Mr. G. P. Gester and family passed through Roseburg yesterday evening on the local going to Grants Pass to take permanent charge of the S. P. station at that place. Railroad men are much pleased with the change as it is quite a promotion. Mr. Gester began his railroad career as warehouseman at Roseburg in 1887, later was made agent at Oakland, Or., after which he was several years train dispatcher at Portland, but for five years past has been chief clerk at East Portland. Mr. Gester is prominently connected with the order of R. R. Telegraphers.
"We beg to call special attention to the large display of T. K. Richardson's, which appears on our fourth page. Mr. Richardson, we believe, has the only stock of musical instruments in Roseburg, at least the only complete stock of first class instruments. He has also built up a reputation for honesty and fair dealing, which extends all over Southern Oregon. The Blickensler typewriter, which he advertises is a marvel for simplicity, utility and cheapness, being sold for $35 and $50. Persons interested in his line of goods, will do well to call and examine his stock."

K. of P. Social Session.

On last evening Alpha Lodge K. of P held a social session at their hall in honor of Sr. Knight Stanley Kidder, who expects to leave soon for Manila where he enters the U. S. postal service to which he was appointed a short time ago.
The hall was comfortably filled with the members of the lodge and their families and a number of invited guests. A program consisted of vocal and instrumental music was rendered, after which lunch was served and an hour was spent in conversation, cards and a general social mix-up. A very pleasant time was had.
Mr. Kidder is very popular in Roseburg, both socially and in a business way and while his friends are glad of his well-merited recognition, yet they are sorry to have him go away. We wish him every success in his new field of labor.
Mrs. Abner Biddle is in the city visiting friends.
A big reduction in Eastman Kodaks, at Churchill & Woolley's.
The new sidewalk in front of Rice & Rice is a decided improvement.
