The Bohemia Nugget publishes a map of the Bohemia mining district which shows that two-thirds of the district is in Douglas county.

It is an absolute fact, the truth of which we defy anyone to deny, that every dollar saved to the taxpayers of Douglas county during the past two years, is directly attributable to the action of republican officials.

The fusionists, while pointing with pride to their successful administration of affairs in Lane county, are making loud boasts about the defalcation of a chairman of the fusion county central committee of Lane county, while deputy sheriff of that county.

Your fusion neighbors trying to get you a long about lower taxes, go and examine your tax receipts, for the past 4 or 5 years and you find your taxes are any lower than they were before the reform gang got the office make an intelligent examination of the subject and ascertain just where the saving was made and who is responsible for it.

"Government by injunction" has been denounced in democrat platform, state and national without stint, but now the shoe is on the other foot, and the democrat courts of that state to enjoin Governor Taylor from being holding the office to which he was elected and which he has held for some months.

A new transpires that the fusion administration of Lane county, whose economy and successful administration of county affairs, has been pointed to as an evidence of what the fusionists can accomplish in the way of good government, found the money in the treasury when they took possession of the office, sayed up by their predecessors who were republicans. The fusionists who now have control of that county, have, in order to maintain their reputation for economy, practically abandoned the roads and bridges of that county.

For county clerk, the republican convention will probably consider among others the name of J. A. Underwood of Oakland. Mr. Underwood is well known in every nook and corner in Douglas county, and perhaps has as many personal friends as any man in the county. His ability to perform the duties of the office to the entire satisfaction of the people of the county, is unquestioned and his honesty and integrity are as firmly fixed as are the hills of the Umpqua, among which he was born.

Reasonable care should be exercised both by the proper authorities and private individuals, against the introduction into our midst of smallpox. So far Roseburg, and in fact all of Douglas county has been free of even a suspicion of the disease, but with a number of cases reported in Lane county on the north and Josephine on the south, we will be fortunate if it is kept out by the most vigilant efforts.

There is a strong probability that the republican county convention will renominate for superintendent of schools, Capt. F. B. Hamlin. The people are very starting under the indignity which was placed on the good name of the county, by those who by disgraceful intrigue and abject selfishness, deprived Mr. Hamlin of this office to which they had elected him, and fastened upon them a man whom they had repudiated at the polls, and they would rejoice at the opportunity to show their condemnation of such methods in politics.

The way the democrats kept their faith with the populists and silver republicans two years ago, will no doubt cause the members of the two last named parties to fall over themselves in their anxiety to roll up a good big majority for the democrat candidates on the fusion ticket at the coming June election. Let us see how the democrats kept their faith at the June election two years ago. At that election Lyons, democrat, received a majority of 546 over Stearns, republican. Stephens, democrat, received a majority of 474 over Black republican. Gazley, republican, received a majority of 110 votes for clerk over Shupe, republican, and for assessor, Gillette, populist, received a majority of 202 votes over Britt republican.

It will be seen that the two leading democrat candidates on the fusion ticket received a combined majority of 1020, while the two leading populist candidates on that ticket received a combined majority of 393. If the vote for the democrat candidate for circuit judge and the populist candidate for district attorney are taken into the calculation the contrast is even more striking and conclusive. Let us see how the two silver republican candidates on the fusion tickets fared as compared with the democrats. The combined vote of Cooper and Coon silver republicans was 671, less than the combined vote of Lyons and Stephens. But what is the use of making comparisons? Every citizen of Roseburg knows that the editor of the Review and his friends, who were interested in having a democrat sheriff elected, worked the county thoroughly and advised and plead with democrats to sacrifice every populist on the ticket in order, when possible, to secure votes for the democrat candidates for sheriff and county judge. The same tactics are to be used again this year. Already the editor of the Review, has openly admitted that this is to be the last attempt at fusion in Douglas county and that the worst is to be made of it. Populists and silver republicans are to be placed on the fusion ticket, not to be slaughtered by the democrats, but to be slaughtered by the interest of a democratic sheriff.

We desire to again call the attention of our correspondents to the rule which requires that all communications, intended for publication in this paper, must be accompanied by the real name of the writer. The name will not be published unless desired, but we must insist on the observance of the rule in the future.

If a man owned a $50 pup he would look after it carefully and not let it have the run of the town by day and by night, says an exchange, as he would know too well that it would be ruined. But if he turned loose at an early age to go where it will and do as it pleases. People wonder where the great array of tramps, dead-beats, loafers, gamblers, thieves and other undesirable come from. They are the result of men in counties, homes and scattered broadcast on the streets of our cities and towns. There are thousands of children, beset in that direction, who, so far as care is concerned, are not given equal showing with a pup.

Almost a year ago a committee was appointed at a public meeting in this city for the purpose of raising funds for erecting a suitable monument to commemorate the memory of those Douglas county's soldier boys who lost their lives as a result of their enlistment and service during the late war with Spain. The matter was taken up and pushed with considerable vigor for some time and we understand there was collected by voluntary contributions in the neighborhood of $400. So far as we are informed nothing has been done for some months with the matter and we have been asked a number of times lately if the undertaking has been entirely abandoned. Something should be done in the matter at once. If the undertaking is to be abandoned, some arrangements should be made for dipping of the money in the hands of the committee. It should be, after deducting therefrom the expense which has been incurred, returned to the donors or the committee should be made of it. The committee should take some action—either to complete the work or to send up their business and make some proper disposition of the funds in their hands.

H. A. Chadwick, editor of The Argus, has gone east again. Mr. Chadwick is now a seasoned traveler. But it was not always so. A year ago he was in Chicago and stopped at a first class hotel. E. B. Piper was also in Chicago. Returning to his hotel after the Associated Press banquet, about 3 a. m. one morning, he found Chadwick sitting disconsolably in the main office.

"Hello, Chadwick," he exclaimed. "No good to bed yet?" "Yes, I went to bed, but I couldn't sleep, so I got up and came down here." "Go to sleep? What's the matter?" "How can a man sleep with a bright light staring him in the eyes? This is the dull-gasted tavern I ever stopped at."

"Why didn't you put the light out?" "Against the rules?" "Against the rules? How's that?" "Why, there was a big sign there, saying 'Don't Blow Out the Gas.' So I had to let 'er burn."—Argus, Seattle.

OUR PATL.

A large quantity of drift covering about two acres is piled up at the mouth of Ten Mile lake, confining the water to a considerable extent. This water floods the low lands, preventing the owners from getting their crops in until May or June. It is estimated that the removal of the drift would lower the water at least three feet, and prove a vast benefit to the settlers. The cost of cutting a channel would be in the neighborhood of $10,000, to which amount the settlers expect to contribute $500 or $600, and will petition the county for the balance. It will seem that the contemplated improvement is a worthy one, and deserving of aid from the county court—Marshfield News.

It is said that a new sawmill is to be built at Gardiner next summer, by A. M. Simmons, who has already purchased $70,000 worth of timber.

A GENERAL RETREAT.
Boers Said to be Also Retiring From Natal.

RENEWED FIGHT ON THE TUGELA

General Kelly-Kenny Captured Cronje's Supply Train—The Retreat From Rensberg.

LONDON, Feb. 18, 3:50 a. m.—The war office made the usual statement at midnight that it had no news; but at about the same time came dispatches from Durban dated late Saturday evening, giving reports of the renewed fighting on the Tugela, where the Boers stopped all telegrams. Arrivals at Durban from the Tugela say that important operations are progressing, and that fighting has occurred daily since the commencement of the week. In these engagements the British casualties have been comparatively light.

According to these unconfirmed reports, General Buller had recaptured Vaalwater and the Boers had retreated in the direction of the Free State. In the meantime wounded officers and men are arriving daily at Durban, and are placed aboard the four hospital ships now there. Dispatches from Zululand, received at Durban, say the country is quieting down, thanks to the appearance of a drying column. The Boers seem nervous and uncertain, and have stayed their advance.

BOER SUPPLY TRAIN CAPTURED.
Kelly-Kenny's Brigade Seized 78 Wagons Laden With Supplies.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The following dispatch has been received at the war office from Lord Roberts:
"Jacobabad, Feb. 17, 5:30 a. m.—General Kelly-Kenny's brigade captured yesterday 78 wagon laden with stores, two wagons of mules, eight boxes of shells, 10 barrels of explosives and a large quantity of stores, all belonging to Cronje's laager, which was still being shelled by our artillery, when Kitchener dispatched his messenger."

While Kelly-Kenny's or rather Kitchener's dispatch referred to the Boer laager as being Cronje's, it is still doubtful if that general is personally with it and it is possible he may be employing more than one line of retreat. The reported capture of a large line of British convoy by the Boers is still not confirmed officially.

Dispatches from Cape Town announced that an enthusiastic demonstration followed the announcement of the relief of Kimberley. The government house was surrounded by huge crowds, and the British high commissioner and governor of Cape Colony, Sir Alfred Milner, received an ovation. The relief of Kimberley was similarly celebrated in other towns of Cape Colony.

The first unit of the special corps of yeomanry, called the Duke of Cambridge's Own, left London this morning to embark at Southampton for South Africa.

The corps is composed entirely of men of good social position. Lord Alinger wears corporal's stripes, while Lord Alinger's son is a trooper. Each man has to pay £120 for the privilege of joining the money going to purchase their outfits, while their pay is donated to a fund for the relief of widows and children of killed soldiers.

Immense crowds ovated the "gentleman rankers," as they are termed, on their way to the station, and the train started amid remarkable scenes of enthusiasm. The Duke of Cambridge and other titled persons went to Southampton to bid the yeomanry farewell.

Roberts reports that the British casualties during the fighting at Jacobabad last night. One killed, 14 wounded and three missing.

A special dispatch from Sterkstroom, dated today, says the Boers, with artillery, commenced an attack early this morning on Molekate, near that place, occupied by the troops commanded by General Gatacre.

The queen has promoted General French to be major-general. French heretofore has only ranked as a colonel in the army, with the local rank of lieutenant-colonel. Lieutenant-Colonel Kewich has been promoted to colonel for his services in the defense of Kimberley.

OCCUPATION OF JACOBABAD.
JACOBABAD, Thursday, Feb. 15.—Lord Roberts' troops today entered this town, which has been in the possession of the British since yesterday. The most order prevails. The military police the streets, but not a stick of furniture has been taken. A sentry has been placed before each store, and the soldiers are allowed to enter and purchase what they require. Everything is so peaceful that the inhabitants express the utmost surprise, as it had been diligently reported that the British occupation meant instant looting.

He Tried a Sample Bottle
Nearly every day people come into drug stores and ask the druggist to recommend some medicine for their trouble. Very often they refuse to do so, because, as a rule, they do not believe it proper to do so, unless they have seen it tried. It is the best expectation and tonic I ever handled in my 15 years experience. I will give just one instance of a gentleman who had been troubled for years with a nasty, hacking cough. He tried a sample bottle and was cured before he had taken half of it. However, as it usually takes two or three bottles.
