

NOW FOR THE SUMMER TRADE....

My Big Summer stock is now complete. There's brightness of summer reflected in every department of my store now. All the different stocks have their complement of fine new merchandise fresh from the looms and workrooms of American and foreign manufacturers. The display is worthy attention for the pleasure there is in looking at pretty things and for the money-saving there is in buying of me.

An ice-cream social will be given in the old store building at Edenhower Friday evening, July 14, by the Edenhower W. C. T. U. All are cordially invited.

H. L. Pitcock of the Oregonian, and C. H. Markham, general freight and passenger agent of the S. P. Co., accompanied the editorial excursion to Ashland.

John Miles, one of the staunch republicans of North Myrtle Creek, was a Roseburg visitor Wednesday and made this office a pleasant business call. Mr. Miles has just returned from a three month visit to Idaho and reports business booming in that state.

Miss Edna Harvey, who has been the guest of Miss Sylvia Stearns for a week, was tendered a very pleasant surprise on last Friday evening. An excellent repast was served at a late hour, and all present enjoyed themselves very much. Miss Harvey returned home Saturday morning.

Now we know how brother Amie of the popular Eugene Broad-Axe stands on the Philippine question. He says in his last issue: "Don't forget that when Uncle Sam is in a scrap with another fellow it is all his children's duty to help him until that fellow is soundly whipped."

Nathan and Ivy Dean came down from Middle Monday and purchased 16 head of fine Angola goats from Aiken and Thornton. J. A. Bowman and son of Myrtle Creek also purchased 23 head and with Messrs. Dean started on the drive home with the goats Tuesday. The goats will be found of great assistance in clearing up a farm. They are also valuable for their wool and meat.

SUMMER BARGAINS!

THE MAN WHO NEVER MADE A MISTAKE.

Didn't keep a dry good store. We admit we make mistakes. We are human. The mistake we want to rectify just now is an error in calculation. In calculating our shirt waists we set the figure a trifle too high; the result is too many shirt waists. We were tempted by low prices and fell. We offer you a greater temptation by making the price much lower than you ever bought them before. Also crash skirts.

YOU CAN'T GO WRONG ON THESE GOODS.

Fleecy blankets very low in price. Toweling, the best and the cheapest. Table linen, you may need it now. Harvest shirts, the best for least money. Men's pants, good for hard wear. Tennis shoes at 50 cents. Table oil cloths in pretty patterns. Calico, a large assortment. Suspenders, that are extra good. Mackinaw twill shirting can't be beat. Sheetings of all kinds.

CRITICAL BUYERS AND LOVERS OF BARGAINS.

Will find much to interest them at our remnant tables, as you know choice goods go first. Remnants of choice goods gather rapidly. Short lengths get little price consideration here, once they are consigned to the remnant table, as you will learn if you look. Remember too, the choicest remnants go first.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Miss Mauda Beckley of Oakland, is in the city, enroute to Medford.

Mrs. Oscar LaForest and Miss Grace Carroll returned last evening from Portland.

Rev. Father Laverque will be absent from Roseburg at coast points a couple of weeks.

Blackberries are ripening fast, and there is a fairly good crop in this section, so it is reported.

Dr. M. W. Davis is here and has offices upstairs over the postoffice. Call early, as he will only remain eight or ten days.

John Canaday, one of our old Oakland subscribers, was a pleasant caller at this office Wednesday while looking after business matters in this city.

Governor Geer and Gen. Tuttle were passengers on last Monday's southbound train, en route for San Francisco, where they will meet the home-coming Oregon troops.

Rev. Father Lane after enjoying a pleasant visit with his uncle, Simon Lane on Deer Creek, and his many friends in this city, returned to his home at St. Louis, Marion county, today.

Mrs. E. E. Stearns and little daughter, Vera, arrived in this city Wednesday evening from the Willamette Valley, where they have been enjoying a pleasant visit with relatives. After a brief visit with Mrs. A. C. Marsters they will return to their home at Myrtle Point.

D. W. Reid, who resides one mile west of Wilbur, was in town Tuesday evening with a fine lot of samplers Royal Ann and Black Republican cherries. He remonstrated this office with a fine treat for which he will please accept the thanks of the lover.

J. O. Metz has resigned his position as postmaster at Myrtle Creek and is succeeded by Chas. J. Richley, who recently received his commission. Mr. Metz has accepted a position with B. W. Strong, the furniture dealer of this city. Both are genial and accommodating gentlemen with whom it is a pleasure to transact business.

The 1899 premium lists for the Second Southern Oregon District Agricultural Society, are now ready and can be had by calling on or addressing the secretary, H. W. Miller, Roseburg, Oregon. The district fair will be held at the grounds near this city commencing August 29, and continuing five days. A fine program and large list of premiums is promised.

The Griffin & Veatch Company, of Cottage Grove has filed articles of incorporation through R. M. Veatch, H. H. Veatch and G. W. Griffin. Object, to buy and sell hardware, etc. Capital stock, $5000, at $100 per share. R. M. Veatch, $1000; H. H. Veatch, $1000; G. W. Griffin, $1000. Principal place of business, Cottage Grove.

Rev. J. E. Blair, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Oakland, accompanied by Judge A. F. Stearns, enjoyed a drive to this city Tuesday, where business matters required their attention. This office was favored with a pleasant call and we were pleased to learn that Rev. Blair had received the appointment of traveling missionary for the Southern Oregon Presbytery, which includes nearly all of the Southern Oregon counties. The position will be ably and very satisfactorily filled.

The following from the Grants Pass Courier, is the "most unkindest cut of all." "It is reported that Roseburg charged 50 cents per plate for the new given the editors while in that city. Roseburg is after the dime. Down there they must believe that a bird in the hand is worth many in the bush; but then it seems rather small to say the least of it. It is also reported that Portland people paid the bill and everything moved along quietly as though nothing had gone wrong."

Mrs. L. D. Carlo returned home Tuesday evening from a three month visit with relatives and friends in Illinois, Missouri and Kansas, whom she has not seen in 16 years. On her arrival here she found awaiting her a fine collection of Klondike gold suggests and a check for $1000 from Mr. Carlo, who has a good mining claim near Dawson City and which he has been working during the past year. He writes that he has "too good a thing to leave" and will remain at least another year. Mrs. Carlo is considering the matter of complying with the wishes of her husband and joining him in the far North.

On Tuesday evening we enjoyed a pleasant drive with city recorder, D. S. West, about six miles northwest of town, through the Edenhower and adjacent country and were greatly surprised to see so many thrifty young and old orchards and neat, comfortable homes along the route. In the suburbs of our city across Deer Creek we noted that a fine and exceedingly large barn for stock and hay, is nearing completion on the premises of Dan Creason, while only a few blocks up the street Mr. Horace Marsters is putting the finishing touches on a neat, commodious two-story residence. At Edenhower a nice new church building is nearing completion and there was evidence of thrift and prosperity on every hand. Mr. West has a fine buggy and a spirited and trusty little nag, and being a gentleman of a very congenial nature, we considered the time well and profitably spent in his company.

Wednesday's daily Oregonian contained a fine large picture of Mrs. Richards of this city with the following comment:

Mrs. Emma E. Hamlin Richards, the newly elected principal of the St. Johns school, graduated from the San Luis Obispo, Cal., public schools in 1887, having completed a 10 year course. She took subsequently one year's training in pedagogy, mathematics and language; taught one year in the San Jose, Cal., public schools. She removed with her parents to Douglas county, Oregon, in 1889 and has been almost continuously engaged in teaching in that county ever since, having been for the past five years in the Roseburg schools, one year conducting a preparatory and training school for prospective teachers, then accepting a position in the public schools, where she has been for the past four years, and from where she comes to take charge of the St. Johns school, indorsed and highly recommended by the very best people of Roseburg and Douglas county, Or. Mrs. Richards also brings excellent testimonials from California,

Married.

A most wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Beam Wednesday evening at 9:30 o'clock, July 12, 1899. Mr. Louis Kolbgen and Miss Nora Holsinger being the contracting parties, R. V. S. A. Douglas, officiating.

The wedding was a quiet one, only a few relatives and friends witnessing the ceremony, among whom were, Mrs. Thos. Cannon, Miss Lena Lantz, S. S. Botsinger, Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Beam. The bride is a charming young lady, possessed of a lovely character and all of the attributes that go to make true womanhood. She is a native of this county and has many friends in this city and at Brookway where she formerly resided.

The groom is a young man of sterling integrity and well worthy the prize he has won. He is a successful young business man of this city, being proprietor of the Economy Meat Market. The happy couple were the recipients of many pretty and useful presents.

The PLAINDALER joins their wide circle of friends in extending congratulations, and trusts that there will be a long, prosperous wedded life free from cares and sorrows.

At the residence of Frank Reed in this city July 11, 1899, William Loomis and Miss Minnie Grubbe both of Wilbur, Rev. J. A. Townsend officiating. The PLAINDALER joins the many friends of the contracting parties in wishing them a long, happy, prosperous wedded life.

Reception For the Volunteers.
The finance committee appointed to raise the necessary funds to properly receive and banquet the returning Co. E, have been soliciting subscriptions today, and have met with gratifying success. Everybody seems to gladly contribute something toward this commendable affair. The committee cannot see everybody who would like to contribute, and anyone not having been solicited or waited upon by some member of the committee, may have a part in this good matter by leaving their donations at the First National bank, or any member of the committee. The committee is composed of the following named gentlemen:

O. P. Coulson, T. R. Sheridan, Charles Hadley, Simon Fero, D. S. K. Baick and J. W. Wright.

Misses Georgia and Eva Janda are visiting friends in Ashland.

Frank W. Benson returned home Tuesday from a business trip to Gardiner and intermediate points.

Another rich strike of gold is reported from the Bohemia mines, now attracting about as much attention as any mines in the state.

One Olsen was arraigned in Justice Miller's court Tuesday charged with unlawfully killing deer. He plead not guilty and his trial was set for today at one o'clock.

The contract for furnishing dry goods for the Soldiers' Home has been awarded to Wellenbro Bros. and the groceries to J. F. Barker & Co. Several other contracts are yet to be let. The above named firms had the same contracts last year.

Rev. Lucy Cutlip, pastor of the U. B. Church, has the thanks of this office for a copy of the minutes of the Forty sixth Session of the Oregon Annual Conference of the United Brethren Church in Christ, which was held at Oregon City, June 14th to 18th, 1899.

On the occasion of the return of the 102nd regiment of Oregon volunteers there will be a grand celebration at Portland, and the Southern Pacific company will offer special rates from all points on its Oregon lines. Full information as to rates, date of celebration, etc., will be announced later.

For many years the editor of this paper has been a reader of the Oakland City, Ind., Journal, and on the recent visit of the Editorial Association to this city we were afforded the pleasure of meeting and conversing with Editor Cockrum of that Journal, as well as the new president of the Association, Editor Henry J. Jackson, Miss., and many other genial quill pushers.
