NOVEMBER 13, 1899.

The chairman of the fusion county central committee of Lane county, who was also deputy sheriff, has disappeared with about $3000 of the county funds. If this man had been a republican every demo-pop paper in the state would have pointed to him as an evidence of the dishonesty of republican officials. It makes a whole lot of difference whose ox is gored.

A notable incident to the campaign in the Philippines is that no prisoners are taken by the Americans. This naturally leads one to believe the suspicion that barbarous methods are being employed are not without reason. A pretty outcome for a war begun in the "interests of humanity" and construed for "the advancement of civilization."—North Yamhill Record, Demo Pop.

What do the soldier boys and their friends think of this declaration? Does this gang of flag factors think for a moment that they could persuade Capt. Heath to accept a nomination for congress on a platform of principles, which declare that he and the brave boys who fought under him were a gang of blood thirsty barbarians? Well not if Capt. Heath has a spark of self respect, and we guess he has.

As the time approaches for the selection of candidates for legislative tickets in the different counties, the question of a successor to Hon. Geo. W. McBride, in the senate of the United States, which will come before the next legislature, is beginning to excite considerable interest throughout the state. We have not been informed whether or not Mr. McBride will seek a re-election. We have been informed that his health, which has for a long time been poor, is now such that he may desire to retire to private life. If this report is well founded, the field will be open for the election of a new man for the position. In any event it is pretty generally understood that there will be a contest for the position, into which a number of persons may conclude to enter. The PLAINEALER has always been a staunch friend of Senator McBride, and has, perhaps, said more nice things about him and his course in the United States senate than has any other paper in the state, and it has no intention of now beginning or encouraging a contest on him. However, as now appears certain, there is to be a contest for the position now held by him, it may as well be understood that the friends of Senator McBride will use all honorable means to secure his election as United States senator. We do not present the name of Mr. Hermann as the candidate of this paper, nor of Douglas county, but as the man, who, of all the men of Oregon, would most surely be satisfactory to the people of the whole state.

DOES NOT LOOK FOR FUSION.

Oregon Populist Thinks His Party Should Adopt Omaha Platform.

Judge Frank Williams, of Ashland, who has been a prominent populist for the past 10 years, and who was offered a nomination for congress that year, during after a long absence, was asked yesterday what he thought Oregon populists would base their opposition to the republicans upon in the next state campaign. He said he hardly knew. He does not look for fusion with the democrats any more, as he feels sure neither party desires it. The democrat would evidently pattern their state platform on Mr. Bryan's projection, which would be silver and anti-expansion, but he thinks populists are divided on the Philippine question, many being in favor of fighting the present war to a finish, while others think with some of the Eastern republicans that we should call our armies home. As for himself, he thinks the present war in the Philippines is the natural sequence of our intervention on behalf of Cuba. If the present war is wrong, the first step toward the liberation of Cuba was wrong.

"Do you look for the populists to nominate a separate national ticket next year?"
 "That, too, is a hard question. The lines for the next campaign are hardly drawn yet. As for myself, I think the people's party should get back on the original Omaha platform, which is divided on the Philippine question, many being in favor of fighting the present war to a finish, while others think with some of the Eastern republicans that we should call our armies home. As for himself, he thinks the present war in the Philippines is the natural sequence of our intervention on behalf of Cuba. If the present war is wrong, the first step toward the liberation of Cuba was wrong."

The following decision was rendered by Judge B. J. Jennings, in the United States district court, at Portland, on Saturday, Nov. 4th in the case of the United States vs. Jas. J. and R. J. Jennings, charged with interfering with one C. M. Collier who was attempting to make a survey of mining premises owned by and in the possession of Chas. The Governor's Thanksgiving Proclamation.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 1, 1899.—The year just drawing to a close has been one of general happiness and contentment. The earth has given forth an abundance of its products, for which in all cases a better compensation has been received than in some former years, and in many lines of business in which our people are engaged the results of labor are better rewarded than ever before. They have hoped for a changed condition, which would guarantee them a higher remuneration for their products, and with few exceptions, their wish has been granted.

There is not only no famine anywhere in the land, but we are supplying the most distant parts of the earth with the products of the farm, the factory and the shop. We are entirely free from all kinds of pestilence, and good health prevails in all parts of our beloved country. Our laboring classes, whose welfare should always be uppermost in our minds and hearts, are more generally employed at wages more nearly satisfactory than at any previous time for a generation. Our public schools are generously supported and their flattering attendance is a sure guaranty of our continued growth as a nation along the lines of intelligence and civilization.

There has been no time since the establishment of our government, when our people were more firmly attached to the national purposes or more loyally consecrated to the defense of its flag. The mandates of a spreading civilization, which from the beginning of time has sought out and eradicated the dark and uncivilized spots of the earth, are calling upon us as a great nation to carry forward the banner of progress and enlightenment, and the task is being performed with a willingness and enthusiasm that do credit to our recognition of a duty that we could not shirk if we would, and should not if we could.

Our own state is blessed with a patriotic, industrious and happy people whose observance of law and order is so universal that an arbitrary enforcement of authority is seldom required, and there is no cloud of apprehension to mar the horizon in any direction.

In view of these and other blessings, I recommend, in accordance with a well-established custom, that Thursday, the 30th inst., be recognized by all our people as a day of general thanksgiving to the Supreme Ruler of the universe for the numerous mercies that have been vouchsafed to us, and that they, as far as practicable, abstain from their usual vocations, and that they devote themselves to deeds of charity, to expressions of comfort to those who are troubled, to words of sympathy for those whose dear ones have given their lives in their country's service, and that they meet in their usual places of worship and beseech a continuance in the year to come of the favors already granted.

Done at the capitol in Salem, Or., this first day of November, in the year of our Lord, A. D., 1899.

T. T. GEER, Governor.
 By the Governor, F. I. DENKAL, Secretary of State.

U. S. COURT DECISION.

Surveyor Collier a Trespasser—No Case Against Jennings Bros.
 Bismalia, Oregon.
 The following decision was rendered by Judge B. J. Jennings, in the United States district court, at Portland, on Saturday, Nov. 4th in the case of the United States vs. Jas. J. and R. J. Jennings, charged with interfering with one C. M. Collier who was attempting to make a survey of mining premises owned by and in the possession of Chas. Berman and the Jennings Bros., the same being rendered

COLLIDED WITH AN ICEBERG.

Steamer Dora's Experience on Way Down From Valdes.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Nov. 11.—The steamer Al-Ki, from Alaska, brings news of the collision of the steamer Dora with an iceberg, in Cross sound, on the night of November 4, while on her way from Valdes to Juneau. When she struck she began to list rapidly and she was at once headed for the shore and beached, but not before the men in the fireroom were standing waist-deep in water. She was beached at high tide, and patched when the tide went out, so that she was able to reach Juneau, where she is undergoing repairs.
 Her passengers included Captain Abercrombie, United States army, and his family, and Lieutenant W. C. Babcock, Eighth cavalry.
 [This is the boat and the trip on which C. B. Cannon came down to Juneau to see his wife. Cross Sound is near Mear glacier and the iceberg no doubt came from the glacier.—E.]

Over in Coos.

(From the Myrtle Point Enterprise.)
 Coquille City is soon to have a match factory.
 The engagement is announced of Miss Pearl Major, formerly of this place, to Mr. J. C. Clodfelter of Portland.
 The broom handle factory at Bandon is getting out 5000 cornice poles and 50,000 pieces of moulding for a San Francisco firm.
 About 60,000 pounds of wool, the remnant of the seasons clip in this vicinity, was shipped to San Francisco by local merchants last week.
 The camp of telephone crew moved to the Hoffman place Monday.
 The wire is now stretched to within about six miles of this place, and the line will probably be completed by the last of next week.
 Dan Barklow came in from Roseburg Wednesday with a load of passengers.
 He reports the roads in a very bad condition, and also that the road is almost lined with the teams of immigrants bound for this vicinity.
 Captain Scott and wife of Bandon, passed through town Wednesday enroute to Douglas county where they will hereafter reside. Mr. Scott has been Captain of the Bandon Life Saving crew for a number of years and is retired from service on account of his age.
 Miss Laura E. Jones, editor of that lovely little paper, the Watchman, arrived at this place last Saturday and has spent the week in our town. She came in by the Drain stage route making the several towns along the route in the interest of the Oregonian—and incidentally, not overlooking the Watchman. Miss Jones informs us that the Watchman forces consists of only ladies. While we do wish to question the veracity of her statement, it is not our business to do so, and we are under the impression that there is a gentleman whose duty it is to do the "press" work.

Pleasant Occasion at Drain.

A very pleasant and most elaborate dinner was served by Mrs. C. W. McAllister of the McAllister Hotel, Drain, Oregon, last Saturday, November 11th, to a goodly company of relatives and friends, the occasion being in honor of a visit from her nephews, Mr. Silas H. McAllister of Gilson, Illinois, Mr. L. E. Ward and family, each of Lorraine, Oregon, and family, each of Lorraine, Oregon.
 After a pleasant and most highly entertaining visit in the hotel parlors the company adjourned to the dining room, where a spread such as only Mrs. McAllister and her most estimable daughters could prepare was in waiting, and was enjoyed by all present.
 Those present consisted of Mrs. C. W. McAllister and her daughters, Mrs. F. L. Kenny of Roseburg, Miss McAllister and Miss Lulu McAllister and Mr. Wesley McAllister of Drain; Mr. Silas H. McAllister of Gilson, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ward and two children and Mr. George W. Cartwright of Yoncalla, Or.; Dr. J. W. Strange of Roseburg, Or.; Mrs. M. J. Jackson, Miss Laura Spaulding and Miss Talitha Roberts of Drain, Or.

Women Wrecks.

Every once in a while the newspapers tell of some beautiful woman who has been consigned to an asylum, because of her physical weakness, or other ailments, which she is unable to overcome. The story is an old, but even now a woman is found herself suffering from weakness, nervousness, despondency and irritability. She cannot divide the cause, and her family physician seems equally at loss. A friend who suffers in the same way tells her that a few drops of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which contains no alcohol, will give temporary relief. And that is the beginning that ends in a madhouse. The woman who suffers from the symptoms described may safely infer that there exists disease of a safe kind, of the delicate organs that constitute her womanhood. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a womanly way. It goes away with necessary and local treatment. It cures in the privacy of the home. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs upon which depends the perpetuation of the human race.
 Mrs. H. A. Ashbrook, of Annet, Lenoxe Co., N. Y., writes: "After five months of suffering I write this for the benefit of other sufferers from the same affliction. I doctored with every kind of medicine without any good result, until my husband urged me to try Dr. Pierce's medicine, which I did, with wonderful results. I am completely cured. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, four of his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets.'
 Constipation kills slowly. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure quickly."

 Mrs. H. A. Ashbrook, of Annet, Lenoxe Co., N. Y., writes: "After five months of suffering I write this for the benefit of other sufferers from the same affliction. I doctored with every kind of medicine without any good result, until my husband urged me to try Dr. Pierce's medicine, which I did, with wonderful results. I am completely cured. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, four of his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets.'
 Constipation kills slowly. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure quickly."
