THE PLAINDEALER.

JULY 10, 1899.

The Umpqua.

(For the PLAINDEALER.)
From mountains far and wau,
Ob, fairest stream in Oregon,
Through woody dales and alleys,
Through purple hills and valleys,
In beauty glide thy waters on.
Thou art lovely as a dream,
Like silver bright thy waters gleam,
Thy currents cross and crimp,
Thy currents swell and dimple,
As ever onward rolls thy stream.
Bright and clear in morning's bloom,
Thy laughing wavelets decked with foam,
Reflect the sun's bright splendor,
Beneath the heavens tender,
Rippling to their ocean home.
At the hour of sunset clear,
Gloss by thy side I've passed to hear
Thy music sweet and holy,
Thy music that has slowly
Caused all my cares to disappear.

SUMMER BARGAINS!

THE MAN WHO NEVER MADE A MISTAKE.
Didn't keep a dry good store. We admit we make mistakes. We are human. The mistake we want to rectify just now is an error in calculation. In calculating our shirt waists we set the figure a trifle too high; the result is too many shirts waists. We were tempted by low prices and fell. We offer you a greater temptation by making the price much lower than you ever bought them before. Also crash skirts.

YOU CAN'T GO WRONG ON THESE GOODS.
Fleecy blankets very low in price. Toweling, the best and the cheapest. Table linen, you may need it now. Harvest shirts, the best for least money. Men's pants, good for hard wear. Tennis shoes at 60 cents. Table oil cloths in pretty patterns. Calicoes, a large assortment. Suspenders, that are extra good. Mackinaw twill shirting can't be beat. Sheetings of all kinds.

CRITICAL BUYERS AND LOVERS OF BARGAINS.
Will find much to interest them at our remnant tables, as you know choice goods go first. Remnants of choice goods gather rapidly. Short lengths get little price consideration here, once they are consigned to the remnant table, as you will learn if you look. Remember too, the choicest remnants go first.

Genuine Bargains in Oxford Ties, also odds and ends of other Shoes.
ROSEBURG NOVELTY CASH STORE,

LOCAL BREVITIES.

E. Isbrie and family of Garden valley were in the city Saturday.
Mrs. Allie Sheridan and children are here from Pendleton visiting their many friends.
Barb Brockway and A. J. Bellow have gone to Los Angeles, and will visit several days in the golden state.
Dr. M. W. Davis is here and has offices upstairs over the postoffice. Call early, as he will only remain eight or ten days.
D. S. West is greatly improving the appearance of his popular boarding house by the application of a new coat of paint.
There has just been issued from the clerk's office a marriage license for F. E. Olinphouse and Irene Belle French both of Binger, this county.
Mr. Yarrington will have charge of the prescription department in the Marsters' Drug Store, during Mr. Marsters' absence to Yellowstone Park.
Where was the Board of Trade reception committee when the train pulled in with the editors, Sunday evening? Shades of Pompeii, what a town.
M. Ryan, one of the genial section foremen of the Coos creek canyon, made this office a pleasant business call Friday, while enroute to Drain on a business trip.
The people of Roseburg are impatiently awaiting the return of their volunteers from Manila, and will give them such a greeting as proud hearts rejoice to give their heroes.
The S. P. Company is recognizing the push and energy of Rogue River's thriving little city, Gold Hill, and is preparing to help them by building a neat and commodious depot.
Although the prairie crop of Oregon is the nearest to a failure this year that it has ever been, there will from present indications be more prunes than were expected a few weeks ago.
T. G. Duell, a prominent and successful fruitgrower of Canyonville, was in town Saturday and made us a pleasant business call, paying for the reliable PLAINDEALER one year in advance.
Prof. Appellod is preparing to furnish the M. E. Church with excellent music for the Sunday evening services. This service ought to be highly appreciated by the good people of that church.
Mayer A. C. Marsters, left Saturday evening to take his annual summer vacation. The Yellowstone National park and other points of interest in the Rocky Mountains, will be visited during his absence.
Mrs. J. H. Skidmore, of Wilbur, passed through Saturday for Little Shasta where her mother, Mrs. H. C. Hill, is in ill health at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Serie Terwilliger.—Ashland Record.
We have the only experienced upholsterer and carpet man in Roseburg. Upholstery work and furniture repaired. Carpets laid or sewed to order. Furniture packed for shipping. Rice & Rice, House Furnishers.
A. M. Gallagher of Deer creek, was quite severely kicked by a horse Saturday evening. He sustained the severest injuries in the breast and to one leg, but Dr. E. DuGas, the attendant physician, reports his patient doing well.
Clarence Garley, the popular prairie buyer, spent a few days the latter part of last week visiting with his brother, County Clerk, J. F. Garley, of this city. He says that this county will have a great many prunes to sell, for which he is endeavoring to contract.
Attorneys I. B. Riddle, Dexter Rice, Misses Blandie Anderson, Eva Jacobs, Florie Shambrook, Ruby Gordon, and Taylor Beakley, Cal Harmon, Walt Tolles, Mel Thompson, Shell Carroll, Warren McWilliams and Jamie Smith, were Oakland visitors Sunday.
A jolly company of young people of this city, went to Oakland Sunday by private conveyance, to view the ruins of the recent fire and enjoy a picnic dinner near that city. The company consisted of, Mande Rast, Stella Anderson and Edna Holson, Ira Cole, Elmer Wimberly and Chas. Wharton.
Chas. Clements, of Roseburg, and John W. Wilson of Riddle, left for Goldendale, Wash., Friday evening. They will also visit other Washington points as well as Eastern Oregon towns in quest of a location for a general merchandise business. Mr. Clements has been head salesman in Mrs. Josephson's large dry goods establishment in this city for several years and thoroughly understands the business. Mr. Wilson is a genial and competent young man, well qualified for the business under contemplation. Both young men are deserving of success and we trust they may find a good business opening.
Since the Board of Trade failed in its efforts to entertain the editors, and the citizens had no time to act in the matter, the Entre Nous or "Old Maids Club" voluntarily took the matter in hand this morning and will give the editorial association an agreeable surprise on their return here this evening. An abundance of fine large Royal Ann cherries have been secured, which together with roses, etc., will be presented to our distinguished visitors. Attached to each package will be a neat card bearing the inscription "Compliments of the Old Maids Club, Roseburg, Oregon." The Board of Trade should surrender its charter to the "Old Maids Club."
Ole Olson, of West Fork, while bringing a large number of deer hides to this city to sell last Wednesday, was apprehended by our game warden and the skins were confiscated. On Thursday Olson was given a jury trial in Justice Miller's court and was convicted of unlawfully transporting deer hides and fined $300 and costs, in default of which he was committed to jail. L. Deach, proprietor of the Roseburg tannery, was also tried Thursday afternoon before the justice upon a charge of unlawfully handling deer skins and converting them into merchandise, and was found guilty as charged. He was fined $100 which was promptly paid. Olson's brother has also been arrested on a charge of unlawfully handling deer hides but has not yet been convicted. The penalty in these cases is fixed by statute at a fine of $100 to $500, or imprisonment, or both. It is said other arrests are going to see that the law is enforced at all hazards.

A Quiet Wedding.

A small company of invited guests assembled last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Austin, the occasion being the marriage of his daughter, Alice, to Mr. W. B. Cornutt, well and favorably known to the people of Woodburn.
The rooms were tastefully decorated, the principal feature being a bridal arch of Oregon grape and white lilies, with a ring of moss and flowers at the base.
Miss Laura, the bride's sister, and Mr. Clarence Cornutt, brother of the groom, stood with the bridal pair while Rev. C. G. Harmon performed the ceremony.
The bride was attired in a blue-gray traveling suit and the bridesmaid in white.
Besides Rev. and Mrs. Harmon the guests included Mr. and Mrs. Nosh Cornutt of Riddle, parents of the groom; his brother, Clarence, Mr. A. E. Austin and family, Mr. L. B. Austin and family, Mr. N. S. Austin of Salem, Mrs. L. A. Barrick and Dr. B. A. Cathy and family.
After delicious refreshments the whole company went to the depot, where, in a petting shower of rice, the newly-wedded couple boarded the train for Salem. Thence they proceeded today to Riddle, Mr. Cornutt's home, where they will stay a short time before going to Ashland to spend a few weeks.
Mr. Cornutt is to be congratulated upon drawing such a rich prize. The bride is a talented and accomplished lady, of sweet disposition, and fit to unite with the best of the land. She has been a resident of Woodburn for many years and made scores of friends in this city, who join the Independent in extending congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Cornutt.—Woodburn Independent, July 6th.

A. C. MARSTERS & CO.
THEY DO SAY
That the diamond is the hardest known substance—to get.
That most people will read the whole list of drinks at the soda fountain and not select vanilla.
That girls should never throw kisses; it's almost impossible for a girl to hit the object she throws at.
That when a man has never done anything himself to brag about he brags about what his ancestors did.
That the Roseburg who wants to see the railroad company because he first met his wife on a train, is a mighty mean man.
That Dave West says a man who has tried it insists that no husband can find his wife a sleep if he goes home after midnight.
That Charis Fisher was a little backward about telling the editors of the great enterprise of his town and newspaper on the way up from Portland Sunday.
That it was natural enough for our genial bachelor county clerk to add a few words of commendation and flattery when renewing his subscription to the Drain Watchman, Won't Miss Jones lecture the force for publishing that letter on her homecoming?
That it is a shame that Roseburg did not tender the editors a grander and more cordial reception. Had not the board of trade taken the initiative in the matter the citizens would have taken the thing in hand, no doubt, and made a success of it and done our fair city credit. It will be remembered that Editor Fisher was one of the active (7) committeemen appointed by the Board of Trade to arrange for the reception of the editors. He should have remained at home and engineered the thing. It's all his fault that this is thus! (?)

...Ride a Rambler...

Why have the American Armies always been victorious?
Because the U. S. A. had the very best of material and used it economically and intelligently, to the best possible advantage.
Why do Rambler Bicycles continue, year after year, to be the most popular wheels made, prove so generally satisfactory and yet sell at such a fair price?
For reasons similar to those above mentioned.
We cater to those who demand the best.
Investigate our "No. 24 Men's Medium weight Rambler Roadster," the most substantial wheel ever made. Price only $40.
