

NOW FOR THE SUMMER TRADE....

My Big Summer stock is now complete. There's brightness of summer reflected in every department of my store now. All the different stocks have their complement of fine new merchandise fresh from the looms and workrooms of American and foreign manufacturers. The display is worthy attention for the pleasure there is in looking at pretty things and for the money-saving there is in buying of me.

Uncle Noah Cornutt of Riddle was in town Friday the guest of the editor and wife. He returned home Saturday to remain until after the Fourth.

Dr. M. W. Davis will be in Roseburg July the 10th and remain a week or 10 days. Those wishing work should call early.

Rev. Edward Eccleston is expected here on Friday night's overland, to visit his father, and will preach at the Sunday evening service at the Presbyterian church July 9th.

Alben and Thornton's fine band of Angora goats arrived at this place, today from California. There were about 2,000 head in the band and were all evidently in good condition having stood their long drive remarkably well.

Purdy and J. W. Wilson, of Riddle, are in town on business and were present callers at this office today. They report the celebration at Riddle a grand success in every particular. They said our townsman, O. P. Coshaw, delivered an oration full of interest and fairly bristling with patriotism.

Among the visitors at Boswell Springs are Mrs. J. Letson of Elkhart, who is seriously effected with rheumatism, and Mrs. Harrison of Jacksonville, who is helping care for Mrs. Letson. Quite a number of afflicted people are seeking relief through the use of the famous waters of the Springs. We predict a large gathering at this resort during the summer.

An unfortunate accident marred the pleasure of the Grants Pass celebration. During the progress of the parade Miss Amy Booth, who was representing the Goddess of Liberty on the liberty car, came in contact with a low wire and was thrown from the car to the ground. She was quite severely bruised about the head and shoulders, but fortunately not fatally injured.

Persons desiring to purchase or rent homes in Douglas county will do well to enquire of J. L. Stratford, of the PLAIN DEALER, who, in his travels over the county learns of many homes for sale or rent and he may be able to refer them to parties who have just what they want. We are not real estate agents, but if we can help any one in this regard we are willing to do so.

Several families from Texas are coming to Douglas county to look for homes. Messrs. Benfro and Robbins have just recently arrived, one family reaching Wilbur the 4th of July. J. L. Whitehead, an old friend, and former resident of Texas, is in the city today and is helping to move his friends to Peel, where he now resides. We hope these people will find homes in our midst.

Prof. and Mrs. L. B. Traver started wheel Wednesday for Forest Grove and Portland, where a visit of a month's duration will be enjoyed with relatives and friends. They expect to cover the distance in four or five days.

The proprietors of all of the dry goods stores of this city and the Novelty shoe and Hackett stores, have agreed to close their stores promptly every evening at 8 o'clock, except Saturday evenings and the two evenings following the S. P. Co's pay day. This arrangement went into effect last Wednesday evening and is to continue indefinitely.

His Grace, the most Reverend Alexander Christie, archbishop of Oregon, will be in this city next Sunday. The reverend gentleman will be accompanied by Rev. Father Lane of St. Louis, Oregon. Services in St. Joseph Church Sunday morning at 10:30, and in the evening at 8 o'clock. His Grace, the archbishop will officiate at both services.

Stearns & Chenoweth at Oakland have now on hand hardware of all kinds purchased below the retail and will sell at less than former prices while in stock. Also buggies, hacks and wagons $5 to $10 less than can be bought elsewhere.

Levi Kent and son Al, started from Drain for Oakland Thursday morning leading a stallion behind their buggy. When a short distance from town the stallion made a vicious lunge and seized Mr. Kent by the arm just below the elbow, overturning the buggy with its load. By beating the horse over the head the young man succeeded in making him release his hold on the old gentleman's arm, but not until an ugly wound had been inflicted. Dr. Wade dressed the wound and the old gentleman, though 78 years old is doing nicely.

J. C. Stratford, who is without doubt one of the best photographers ever in southern Oregon, is at Ashland and is doing a good business. He has awakened the artists who have been inflicting a rather inferior quality of work upon the people of that community, and it is amusing to see them attempt to square themselves through personal attacks on their more skilled rivals in the columns of the local press.—Jacksonville Times.

Bond, the watchmaker, does engraving.

"A word to the wise is sufficient." Wise people keep their blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla and make sure of health.

Many handsomely arranged show windows were to be seen in this city on the Fourth. Our merchants take a commendable pride in making their places of business attractive and inviting.

Pneumonia, la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough readily yield to One Minute Cough Cure. Use this remedy in time and save a doctor's bill—or the undertaker's.

MARSTERS & CO.

There will be preaching at the Winston school house, Sunday, July 10, at 10:30 a. m.; and at the Green school house at 3 p. m. Will endeavor to organize a Sunday School at each place.

MARK MESSON.

Cong. S. S. organizer for Oregon.

Attorney Oliver P. Coshaw returned home from Riddle Tuesday evening, where he went to deliver the oration on Independence day. He reports a very interesting and pleasant occasion and says the hills and mountains therabouts fairly resounded with the eloquence and patriotism of the orator.

Mrs. J. H. Booth attended the Grants Pass celebration and is enjoying a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in that city. On receiving the intelligence of the injuries sustained by his niece, Miss Amy Booth, during the progress of the parade, Hon. J. H. Booth went to Grants Pass the morning of the 5th.

Edward W. Clark and wife, of Butte, Montana, stopped off at this place, a few days last week, on their return home from a wedding tour of Southern California. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Woolley. Messrs. Clark and Woolley having been old friends and schoolmates. Mr. Clark is a prominent mining expert of Montana, where he has valuable mining interests. He was delighted with some of our mineral specimens and predicted a great future for our mines.

W. B. Cornutt was married at Lebanon last Wednesday, and accompanied by his fair bride he passed through this city enroute to his home at Riddle Thursday. We acknowledge a pleasant civil.

On the morning of July 4 H. C. W. Parrot, chief of the Roseburg fire department, was presented with a handsome gold medal as a token of the esteem in which he is held by his fellow firemen. The presentation speech was made in a very pleasing manner by Attorney Dexter Rice to which Mr. Parrot responded briefly—saying the boys that the gift was daily appreciated and their kindness would ever be cherished in his memory.

Mrs. Rev. Geo. B. Arnold left on this morning's local for Portland to be in attendance upon the convention of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, which meets in the First M. E. Church on Friday, the 7th inst. She goes as a delegate to represent the Roseburg auxiliary and by the courtesy of its members. After the duties of the convention she will remain to visit with friends, that city being the scene of her husband's former pastoral labors.

A Mrs. Grubbe, who was moving with her family from Wilbur, Douglas county, to Brownville, was the victim of a runaway accident Friday near Goshon. The team of her left leg was broken, and she sustained further injuries. Dr. Brown was called to attend the injured lady, and reports her condition serious. This morning she had not regained consciousness since the accident. The runaway was started by a live of horse attacking the team Mrs. Grubbe was driving.—Eugene Guard.

Married.
