Hotel Hiddle, under the efficient management of the genial D. W. Crosby, has lost some of its old time popularity. Its rooms are large and well furnished, its culinary department is to most competent hands and the management is courteous, obliging and ever ready to provide for the comfort and amusement of guests. It is one of the best and most ably conducted hotels south of Portland.

The editor returned home from a tour of the South Douglas county last Saturday having visited the various orchards and inspected the fruit carefully in the different precincts and ascertained the fact that while a few orchards are nearly barren others are overladen with fruit, and taken as a whole the prune crop will fall but very little below the usual output, while the quality will be very good. The peach crop is excellent. An extended report of the conditions as we found them in the south part of the county will appear in our next issue.

Ex-Governor Penney of national fame, slipped into town last Saturday and spent a quiet Sabbath in the city, attending the Methodist church for the morning service. The Hon. Mr. Penney is a genial gentleman and we had a very pleasant visit with him.

Mr. Roberts deprecates very much as do many others, the false reports of fabulous rich discoveries made and circulated solely to enrich transportation companies and money grabbers. He believes there is more money made in mining in Oregon than in Alaska.

Mr. Roberts is in splendid health and in company with his daughter, who has been visiting in Roseburg, left on the overland Saturday morning for his home in Elkhon.

Alfred Wollenburg and family are sojourning in San Francisco combining business with pleasure.

Johnnie Boyd is enjoying a brief vacation in Southern California and contemplates returning with the volunteers.

Fred T. Sanderson, of Riddle, last Tuesday purchased the corner lot west of J. A. Lamb & Co's hardware store, on Front street, of J. A. Lamb, and will erect thereon a two-story business building 45x70 feet. There will be two store rooms on the first floor and the upper part will be cut up into small office rooms. Work will begin at once and should be completed.—Columbia Bulletin.

Just Arrived From Dawson.

Mr. Joseph Roberts of Elkhon, who went to Alaska about two years ago, arrived at Roseburg last Friday directly from the frozen North.

Mr. Roberts made us a pleasant visit at the Plaindealer office and informs us that most of his time was put in on the Yukon river steamers. Mr. Roberts left Dawson City June 26th, and St. Michaels July 6th, making a very quick trip home. He is not very favorably impressed with Alaska as a mining country while there is plenty of gold in the frozen interior, yet the cost of living and exposure to the inclement weather, also the fact that only a fortunate few secure much of the coveted treasure, makes the precious metal brought out dearly bought indeed.

Dell Kuykendall, of Eugene, the new professor of mathematics, for the C. O. S. N. S., passed through the city Saturday, enroute home from an outing at Winchester bay.

Mrs. Ida M. Davis left Friday for Rock Springs, Wyo., where she will spend a few weeks, combining business and pleasure. She will go via Portland and return on her return visit Salt Lake City and other places of interest along the route.

Prof. John B. Walker, the new president of the C. O. S. N. S., accompanied by his wife, arrived here Sunday, and is busy getting acquainted with our people, outlining the new catalogue, and formulating plans for the coming year's work. The professor is an enthusiastic worker, and a good year's work will no doubt be the outcome of his labors.

Mrs. M. C. Wells of Portland, and her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Zarnwalt, of Oregon City, accompanied the remains of Mrs. Wells' father, Mr. Jefferson, who died at Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, Saturday, to Yoncalla, where the interment took place Tuesday. Madams Wells and Zarnwalt were brought to this city yesterday evening and left on last night's overland for their respective homes.

Prof. Louis Barzee, vice president and critic teacher of the C. O. S. N. S., for the coming year, arrived here Tuesday from McMinnville, where he has held a position the past year, as teacher in the college at that place. Prof. Barzee needs no introduction to the people of Douglas, as he was president of the Normal here for three years, and his many old friends gladly welcome him to our city again.
