Gov. Roosevelt and Other Speakers in the annals of the world. Sound the Slogan of Expansion and Sound Money-Utterances Gree'ed by Cheers.

The New York Mail and Express of March 19, gives an extended account of the annual dinner of the West Side Republican Club, given in that city on the evening of March 16th. I says:

The West Side Republican Club held its annual dinner last night at Sherry's. The American flag played a very conepicuous part in the affair. It was the only decoration; it streamed on the strains of he orchestra, swe led in the ong of the club and floated over land and sea even to the lar-off Philippines in the speeches. This was fitting, for the club gave voice to the national spirit of expansion. It was thrilling in the song and more thrilling in speeches, and that sentiment of the club for national great-
