Presiding Elder D. T. Sumnerville came in Thursday from a month's service in Klamath and Lake counties, and left on the evening train for Grants Pass.—Ashland Tidings.

J. H. Sharp, the discoverer of the Bohemia mines, and more commonly known as "Bohemia Sharp," is in the city looking after business matters. He is justly enthusiastic in regard to the future of the Bohemia mining camp.

The degree of "Dad" in the Ancient Order of Fatherhood was conferred on W. C. GIBBS, of the PLAIND DEALER, Wednesday evening, November 8, 1899. His son, a young boy and mother and son are getting along nicely.

General Nelson A. Miles passed through the city, on yesterday evening's mail, going north. He has been to Portland and other northern points, on a regular tour of inspection of Pacific coast ports.

E. C. Conner, a brother of W. C. Conner, of the PLAIND DEALER, and Miss Marie M. Lee, both of Grants Pass, were married in this city today at eleven o'clock a. m. The PLAIND DEALER extends congratulations and best wishes for their future.

We understand that Editor B. F. Lawrence, of the Capital City Bulletin, and Miss Druce, a charming young lady of that city were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at that place last night. The PLAIND DEALER congratulates with both.

The Mental Culture Club are to be congratulated on the pleasing and meritorious entertainment given those of our people who were so fortunate as to be present and hear Miss Katharine Oliver, at the Fireman's hall, Tuesday evening. Miss Oliver is certainly a cultured lady and a most pleasing and entertaining impersonator and interpreter. The audience, which was an appreciative one, was greatly pleased and highly entertained.

The W. W. C. T. U. was organized October 31st, at the M. E. church by Mrs. McWhirter, of Leida. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Echo Gaidis; secretary, Miss Ora Mote; corresponding secretary, Miss Hazel Jewett; treasurer, Miss Minnie Stanton. There were about 25 young people present, and we hope the society are cordially invited to attend. The Y. W. C. T. U. will meet every Thursday evening at 7:30, in the M. E. church.

Glendale.

J. J. Chadwick, a prominent business man of Myrtle Creek, was a visitor to Glendale, this week.

J. L. Dewey is at Glendale, having come in from the Douglas mine, last night, and his many friends and customers will be pleased to have him remain in his store where he is deservedly popular.

Clyde S. Hockett, lately of Mania, is now a student at the Grants Pass high school, where he is preparing to enter college next spring. Mr. Hockett is now in good health, and has entirely recovered from the discomfiting of army life. Mr. Hockett has commenced the study of medicine, and we are sure he will honor the profession he has chosen.

Mrs. F. L. Stewart, of Grants Pass, will have on sale at Hotel Glendale a fine assortment of millinery goods, and will make to order hats of the latest styles. She especially requests the ladies of Cow creek valley to call and inspect her stock. Her prices are reasonable, and we feel her coming to Glendale will prove to be an advantage to the ladies of Glendale and profitable to Mrs. Stewart.

Mrs. F. T. Ledy and "Oursell" spent Tuesday at the busy village of Wolf Creek. We were guests at Hotel Kearns, and as usual enjoyed the good cheer and pleasant greetings of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. who are model hotel keepers, and genial entertaining people, whose admirers comprise all who know them. We enjoyed a dainty lunch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weiland, and left Wolf Creek with regrets that a day is so short.

On Wednesday of last week, accompanied by Miss Genevieve Roberts, we spent a day at Grants Pass. We were guests at Hotel Josephine, which in every respect is a first class hotel. We observed that it was crowded with guests, who give due heed of appreciation to this splendid hotel. Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Booth, formerly of Douglas county, are proprietors of the Josephine. Grants Pass is a busy and progressive little city. The harvest district is being rebuilt, and the march of improvement goes on. In mercantile circles we met most pleasantly, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dean, R. L. Coe & Co., R. O. McCroskey and Mrs. Dixon of Dixon & McCroskey, who carry very fine stock of goods in all lines, also visited the S. P. D. & L. Co., where immense business needs no word of comment from us. Our visit to Grants Pass was an occasion long to be remembered. We met many old friends, especially among whom we place the name of Mr. Rowley, who formerly resided in Garden Valley, who is one of Oregon's grand old pioneers. Although he is a prisoner in an invalid chair, he is hale and hearty with a mind unclouded by passing years, and converses interestingly of scenes and old friends of the long ago days of the 50's. He is most tenderly cared for in the hotel home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Booth. Mrs. Booth being a daughter of Mr. Rowley.

Phantom Social.

YONCALLA, Or., Nov. 7, 1899.

EDITOR PLAIND DEALER: The W. R. C. No. 44 of Yoncalla, gave a phantom social on Oct. 31st, Halloween, which proved a grand success, both socially and financially. The program consisted of music and singing, speaking etc. The ladies were prettily decorated and every thing wore an expectant air, "expecting the phantoms" which came in presently all dressed in white robes with comic masks over their faces. They executed a phantom march and retired. The ladies had prepared refreshments and our "Betty" drew attention to the tickle of the same. There was also a Halloween cake containing a ring, a button and a piece of money. Master Ray Woodson carried off the ring. The gypsy fortune teller created much merriment and the puzzle jar of beans received a great deal of attention. Miss Madge Wilson carried off the first prize, a beautiful plate, cup and saucer. Fred Dobson received the tooby prize, a child's plate with the child's first lesson on it. There was a large and appreciative audience. Fun seemed to predominate as the ladies intended it should. The W. R. C. wishes to thank all who patronized them so liberally and gave them their attention so readily during the program, for during the reading of the program the simple act of raising the hand would command silence and the loudest applauding, which was greatly appreciated by the lady reading the program.

Lecture at West Roseburg.

Sunday, November 12, 1899, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in the chapel at West Roseburg near W. M. Hudson's blacksmith shop, the public of Roseburg will be given an opportunity to hear the recital of a long series of thrilling and fascinating adventures connected with the whaling industry of the past, under the title, "Harpoon and Bomb-Lance." John F. Michaels, a member of the Soldiers' Home here, who for many years has followed whaling as a vocation, will read an interesting and instructive paper compiled by him after long careful study and research, dealing with graphic descriptions of remarkable whaling voyages and various episodes in the history of the once flourishing industry.

The sale of tickets is limited to 50, the comfortable seating capacity of the chapel. Those desiring to attend are respectfully requested to secure their tickets without delay by calling on John F. Michaels at the Soldiers' Home, or at the store of the Hamilton Drug Company in Roseburg. Admission 20 cents.

Advice of a Druggist

"It is proper, I think, to let others know about the popularity and virtues of Acker's English Remedy for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. From the moment I began handling it, it sold rapidly, and the sales grew so fast that I had to get a new preparation. The satisfaction it gives is universal. Our best clients use it and say it is the best thing for throat and lung troubles they ever saw. Mr. S. H. Cullen, one of our prominent townsmen, says Acker's English Remedy is the only medicine that helped his chronic cough of many years' standing. At first it gave relief, and now, after taking a few bottles, he is wholly cured. I buy it by the gross at a time, and my sales are larger on this one medicine than on any other in my store. It is a great pleasure for me to feel that I have a prospecting friend after buying, returns the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back."
