JESSIE SHIRLEY COMPANY.

Delights Large Audiences at the Roseburg Theater.

The Jessie Shirley Company has proved a most pleasing attraction to the many patrons of the Roseburg Theater every night this week, and each performance has delighted the large audiences and fully demonstrated the superior ability of this excellent company. The series of splendid performances opened with the presentation of "Married in Haste," Monday evening. Miss Shirley in the role of a winsome country girl, a gentle and sensitive wife and lover a lady of culture and refinement, manifested her cleverness to good advantage. Geo. D. McQuarrie as the impetuous lover and indifferent husband, L. J. Plomer as Jehoe Barter, the old farmer, as well as the other members of the cast were fully equal to their parts.

On Tuesday evening, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large crowd greeted the company in the presentation of "Tribby," in which the full strength of this excellent company was admirably displayed and the fact demonstrated that too much cannot be said of the superiority of each and every one of its members.

Miss Shirley in the star role of "Mignon Tribby," was greeted with applause at each appearance. Owing to the long list of characters space forbids the complimentary notice justly due each character for their splendid work.

Wednesday evening the usual large enthusiastic crowd was on hand early to witness the company in the splendid pastoral drama "Doris," which was full of variety—pathos, mirth and tragedy. On this, as on former evenings, members of the company fully maintained their reputation as superior entertainers, Miss Shirley as "Doris" being particularly winsome and clever.

Tonight we shall see Lytton's beautiful drama "The Lady of Lyons," of which the Eugene Guard says: "Miss Shirley is a realistic Pauline, her interpretation of that haughty young lady's character being true to the author's intention. Frank Clayton was a good Grand Melnotte. Geo. D. McQuarrie appeared to good advantage as Brasseur, as did Lucretia P. Plummer in the role of Col. Dumas, and C. F. Hanson as Glavie. In fact the entire cast was excellent and the audience appreciated the play by generous rounds of applause."

Friday evening, comedy drama "A Clever Fool," Saturday afternoon matinee, "Game of Wits," Saturday evening, by request, "La Belle Marie."

The daily street concert and drill by the band and the splendid work of the orchestra are special features of this all-round excellent company.

From a G. A. R. Man

"My attack of Miller's Asthma was very bad. I was almost laid down at night for fear of smothering. I couldn't get my breath. No matter if it all the doors and windows in the house were open, it seemed as if there was no air and that I must surely smother to death. Mr. W. B. Long, of this city, called my attention to Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. I thought little of it but bought a bottle in the hopes that it might help me a little. It gave me wonderful relief, and the second bottle cured me completely. My recovery is permanent, too, for ever since I have not had the slightest return of my old enemy. I consider Acker's English Remedy by long odds the best medicine in the world for hacking coughs, asthma and bronchitis. It completely masters those stubborn troubles that many people wrongly suppose to be incurable. If sufferers will just try a single bottle, it will prove every word I have said, and more too." (Signed) JOHN D. ELLIOTT, Roseburg, Ore.

Commander John Magrath Post No. 152, Portland, Mich.
