, had his camera along, and secured a nice picture of Dal-ober, chief of the Coos bay Indians, generally known as Jackson. The aged savant put on his feathers and beads for the occasion, and was highly pleased with the result of the snapshot.—Coos Bay News.

Game Warden Quimby has issued in pocket form a pamphlet containing the game and forestry laws of Oregon, indexed intelligently and readily available for reference. It is his intention to distribute these among sportsmen throughout the state in order that every one interested may be well informed on the laws and able to know when they are being violated.

The stock business is an important one in Wallawa county. The sales of wool alone will not bring to the county this year less than $200,000, while the sales of sheep, cattle and hogs, all of which are a good price, will vastly increase that sum. The demand for horses is showing a very satisfactory increase. Good horses can be sold at good prices. On the whole, the outlook for stockmen is bright.

The Oregon boys are coming to San Francisco, after all. It is not likely that they will sail up the coast from the latter place to Portland—that they will land at San Francisco and make the trip overland seems more probable. In which event they will strike Oregon soil at Ashland and what an ovation they will get all the way along the line of the railway to Portland.—Tidings.

Here is one way for the farmers to even up with the binding time trust: A resident of Monroe says that the operations of the cordage trust have had a demoralizing effect on the larger farmers in that vicinity. Several of those who cultivate 500 acres and over will return to the old method of heading their grain, thus eliminating the binder as well as twine. This conclusion was reached by these people on account of the present and past reports sent out regarding the proposed prices to be charged this season for binding twine. One firm owning and operating a large steam threshing outfit has ordered two 16-foot binders, and has ordered one already on hand, has contracted about 1,200 acres which will not be bound.

ASSASSINATION OF LUNA

General Otis Cables Confirming the News.

HON. B. F. HARDING DEAD.

Expired at Cottage Grove After a Long Illness—A Prominent Oregonian.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—General Otis has cabled confirming the assassination of General Luna, which he regards as bound to have a good effect, as his large following will now undoubtedly be for peace.

REBELESA, June 16.—M. Andre, the ex-Belgian counsel-general in Manila said today that Luna's death is a God-send to the United States, and the future of the islands, as he was the soul of the rebellion, and the most sanguinary man of all Aguinaldo's army, the man who tortured Spanish prisoners. M. Andre says the assassination of Luna removes the principal obstacle to peace in the Philippines.

Hon. B. F. Harding Dead.

COTTAGE GROVE, June 16.—Hon. B. F. Harding died at his home near this city today, after a lingering illness.

Ex-United States Senator Benjamin F. Harding, was the fourth secretary of the territory of Oregon. He was born in Pennsylvania in 1832. He came to Oregon in 1849, and settled in Marion county, where he was active and conspicuous in public affairs and influential in the councils of the democratic party during his entire residence there, for a quarter of a century or more. He was a lawyer by profession, but devoted most of his time to politics and farming, and in his prime was regarded as one of the shrewdest politicians in Oregon. He was United States attorney before the organization of the state government, and was three times a member of the territorial legislature. He was secretary of the territory from 1855 to 1859 by appointment of President Pierce. In 1862 the legislature assembled elected him to fill the unexpired term of Edward D. Baker, in the United States senate, Baker having been killed at the head of his regiment in the battle at Ball's Bluff. Senator Harding served out the term, and was succeeded, March 4, 1865, by George H. Williams.

At the beginning of the war of the rebellion James W. Nesmith, Ashbel Bush and Benjamin F. Harding were the ruling spirits of the union or Douglas democracy of Oregon, while General Joseph Lane, Deloson Smith and one or two others were the leaders of the Breckinridge or pro-slavery democrats, who sympathized with the secessionists of South. They were bitterly hostile to each other. Nesmith was elected to a full term of six years and Baker to a term of four years in the United States senate by a combination between the Douglas democrats and republicans, and Harding was elected in the same way to fill out Baker's term. Soon after the close of his term in the senate, Mr. Harding retired to a farm in Marion county, and a few years later moved to a farm near Cottage Grove.

Mr. Harding was married twice. His first wife was Miss Sallie M. Bush, to whom he was married at Salem in 1851. Seven children were born to this union. After her death, Mr. Harding, in 1867, married Mrs. Eliza Cox, who died several years ago. Mr. Harding's son, D. W. Harding, is the only living child. The funeral took place from the Cumberland Presbyterian church, of Cottage Grove, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. C. H. Wallace conducted the service. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

Oregon Poet Passes Away.

SAM. L. SIMPSON, Oregon's poet journalist, died at his Portland home last Wednesday from the result of injuries received recently from a fall. He was 54 years old and came to Oregon in 1845 when a few months old with his parents. He was the author of the poem entitled "The Beautiful Willamette," which made him famous and has done much to advertise Oregon and the stream it immortalizes. Simpson did not write poetry—he simply "trew it off," and even in the most dissipated condition would give utterance to the most sublime thoughts and pour forth gems of poetic expression. He was widely known among old time printers. He has two grown sons, young men of fine ability, who are filling good positions in this state.

Prominent Medford Attorney Dead.

Attorney J. H. Whitman died at his home in this city Thursday morning, at 2:30 o'clock, aged forty-five years, five months and seven days. Mr. Whitman had been in poor health for some time, but had been about to attend to business only for a week. All Medford mourns the loss of this man, in whom everybody had confidence. It is truly said that no man in Medford would be more missed than Mr. Whitman. He leaves a wife and four children, two boys and two girls.—Medford Mail.

Mrs. W. J. Plymale Dead.

JACKSONVILLE, Or., June 17.—Mrs. W. J. Plymale, a pioneer of 1846, died at the family residence in Jacksonville last night, aged 54 years and 14 days. She leaves a husband and large family of child-eren, all grown but two boys.

An Interesting Manila Letter.

MASSIN, P. I., May 4, 1899. We left Baling today and arrived at Massin. Everything is quiet and we are likely to stay here until reinforcements arrive as we have run up against more men than we can handle. I am still feeling fine and standing the trip well.

May 6.—Musician Rags, two others and myself went out after sweet potatoes. We drove down to within 400 yards of the insurgent lines and tied the horse, then went within 250 yards of their outposts and dug the potatoes. The other two men got scared out and left us and went back to the horse. They ran into a large band of insurgents that had captured the rig and were trying to surround us, they broke through them and got to camp and gave the alarm.

The general called for volunteers to go to our rescue from the 2nd Oregon 13th Minnesota and 3rd Infantry. They were soon out but got into a scrap in the potato patch, where we had been and had to fall back, and the funny part of it was that Rose and myself instead of going toward the rig went the other way and waited out of the trap that was set for us and never knew how near we were to being made prisoners.

We saw lots of soldiers and dodged them and caught a spy and brought him in as a prisoner.

May 8th. Yesterday Co. F of the 2nd Oregon and Co. K of the 13th Minnesota went out on a scouting expedition. I got permission to go with J. Rex Byers in the hospital car outfit.

We had stopped and were looking the land over when I saw a horse about 100 yards over on my right and started with another fellow to catch it. When half way the insurgents opened fire on us and that 50 yards back to the main body seemed like a mile. I think the ground along there was pretty well ploughed up. Rex Byers and I got behind a house and the bullets tore through so that we got down into a deep ditch. Just as I got down I heard a call behind for hospital corps. We jumped out again and there about 50 feet from us lay Major Digges of the 13th Minn., with a bullet through his head. Rex and I ran down the road to him with the bullets flying like hail, hitting the road in front and behind us. I saw one hit within 6 feet of the major as he lay there. Rex dressed the wound and I helped to the best of my ability. But I tell you it took all of my will power to keep myself from getting into the ditch.

We placed him on a stretcher and carried him back to camp as fast as possible. While we were taking Major Digges back there was another call from about 50 feet of where we were, and Corp. Miller, Co. F, 2nd Or., was shot through the shoulder while lying down. The bullet then went through his legging next to the leg burning it all the way down but not breaking the skin, and all this happened in less than 10 minutes, and we were advancing to the rear rapidly as there were only 100 of us and from 800 to 1000 insurgents, and we considered that it was advisable to retreat in time for supper and matters were expedited by reports in the rear. We got mail yesterday, the latest was March 27th.

Oregon's Pioneers at Portland.

The Oregon pioneers' reunion was held in Portland the latter part of last week.

Over 600 were registered, many more than ever met there at any before. More attention was lavished upon them than ever before. This was due to the efforts of the Native Son and Native Daughters, who worked to give Oregon's fathers and mothers a royal good time. They succeeded admirably, if the satisfied air of the great crowd which thronged the tabernacle can be taken as any criterion. There was coffee, straining hot, and refreshments were served, while the First Regiment band discoursed music. Finely arranged decorations were scattered about in artistic profusion. Nothing was left incomplete. But the most interesting picture of all was to observe the lingering of several generations of Oregon's children. The beaming faces of the young misses were brought out in strong relief in comparison with the rugged, furrowed countenances of men who had helped to blaze the trail of civilization through the trackless waste. There mingled among the crowd huxton matrons who had clasped babies to their breasts while their husbands kept savage Indians at bay. In short, if the history of each one of the pioneers in the city were written it would fill a big book with thrilling tales. Fine programs were carried out each day.

Old Indian Fighters Meet.

PORTLAND, Or., June 14.—About 400 veterans and the wives, widows and daughters of veterans, attended the fourteenth annual grand encampment of the Indian war veterans of the North Pacific coast today. They transacted routine business, including the re-election of most of the old officers, and listened to the speech of Representative Thos. H. Tongue. The fourth annual report of Grand Commander Wood said:

"We have now thirty-two Indian war veterans in the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg; two in the Soldiers' Home in the state of Washington, and sixteen in the Soldiers' Home of California. As near as I can ascertain, seventy-eight veterans are being supported from the Indian fund in this state, and two are in the insane asylum."

A resolution was passed, censuring the Washington legislature for refusing to admit Indian war veterans to the state soldiers' home.
