With much pleasure, that it was, the good people of Roseburg received the news that Rev. G. R. Arnold, who was pastor of the M. E. Church of this city last year was returned to the same place and relation for the ensuing year. During the past year Rev. Arnold has endeared himself to the people of his own church and congregation and as well to the people of the city in general. The year was a very prosperous one indeed, the church taking advanced ground along all lines. The church, Sabbath school and league are in a prosperous condition and the outlook for the present year is bright indeed and it is with gladness that we join Mr. Arnold's many friends in extending a hearty welcome to his place among us.

MARSTERS & CO.

Mrs. L. L. Burtenshaw, wife of Attorney Burtenshaw of Myrtle Point, is in town accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Gray, and family. The latter will spend the winter in this city in order to take advantage of our excellent public school facilities.

C. F. Cathcart, ex-sheriff of this county, but now a representative of a Portland wholesale house, is in town looking after business and shaking hands with his many old friends. The PLAINDEALER was favored with a brief, but enjoyable visit during which time Frank and ye editor recalled many pleasant memories of by-gone days when we were schoolmates.

Miss Laura E. Jones of the Drain Watchman, stopped off at this place Wednesday for a brief visit with her sister, Mrs. Conner, on her return home from an enjoyable visit at Grants Pass. She is accompanied by Mrs. Ira Tompkins of Grants Pass, who will be a guest of Miss Jones at Drain, after their visit in this city is concluded.

A delegation of Odd Fellows consisting of twelve of our leading citizens started for Gardiner one week ago last Tuesday, and so well were they treated by the good people of the city by the sea, that they prolonged their visit, not returning until yesterday. The boys report a good time, and like everyone who visits these hospitable people and their beautiful town sing their praise in the highest terms. On the arrival of the delegation a sumptuous banquet was spread in the I. O. O. F. building, indicating that they did not fall among foes, but were sojourning among friends. An excursion to the beach, a visit to the lighthouse, life saying station and a trip to sea on the tug Hunter, were some of the features of the entertainment. The I. O. O. F. lodge, as everything else, at Gardiner, is in a prosperous condition and the boys were loathe to exchange the pure invigorating sea air for the smoky, dusty heated atmosphere of the valley.

DAMAGES WANTED.

The Bohemia Miners at War in the Circuit Court.

Robert Martin, Charles Beck, R. T. Martin, J. R. James and H. D. Tefft have each separately and apart instituted suit against, the Noonday Mining Company, a corporation, Charles M. Collier, G. G. Warner and D. B. Murray, to recover in each case, damages in the sum of $5,050, or a total of $25,250.

The complaints, each, in brief, allege that Chas. M. Collier procured the plaintiffs arrest on information signed and sworn to him charging them with hindering him and by force preventing him from surveying a claim in the Bohemia mining district, by a duly authorized officer of the U. S. court and the plaintiffs were arraigned on said charge at Eugene, before a U. S. commissioner for the District of Oregon; that the other defendants herein and C. M. Collier contriving and maliciously intending to injure the plaintiff, conspired and conferated together and maliciously and without probable cause procured plaintiff to be arrested therfor. That on August 12, 1899, the plaintiffs were examined before U. S. Commissoner J. J. Walton, for the supposed crime, who found them not guilty.

That for the purpose of defense in this prosecution the plaintiffs spent money in employing attorneys in their defense, also were compelled to lose time in leaving their homes, and in traveling to Eugene and for payment for lodgings, etc., each of the plaintiffs were damaged in the sum of $50.

That plaintiffs are otherwise injured and damaged on account of their injured feelings, mental suffering, anguish and humiliation in the further sum of $5,000 each, or a total of $25,250.

Attorneys A. C. Woodcock and J. S. Medley are retained by the defense.

This is probably the outcome of the suit began by C. M. Collier against Chas. Bruneau, P. J. Jennings, E. J. Jennings and James J. Jennings, a few days ago, for the sum of $10,380, damages.—Guard.

Died.

At the residence of her grandparent, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Powell, near Umpqua Ferry, Monday, Sept. 18, 1899, little Gracie Madalene, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Shook of Green Valley. Physicians were called and everything possible done to save the little one's life, but she was called to her Heavenly home after three days of suffering at the age of five months and two days. Although she had been but a short time with us, she was the idol of the family and loved by all who knew her.

Precious darling, she has left us,
Left us, yes, forever more;
But we hope to meet our loved one
On that bright and happy shore.
Lonely the house and sad the hours,
Since our dear one has gone;
But oh! A brighter home than ours,
In heaven is now her own. D.

Card of Thanks.

UMPQUA FERRY, Or.,
Sept, 25, 1899.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the entire community for their kindness during our recent bereavement in the loss of our little darling.

The Motion Denied.

More than a week ago the PLAINDEALER noted the hearing of a motion before Judge Hamilton for the dissolution of a temporary injunction in the case of G. G. Warner et al. vs. Chas. Bruneau and Jennings Bros. Some weeks ago a temporary order was made restraining the Jennings Bros., who have possession of the Helena or Badger mine in Bohemia from working the mine, and this order they sought to have revoked.

Judge Hamilton, after having the matter under advisement for a week, denies the motion to dissolve the injunction, which will have the effect of tying the property up until the final disposition of the suit which decides the ownership.

Notice.

There is one little maxim
That now I will name,
Which may bring what is better
Than riches or fame.
All those who will heed it
Good appetite find,
Strong nerves, rosy cheeks,
And vigor of mind.
It will banish dyspepsia,
Rheumatics and gout,
That Tired Feeling conquer,
Drive scrofula out.
And here is the maxim—
Its wisdom is sure—
Take Hood's Sarsaparilla
And keep your blood pure.

A Mother's Plain Words

"I suppose you will be astonished when I tell you that six years ago I was in a most dangerous condition with bronchitis and lung trouble, because you can see how well and strong I am now. The attack at that time caused terrible pain in my chest and lungs. I could hardly move, and to stoop caused intense suffering. Someone advised Acker's English Remedy, and I thought I would try it, although I confess that down in my heart I had little faith in it. The first bottle gave great relief, and the second bottle made me the healthy woman I am today. My husband's lungs are weak also, and he cured himself with the same grand old remedy. Our boy and girl have both been saved by it from death by croup. I know this is so, for when they were attacked in the night I had a bottle in the closet, and by acting quickly that fatal malady was easily overcome. We always give it to the children when they have a cough or cold, and we would not be without it for anything. My sister will tell you also, if you ask her, that it is a medicine that can always be depended upon for all the troubles of the breathing organs. I tell all our neighbors about Acker's English Remedy whenever I get a chance, and there are plenty of people around Mechanicsville, N. Y., where I live, who would no more think of going to bed at night without a bottle of it in the house than they would of leaving their doors wide open. As I look at it, parents are criminally responsible when they allow their children to die under their very eyes with croup, because here is a certain remedy that will conquer the terrible monster every time."

(Signed) MRS. FLOYD FOWLER.

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure. 25c., 50c., and $1 a bottle in United States and Canada. In England, 1s. 9d., 3s. 6d., and 4s. 6d.

We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.

DRESSING THE BOYS.

Its been a long summer's play, and now there's a winter of work ahead—shcool time and that boy needs clothes. Let us do the worrying. We've everything he wears—Clothes, Shoes, Hats and Furnishings. Send us his measurements, or better still, bring the boy to the store and we guarantee satisfaction.

MANY LITTLE THINGS.

If you could save as much in proportion on every dollar you spent for big things anywhere as you will have on the little things here your savings would amount to something; but as nickles and dimes are the foundation upon which by fortunes are built, you might as well start the structure today by laying in a supply of UNDERWEAR, Mens. ladies, of childrens, none better, none cheaper, every garment a saving to you.

TOO LONG A STORY.

If we began now to tell you about one of our new Capes and Fur Collarettes each day, next spring would still find us describing them. Thats a bare hint of the variety you'll find here, as a hint on prices you know our reputation is, not to be undersold.

ROSEBURG NOVELTY CASH STORE,

If you see a man Loosing his Purse

You would surely tell him about it without waiting for an introduction. We see you loosing money every day by not buying from us and must tell you at once, for our prices are lower than any store here—and the counters are groaning beneath the weight of bargains offered.
