Obituary.

At the family residence in Gardiner, March 15, 1900, Mrs. Mattie Chandler, wife of B. B. Chandler, the age of 39 years and one month.

The deceased leaves a husband and two children, Ned and Oliver Bradford, to mourn her death.

She was born in Ohio, Feb. 2, 1861, but at an early age moved with her parents to Indiana, thence to California where she married, and then to Oregon.

In the death of Mrs. Chandler, the bereaved family has lost a faithful and loving wife, the children a devoted mother, and the community a valued member of society; and while we revere the memory of our departed sister and cherish her virtues, we also recall her many deeds of love and kindness upon the altar of charity, her peaceful, gentle influence in the home circle, which was the throne of her virtues. And a voice whispers to us, our life is but a vapor, a dream, a shadow that passeth away.

Farwell, then, our sister, farewell! Go, meet thy God who has called thee home, and who has been thy stay, thy comfort and guide through life, and whose love did sustain thee and soften thy dying pillow.

The funeral services were held in the Baptist church at 10 a. m., Saturday, March 17, 1900, and interment at the Masonic cemetery. X.

We predict that this will be one of the best companies in the state, and our citizens should give the boys every encouragement possible.

HILDEBRAND'S FOOT FORM SHOES

Are absolutely the best that money can buy and combine Comfort, Neatness and Durability. Try a pair.

We like to have our customers compare goods and prices, for very often you see the same lines in different stores. By comparing prices you will find that a number of items are very much lower in price at The Novelty Store. Here's the secret: We select the best things for the money the manufacturer makes; buy in quantities at a price. Our price to you on such goods is calculated on the Low Price—hence the price discrepancy in your favor here. This matter is deserving of investigation—do a little shopping—you'll bring up here.
