Ladies—We beg to announce our grand opening of fall and winter millinery on Tuesday, September 26. We show the largest line of French pattern hats ever shown here, at prices which are reasonable enough for all. Josephson's.

The Rev. Chas. and Mrs. Booth announce the marriage of their daughter, Emma Louise, to Mr. James Lennox McPherson of Seattle, U. S. Deputy surveyor. The marriage will take place at St. Luke's church, Grants Pass, on the 11th of October, at 5 p. m. After a trip to Victoria they will make their home at 412 Olympic avenue, Seattle, Washington.—Ashland Tidings.

Judge Hamilton came in from Roseburg, Tuesday, by stage, and proceeded to Coquille Wednesday to meet with attorneys to hear arguments on motion, etc., preparatory to opening court Monday. This manner of expediting business will result in a great saving to the county and to litigants in the matter of jurors and witness fees. Judge Hamilton did not think it would be necessary to draw a grand jury at this term of the court.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

DRESSING THE BOYS. MANY LITTLE THINGS.

It's been a long summer's play, and now there's a winter of work ahead—school time and that boy needs clothes. Let us do the worrying. We've everything he wears—Clothes, Shoes, Hats and Furnishings. Send us his measurements, or better still, bring the boy to the store and we guarantee satisfaction.

TOO LONG A STORY.

If we began now to tell you about one of our new Capes and Fur Collarettes each day, next spring would find us describing them. That's a bare hint of the variety you'll find here, as a hint on prices you know our reputation is, not to be undersold.

ROSEBURG NOVELTY CASH STORE,

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Miss Almatta Bailey has gone to Baker City to teach school.

Hop picking is about over and the pickers are coming home.

Mrs. Lois Nye, of Portland, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Drennon.

Mr. Will Harvey of Roberts Creek was transacting business in town Saturday.

Latest styles in pattern hats and walking hats at Josephson's opening Tuesday September 26.

H. A. Crow has returned home from Riddle, where he has been combining business with pleasure.

There is a boom on in both the goat business and in poultry raising. Diversified farming has come to stay.

Mrs. Maggie Meyer and children and her mother, Mrs. Merriman, have left for their home in S. Joseph, Mo.

The Crocker shares of the S. P. Stock have been bought by a syndicate of which Callis P. Huntington was the promoter.

Chas. Stewart, liverman of Myrtle Point, arrived in this city, Saturday evening, with a sack load of commercial men. He reports times lively in our sister county.

Nat Sebring, of Riddle, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city. He reports work plentiful on Cow creek. Quite a contrast from the democratic conditions a few years ago.

C. H. Markham, the genial freight and passenger agent of the S. P. company, was in this city looking after the company's interests Saturday, and favored this office with a pleasant call.

Dr. Little, the popular Oakland dentist, is in town today. This office acknowledges a pleasant business visit. The doctor reports many valuable improvements in progress in our neighbor town.

Wm. De Gray and family passed through on Friday of last week enroute to Douglas county, where Mr. Gray has purchased a small farm, and where the family expect to make their future home.—Port Orford Tribune.

J. C. Stratford and mother returned to Marshfield, Monday, after an absence of two years. Mr. S. will, as before, engage in the photograph business here. During their absence they have resided at Ashland the major portion of the time.—Marshfield Sun.

Mrs. C. A. Schibrede, of Skagway, Alaska, arrived in the city Saturday evening, to enjoy a two weeks visit with friends and as present the guest at the home of Hon. J. H. Shope. On arriving at Tacoma, the daughters of Mrs. Schibrede entered the Anna Wright Seminary where they will remain during the winter.

Capt. W. J. Buchanan, of Yoncalla, has been at the McCallen House for nearly a week under the care of Dr. Pilkington, the oculist, of whom the captain speaks in highest praise. A terrible deep seated inflammation of the eye ball, with neuralgia of the whole frontal region threatened to involve a removal of the eye ball, but the doctor thinks now he may save the organ, though the sight is gone.

J. N. Dean, the traveling clothing salesman, was arrested at Roseburg last week, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The complainant alleged that he had ordered a suit of clothes of Dean and deposited $5 with him, but the clothes failed to arrive. On being arraigned Dean showed by letters that the order and deposit had been received by the house, and he was discharged. Dean was arrested at this place some time since on the same charge and taken to Marshfield, but was promptly discharged on having a hearing. He is evidently doing some crooked work, but is "smooth" enough to keep out of trouble, as he took several deposits here and the goods have not yet arrived.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Married.

COX-VAN ORDER—In Jacksonville, September 16, 1899, by R. S. Dunlap, J. P., J. E. Cox and Mrs. I. M. Van Order.

COLLIER-McCULLOCH—In Ten Mile, Sept. 20, 1899, at the home of M. L. Bushnell, Ansel M. Collier, of Coos county, and Mrs. Dora C. McCulloch, of Douglas county, Rev. W. M. Hampton, officiating.

Ansel has a fine farm in Coos county for which place the bride and groom started at once to make their future home. May they have a long, prosperous life, is the sincere wish of their many friends. W. M. H.

SACKETT-McKNIGHT—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Crow in this city, Sunday, Sept. 24, 1899, Mr. Aaron Sackett and Miss Viola McKnight were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. J. T. Cotton, officiating.

Both the bride and groom are well and favorably known throughout the southern portion of the county where they have resided for some time, the bride being formerly of Quitman, Mo. She is an estimable young lady and is said to be quite a successful teacher, having taught both in Missouri and this county. Mr. Sackett has long been in the employ of the S. P. Co., and is at present track-walker from West Fork to Nichols station. He is an industrious, upright and genial young man, and a brother of Mrs. H. A. Crow of this city. The happy couple will make their future home in South Douglas. The PLAINDEALER joins in extending congratulations and best wishes.

A Mother's Plain Words

"I suppose you will be astonished when I tell you that six years ago I was in a most dangerous condition with bronchitis and lung trouble, because you can see how well and strong I am now. The attack at that time caused terrible pain in my chest and lungs. I could hardly move, and to stoop caused intense suffering. Someone advised Ackers' English Remedy, and I thought I would try it, although I confess that down in my heart I had little faith in it. The first bottle gave great relief, and the second bottle made me the healthy woman I am today. My husband's lungs are weak also, and he cured himself with the same good old remedy. Our boy and girl have both been saved by it from death by croup. I know this is so, for when they were attacked the night I had a bottle in the closet, and by acting quickly that fatal malady was easily overcome. We always give it to the children when they have a cough or cold, and we would not be without it for anything. My sister will tell you also, if you ask her, that it is a medicine that can always be depended upon for all the troubles of the breathing organs. I tell all our neighbors about Ackers' English Remedy whenever I get a chance, and there are plenty of people around Mechanicsville, N. Y., where I live, who would no more think of going to bed at night without a bottle of it in the house than they would of leaving their doors wide open. As I look at it, parents are criminally responsible when they allow their children to die under their very eyes with croup, because here is a certain remedy that will conquer the terrible monster every time." (Signed) Mrs. FLOYD POWLER.

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that it will relieve in case of failure, 50c. per bottle. For a full list of United States and Canada, to Roseburg, Or., see page 10, and on ad. For particulars the above guarantee. W. H. HOSKOE & CO., Proprietors, New York.

For sale by M. F. Rapp, Druggist.
