

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Strawberry hoes at Churchill & Woolley's.

For first class dentistry go to D. Little of Oakland.

R. Robertson is preparing to move his family to Portland.

Remember the McKinley Club meeting at Slocum's hall tomorrow night.

The Morrow Coaster brake on Rambler bicycle is not an experiment.

W. J. Lovejoy, the S. P. engineer, will soon move his family to Ashland.

The city of Medford now owns its own electric light plant and water system.

The Rural Northwest and Semi-weekly PLAINDEALER both one year for only $2.

Mrs. Myra Counts of Drain, is visiting at Frank Hambricks.—Bohemia Nugget.

Hon. David Fox the internal revenue man, of Ashland was in the city Saturday.

Antwine McKay of Millwood, was in the city Saturday and called at this office.

Chas. Cochran went to Roseburg Thursday returned Friday.—Bohemia Nugget.

Geo. Laingor, formerly of Olalla, is the democratic nominee for sheriff in Coos county.

Carl Fischer strings for all kinds of stringed instruments just received at T. K. Richardson's.

E. H. Oley, of Roseburg, is looking after business matters in this city.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

If you want a squirrel poison that will kill both coming and going, call on A. C. Marsters & Co., for it.

Register J. T. Bridges, of the U. S. Land Office, went to Albany, today, to attend the McKinley timber land case.

W. O. Marks of this city is mentioned as a candidate for county recorder on the democratic ticket.—Ashland Tidings.

Waukeganits a good thing, that what it is, runs 50 per cent farther than common Glidden, Churchill & Woolley sell it.

Col. Bryan knew he wasn't in it when he saw that Mauser action, Winchester takedown rifle that Churchill & Woolley sell for $5.00.

Reuben E. Smith, of North Myrtle, was in town Saturday, making final proof on his homestead entry before the U. S. Land Office.

E. E. Sherwood, the Coos county stock man, is spending a few days in Roseburg on his return home from a business visit to Klamath county.

Hon. G. W. Riddle of Astoria was in the city Saturday. He has purchased the saw mill of the Dan Curtin bankrupt estate and is moving it to his wood yard.

Mrs. Emily J. Centers, of Camas Valley, was in town Saturday, making final proof on her homestead entry before the register and receiver of the U. S. Land Office.

The new creamery built on the lower river is making satisfactory progress and will soon be in operation. The machinery is expected within a week or ten days.—Coquille Bulletin.

For job printing neatly and promptly executed at reasonable prices, patronize the Rosburg Book and Job Office. Work usually turned on the same day order is received. HARRY E. LOVELL, Manager.

J. M. Dillard of Dillard, Oregon, died at his home at that place at 10 o'clock this morning and will be buried at Civil Bend tomorrow at 2 p. m. The sympathy of all is extended to the sorrowing ones.

S. D. Evans of Umpqua Ferry, a fruit man of many years experience, in the fruit business, was doing business in town Saturday and made this office a pleasant business call. Mr. Evans says the fruit in his vicinity is not injured as yet.

The W. C. T. U. will hold regular meeting tonight at 7:30, in the M. E. church, subject "Suffrage." A cordial invitation is extended to the Y. W. C. T. U. to attend this meeting.

Mrs. H. W. SMITH, Secretary.

A. E. Hinkle, was doing business in the city Friday. He was exhibiting some fine samples of mohair from his thoroughbred Angoras. Mr. Hinkle says the yield is very heavy. Wonder if Mr. Hinkle will go into the iron clad mohair trust. Mr. Bryan bitterly condemns trusts you know.

J. L. Stratford was appointed a notary public by Governor Geer, and will be ready at all times and wherever he may be, to execute deeds, mortgages and other legal papers, the blanks for which, he will carry with him as he travels throughout the county. If you have this kind of work to do, see him.

BREVITIES.

J. A. Willis of Deer Creek, was in the city Saturday.

L. S. Weaver, of Myrtle Creek, was in town Saturday.

T. L. Brewer, of Myrtle Creek, was in town Saturday.

W. H. Raymond was over from Canyonville Saturday.

Call on Gaddis Bros. for hay and oats, at the Bushy barn.

J. T. Spangh, one of our Looking Glass friends, was in the city, Friday.

The Studebaker wagon is the best. See them at Churchill & Woolley's.

Preparations are being made to replace the residence of Mrs. Zetta Ball, recently burned.

The Looking Glass merchant, J. T. Goodman was doing business in town Saturday.

Amon Sovern, of Roseburg, is in Cottage Grove visiting his sisters, Meedames Miller and Sanford.—Nugget.

A. B. C. Denniston, one of the great Northern Pacific's representatives, was doing business in the city, Saturday.

Bargains in Quaker Bath cabinets. Factory price $5 each. Price this week while they last $3 each, at Rapp's Drug Store.

Sheriff Orms, of Jacksonville, passed through last week, with Harry Collins, on their way to the penitentiary at Salem.

Mrs. Adam Hein, who has been visiting relatives and friends in this city, returned to her home near Oregon City Thursday.

When you want confectioneries that are pure and fresh, try the Kandy Kitchen. It is the place where you get full value for your money.

Rev. J. H. Skidmore, formerly of Ashland, was quite prominent as an orator at the Republican convention in Roseburg, last Saturday.—Ashland Tidings.

The U. S. Land Office in this city, has been crowded with business the past week. Many filings and several contest cases interested the officials and several of our attorneys.

Mayor W. S. Bennett, of Cottage Grove, was a Roseburg visitor today. In company with Herbert Eakin and S. Miller, he was making final proof on his timber land claim. We enjoyed a pleasant visit with our old friends.

Dr. I. L. Arnold, J. H. Butler and Dr. W. S. Jones went down to Roseburg Tuesday evening—the two first named to make proof on their timber claims and the latter as a witness for them.—Medford Mail.

A special meeting of Roseburg Lodge No. 16 of A. O. U. W. is hereby called to meet at the I. O. O. F. hall in Roseburg at 8 o'clock this evening to arrange for attendance at the funeral of J. M. Dillard, deceased. B. F. ALLEY, M. W.

The political solons of all parties who were in conclave in Portland last week, have returned to their several homes. Our democrat and fusion friends look quite "done up" as though they had suffered from a severe attack of la grippe.

Hon. J. H. Stewart one of the best posted fruit men in Oregon says the freeze has not killed all the fruit by a long way, and if nothing more happens we will have a fair fruit crop in the Rogue River Valley.—Medford Equirer.

The Medford Mail of last Friday gives creamery questions quite a write-up, and is quite jubilant over the early establishment of a creamery at that place. It seems that Mr. Markham's work along that line throughout the state is beginning to bear fruit.

D. S. West is in receipt of a letter from his brother-in-law, G. Webster of San Miguel, San Luis Obispo Co., Cal., stating that the frost had killed the entire fruit crop of that county, and unless they had more rain within ten days the grain crop would also be a failure. Better come to Oregon where such unfavorable conditions never exist.

The home of Thos. Bowers, one mile east of town, has been quarantined on account of three well developed cases of smallpox. The sufferers are Mrs. Bowers and two grandchildren, the children being late arrivals from Washington, where the disease was contracted. Dr. B. R. Job, the attending physician, tells us that the disease is of a mild form and that the patients are recovering.—Cottage Grove Nugget.

W. C. Conner has again taken charge of the Roseburg PLAINDEALER, as editor and publisher, E. D. Stratford retiring. Mr. Conner was formerly connected with the PLAINDEALER, and during the time he was in charge the paper bore evident marks of improvement. Mr. Conner is one of the best newspaper men in the state, and will no doubt soon make the PLAINDEALER one of Oregon's best journals.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rida a Rambler.

A. U. Kent and F. H. Marion, of Drain, were in the city Saturday, on business.

A new sidewalk is being constructed in front of the residence of Attorney O. P. Coshow.

E. DuGas, M. D., member Board of Pension Examiners, Office, Marsters building residing corner Douglas and Jackson street.

Volney Dixon of San Francisco, arrived here last Friday to visit his aunts, Mrs. W. H. Flanagan and Miss Lillie Bradley.—Grants Pass Observer.

Conner says since the agents second call on him, he is satisfied Scribners line of books are the best in the market. "Oh such killing eyes," says Dave West.

Dr. Cheadle, the dentist, in little brick opposite Slocum's hall. Go and see him when you want good work. His prices are reasonable.

Geo. McKee and son of Astoria, who have been in the milling business at that place, are visiting in Roseburg looking up business matters in this city and vicinity. These gentlemen were here several years ago.

J. I. Jones and little son, Frankie, and Jack Lewis, of Cottage Grove, are making final proof on their timber land claims before the U. S. land office. While in town they are guests of their brother-in-law, W. C. Conner.

John Richardson and wife, nee Miss Emma Winniford, who have been visiting with the latter's parents on the Calapoola, were the guests of Roseburg relatives and friends over Sunday. They go to Drain tomorrow where they will visit with friends.

Mike DeVaney was on Friday's train on his way home to Roseburg from San Francisco, where he had an artificial limb fitted and is now able to get about with the aid of crutches. He purchased a stock of cigars, tobaccos, notions, etc., and will open a store at Roseburg.—Ashland Record.

H. W. Churchill was called to town this week by the illness, of his brother-in-law, Wm. F. Cathcart, who is dangerously ill, and with but little hope of recovery.—Bohemia Nugget. Later, Mr. Cathcart died April 14th. He was the father of Ex-Sheriff C. F. Cathcart and came to Oregon in 1853.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Kay, accompanied by Mayor C. P. Bishop, went to Portland yesterday where Mr. Kay will receive treatment. Mr. Kay spent several months in California for the benefit of his health. Since his return his health has failed to improve and his case will now be treated by Portland physicians. It is hoped by his friends that the change will better his health and that he will soon be all right again.—Salem Journal.

Letter List

Remaining uncalled for in the Roseburg postoffice:

Goodwin, C. C. Martin, P. K.
 Humphrey, Capt. N. B. Oxeapson, Mrs. O. Lane, Mrs. Dora Perkins, J. A. Smith, Miss Dora

Persons calling for these letters will please state the date on which they were advertised, April 16, 1900.

The letters will be charged for at the rate of one cent each.

WM. A. FRATER, P. M.

Novelty Store Premiums.

C. Wylie 88; M. B. Hughes 321; F. Peebler 650; Miss Carrie Johns 780; Mrs. Jacob Jones 25; Sallie Willis 884; J. S. Edwards 350; John McClellan 203; Mrs. John Kantz 843; E. S. Cockierease 8; L. L. Matthews 18; A. T. Hoffman 756; C. Che'nor 143; Mrs. C. Wylie 128; Mary A. Drollinger 343; Mrs. Albert Karcher 66; Myrtle Koyer 2; Elmer Weekley 205; A. T. Hoffman 427; Jennie Longters 912; Myrtle Steele 795; L. D. Lucas 111; Bertha Camp 511; A. B. C. Whipple 792; Henry Wi to 683.

NOVELTY STORE.

Death of Mrs. Jane Dimmick.

WILBUR, Or., April 14.—Mrs. Jane Dimmick, aged 68 years, a pioneer of 1853, died at her home in Wilbur today of paralysis. Mrs. Dimmick left a large family, among whom are County Treasurer G. W. Dimmick and Mrs. J. I. Chapman, of this city, and S. S. and Z. L. Dimmick, of Oakland. Interment took place Sunday at Kellogg.

Mrs. Dimmick, to whom the above dispatch refers, is well known in this county. An obituary will be given in our next issue. The PLAINDEALER joins with the large number of sorrowing friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved.

EXPERIENCED WHEELMEN

Choose Ramblers because they have tone and style, as well as all good points which go to make up a wheel of very highest grade. The latest models of

Rambler Bicycles

"NOTICE THE EXTRA REINFORCED FRAMES."

are the very best built wheels on the market to-day. They last. The good reputation gained by the Rambler builders, during their 21 years' Experience makes the Rambler a safe and profitable investment for both the novice and well posted wheel buyer.

RAMBLER PRICE $40.

A. C. MARSTERS & CO.

THE C. I. K. STORE.

New Goods Constantly Arriving. Step in. Glad to show them to you.

Just received our spring line of

Men's and Boys' Suits.

A splendid line, it'll do you good to see them, whether you want to purchase or not. They were made by Friend Bros. & Co., of Milwaukee, Wis., and are called the "Perfection Clothing" they fit as if your tailor had made them for you.

Our stock of Spring Shapes in Men's Hats is now complete. We are agents for the celebrated "GORDON HAT." They come in all Shapes and Colors and are worth $3.00.

Our stock of

Men's Furnishing Goods

Was never better or cheaper. In fact every department of our business is now in perfect shape. We carry everything in the Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Notions and Gents' Furnishing Good Lines, and Hats, Shoes, Hats, and Caps.

Our business is growing. Every month it is larger, and why? Because we give good Goods and Honest Values. No misrepresentation. Everything as represented or money back.

FISHER & BELLOWS.

'Phone Main 185.

Staple and Fancy Groceries.

We have a complete line of

FRESH GROCERIES, TABLE DELICACIES, TOBACCO AND CIGARS, CONFECTIONERIES, FRESH AND TROPICAL FRUITS, VEGETABLES, ETC.,

Which will please you in both quality and Price. Give us a Call.

KRUSE & SHAMBROOK.

SEIRECORG....

Name it? Why, spell it backwards and you have it. Nice fresh stock of Staple and Fancy GROCERIES constantly on hand. Fine Teas and Coffees a specialty. Canned goods, Flour and Feed. Fine fresh goods at reasonable prices. Give me a trial order. We make a specialty of fresh bread.

MRS. A. C. KIDD.