Editor Stratford Home Again.

Editor Stratford, of the PLAINDEALER, returned to his home in this city last Friday evening from Alaska, where during the past five months he has held the position of United States townsite commissioner. In the fulfillment of his official duties the greater portion of the southern and western coast country of a good many hardships have been enthe anti-expansionists. countered, however, Mr. Stratford has Scrofula is a disease as old as antiquity.

It has been handed down for generations and is the same today as in early times. It is emphatically a disease of the blood, and the only way to cure it is by purifying the blood.

That is just what Hood's Sarsaparilla does in every case where it is given a faithful trial.
