Died

At the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. LaRant, in Garden Valley, Friday, Aug. 26, 1899, Chas. T. LaRant, aged 32 years and 5 months, of consumption. For the past ten years he has held the position of mail deliverer or letter carrier at Portland, which position he held until he was compelled to resign by his recent illness. Early in the spring he went to Arizona, hoping that his health would be improved by a change of climate, but was disappointed and returned home and continued to steadily decline in health, until death relieved his sufferings.

He was a very exemplary young man, sober and industrious and held in the highest esteem by all of his acquaintances, who deeply deplore his untimely death. He leaves a wife, father and mother, two brothers, five sisters and a host of friends to mourn their loss. Funeral services were held today at Portland, and the remains were interred in the Lone Fir cemetery of that city.

The races for Douglas county horses alone will take place Wednesday afternoon.

Visitors From Abroad.

The S. S. O. district fair at Roseburg all attract many visitors from the southwestern part of the state this year. The attractions greatly exceed those of any meeting of the past, both in number and excellence. The farm, orchard and garden display will be especially fine, and the big pavilion, which has been improved in capacity and appearance, will contain an unlimited variety of interesting displays. The races will be best that have been held at Roseburg for years, and some of the best horses in the state will compete for the liberal purses offered. A balloon ascension will be one of the "sights," and all in all a better assortment of attractions could hardly be desired.—Jacksonville Times.
