 Secretary.

How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of SCOTT'S EMULSION. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food, which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking

Scott's Emulsion

You will find it just as useful in summer as in winter, and if you are thriving upon it don't stop because the weather is warm.

See and try it, all druggists.

Mrs. Bridges and daughter, Miss Audrey, came in from a visit at Drain Monday evening.

Fruit is uninjured here. There were two light frosts, which did no harm. Roses are in bloom.

Bryan's failure and the absence of so many politicians from town, makes the city seem very quiet.

Mrs. Geo. Houck, in company with her mother Mrs. E. Y. Moore, have gone to Portland for a short visit.

Rev. J. A. Townsend and P. Benedict of this city attended the Presbytery at Grants Pass last Wednesday.

His Excellency Governor Geer, passed through Tuesday morning on his way north from a visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fisher of the Review, went to Portland Tuesday and will visit other points north while absent.

Hon. J. C. Fullerton went north Tuesday morning to attend the Republican Congressional and State Convention.

F. A. Tozier, who has been visiting Coos and Curry counties in connection with business interests, returned Monday.

Miss Maud Kramer of Grants Pass, is visiting in this city. Miss Kramer has been attending a medical college at Portland.

Something new again at Churchill & Woolley's in the new Panorama Eastman Kodak—the very latest in photography.

O. R. Upright, of Tacoma, who is representing the N. P. railroad in its land department, is in the city and made this office a pleasant visit.

E. A. Post and family, formerly of the McClallen hotel of this city, have moved to Portland. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

E. Morgan of Looking Glass made this office a pleasant business visit last Tuesday. Mr. Morgan was on his way to Mayville, Oregon, for a two month's visit.

Homeholder has wheels to sell and trade. If you have anything to trade bring it in and see him and he will treat you right. Little yellow corner, opposite postoffice.

Dr. F. W. Haynes has caught the spirit of improvement, and is moving his cottage from the hill at the east end of Lane street to the corner of Rose and Douglas streets.

All the business men of the city who have bills to post and dodgers to distribute, remember that there are two licensed bill posters in town. Unless they see one or other they must pay the fine.

A. A. Matthews, an aged pioneer of this county, died at his home at Repton Sunday. He was at one time assessor of this county, and quite prominent in politics. He leaves a widow and a grown family.

Orange Mattoon and family have returned to Elkton. It is reported that Mr. Mattoon will handle the stage this summer between Elkton and Scottsburg. Well, it don't look natural down that way without Pete.

Mr. Allie Houser called at the PLAINDALER office Tuesday and subscribed for the reliable news-medium of Roseburg. There is a growing impression that if you want news that can be depended on you must look in the PLAINDALER to find it. It pays to tell the truth.

Rev. G. R. Arnold, pastor of the M. E. Church in this city, who has been visiting in California for the past two weeks, returned Saturday morning. Unfortunately Rev. Arnold was seized with an attack of la grippe about the time of his departure and was quite indisposed during his entire visit. We trust he may soon fully recover.

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Hermann.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hermann, mother of Hon. Binger Hermann, Commissioner of the General Land Office, died at the old Hermann homestead on the South Fork of the Coquille river, six miles from Myrtle Point, at 4:30 o'clock a. m. April 2nd, 1900, aged 79 years, 1 month and 1 day.

Deceased was born in Tredegar, Monmouthshire, South Wales, England, March 1st, 1821, and came to the United States in 1837 with her father, David Hopkins, who built the first iron furnace in the United States near Cumberland, Md. Was married to Dr. Henry Hermann in 1840 and came to Coos county with a colony from Baltimore in May, 1859, where she resided on the old homestead until her death. She was the mother of nine children, those surviving her being Binger and T. M. Hermann, of Washington, D. C., C. M., F. P. and E. W. Hermann and Mrs. E. Bender, of Myrtle Point, and Mrs. J. W. Baker, of Phoenix Arizona.

The remains were interred on the old homestead place April 4th, at 2 o'clock p. m. the funeral services being conducted by the Rev. Theo. Barklow, a large concourse of pioneers and friends from various parts of the county being in attendance to pay the last tribute of respect to her who for forty years had been a resident of this valley and at last had answered the great summons which is the common lot of all—thus a loving mother, a kind neighbor, full of years departed from a place among us, the pain of parting not so much here as that of those she left behind.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Collins Gets Off Easy.

Harry C. Collins, formerly of Ashland, who was arrested at Junction City, Lane County, January 23rd, charged with obtaining $25 in money under false pretenses from I. C. Hamilton of Medford, and who was also wanted in Ashland, Grants Pass, Harrisburg and Marshfield for the same offense, had his case before the circuit court at Jacksonville, Saturday. At his preliminary hearing before Judge Stewart, in Medford, January 24, he was held under $500 bonds, and has since then been confined in the county jail, where he has been reported as seriously ill with inflammatory rheumatism. On Saturday he withdrew his previous plea of "not guilty" and pleaded guilty, and was sentenced by Judge Hanna to one year's imprisonment.
