

BRYAN DENOUNCED.

Missouri Middle-Roaders Adopt a New Name for Their Party.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 18.—The Middle-of-the-Road Populists, at their mass convention today, effected a permanent state organization and adopted a new name—the Progressive People's party. The name will be presented to the National convention for ratification. The platform demands legislation on lines demanded in the Omaha platform, urges the reduction of state and county salaries to correspond with the prices paid for products, denounces both the old parties for failure to enact initiative and referendum legislation, for the protection of corporate interests and for legislation for the protection of National banks; condemns W. J. Bryan and John Rockefeller for their alleged connection with trusts, and especially censures the Democratic state administration because of its "disregard of the paramount interests of the people."

A full state ticket, headed by Richard Thomas, of Stone County, for Governor was named, Captain W. C. Aldridge, a farmer of California, Mo., who was the favorite candidate for Governor, declining the nomination. The convention selected 25 delegates to the Cincinnati convention and 16 presidential electors. The delegates to the Cincinnati convention were instructed to vote first and last for Wharton Barker for President and Ignatius Donnelly for Vice-President. Carl Brown, in a speech, advocated heading the ticket with Admiral Dewey.

Oregon Notes.

Five deer were seen in Jackson's field, a little north of the city limits of Ashland, yesterday.—Tidings.

Mr. Joe Hutchinson, of this city, has been appointed state organizer for the barber's union.—Albany Democrat.

A Umatilla County farmer has sold three hogs whose aggregate weight was 1120, and for which he received $61.60.

W. H. Byars went to Mehama yesterday, where he was called by the sickness of his daughter, Mrs. Wright.—Salem Statesman.

The Vale Herald reports that a buyer in Malheur county is in quest of a train-load of cattle, and that he is paying $20-50 for yearlings, $27.50 for 2-year-olds and $32 for cows and calves.

The 7-year-old daughter of J. U. Wadler, of Lebanon, is suffering from badly lacerated thumbs and fingers, as a result of picking the cap of a dynamite cartridge. She narrowly escaped the loss of her eyesight.

G. C. Millett, of Junction, has sold a large quantity of halm timber on his place to a paper mill. It brings him 50 cents per 1000, and will net him a considerable sum from heretofore unproductive property.

A skunk ranch is an enterprise to be started in Jackson county. The Ashland Tidings says a citizen of that town has inaugurated it, and has sent $200 to begin with. They are as fertile as rabbits and their skins are worth $1.50 each.

A carload of flax seed has just been received by the farmers in the vicinity of Eugene, which they will proceed to sow and then sell the production at 90c. per bushel, contract price, to the company in Portland, who furnishes them the seed, to be paid for after harvesting.—Farmer.

J. T. Gear, has, during the past week made a tour through Western and Southern Oregon, looking up a favorable opening to engage either in the banking or butter and cheese business. There are very good openings in these lines of business in that section, and Mr. Gear has ample capital and the experience to equip him successfully in operating either of these enterprises. He is this week looking over the Coos Bay section of Oregon, in the near vicinity of the ocean beach.—Puyallup Independent.

Here is something remarkable, an editor has gone wrong. B. F. McLaughlin, ex-publisher of the Sheridan Sun, has left for "green fields and pastures new," says the Transcript, kidnapping and taking with him the 16-year-old daughter of Geo. J. Sueway, of Dallas. The people of Dallas are very indignant as the girl is motherless, of good character, industrious and obedient, being her father's housekeeper. Telegrams have been sent out asking for his arrest and the return of the girl to her home.

A child poisoned in Connecticut this morning by eating sample pills left by a distributing agent. There are others. For instance, the eating of samples of highly flavored plum sauce into our dooryards to lead our boys into consumption. For these and other evidences of unscrupulousness we are duly thankful.

JOSEPHSON'S

"CYCLONE" AT PORTLAND.

Texas Populist Repeated Speech of Two Years Ago.

James H. Davis, of Texas, the populist "cyclone" whose biennial ministrations to the disgruntled and discontented elements on the Pacific Coast have become matters of political history, spoke for two hours last Wednesday in the Assembly Hall of the Chamber of Commerce to about 300 people. Mr. Davis' speech was almost a repetition of those he made in Oregon in May, 1896, and 1898, and consisted mainly in arraignment of class against class. Some of his appeals to class prejudice were clothed in a certain rude eloquence, for which the populist's speechbinder is famous.

About one-third of the audience was composed of women, most of whom, no doubt, were present to hear a brief talk which was given on women's suffrage by Miss Morrow, of Chicago, but who also remained and listened attentively to the "Cyclone's" heart-to-heart talk with populists.

Mr. Davis is a professional, rather than an amateur, Populist, and it is easy to believe that his cowboy boots and negligee shirt are worn for effect instead of comfort.

He arraigned class against class, and related how many thousands of people were homeless. "The majority of the American people have no homes," he continued, "and most of them have no hopes of a home. Corporations and trusts own land enough in this country to cover an area as large as nine average American states."

The last half of Mr. Davis' speech was on the subject of expansion. Among other things he said: "The two greatest Christian nations of the world are engaged in a very similar transaction, one is crushing a republic already formed, and the other is preventing a republic from being formed."—Telegram.

Killed in a Runaway.

A. S. Moon, aged about 76 years, an old and highly respected pioneer of the Rogue River Valley, was thrown from a wagon load of lumber, in a runaway at Gold Hill, Wednesday. The accident occurred about 11 a. m. and his death occurred at 2 o'clock a. m. Thursday morning. The funeral takes place at Gold Hill today.—Enquirer, Medford.

Mrs. Dewey's Candidacy.

Chicago Evening Journal. Judge Hazen, of Meeker, Colo., once a brother-in-law of Mrs. Dewey, says: "If the people do not desire to place the destiny of this country in the hands of a woman, it is best to let the Admiral remain where he is." Probably the Judge has been in a position to learn something of Mrs. Dewey's disposition and can tell whether she or the Admiral would pass the bridge of the Ship of State and which one would attend to coaling the engine.

General News.

The exposition will doubtless be the biggest thing in Paris this year, but the size of the hotel bills will push it pretty close.

Nearly 25,000 British officers and soldiers have been put out of action by the Boers—a number almost equal to the entire fighting strength of the Boer army.

A thousand packets of shamrock seed, the gift of a resident of Cork to the Duke of York, have been sent to South Africa. Their contents will be sown upon the graves of Irish soldiers.

Nebraska's bank deposits have increased $3,000,000 within a year. That state may run after demagogues but it can not deny that its prosperity dates up to Republican success.

In New England the abandoned farms are being planted with nut trees, and the worked-out ground is found to furnish nourishment enough to cause the walnut butternut and chestnut to flourish abundantly.

Statistics of consumptive sanitariums in Germany show that 65% per cent of the inmates were able to work the first year after the cure, 60 per cent after two years, 45 per cent after three and 35 per cent after four years.

The great Glenn ranch of 75,000 acres, in the heart of the Sacramento Valley, Cal., is to be subdivided into small farms and sold. Before the recent development of banana wheat farms in the Dakotas this Glenn ranch was the largest wheat-producing establishment in the country.

More than 200 charters have already been applied for, for banks of $25,000 capital in towns of 3000 population, and Comptroller Dawes thinks the total will go up to 500 before the end of the month. The applications come mostly from agricultural towns in the middle West, Iowa leading.

The following from the Globe-Democrat is evident that the editor of that paper has confused our Angora goats with the famous Angora cats of the East, he says: "Cat fanciers in Lincoln county, Ore., have obtained the consent of the post office department to the christening of their post office by the name of Angora. The first postmaster of Angora bears the surname of Tom."

Gold in Luzon.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—The transport Tartar, which arrived Saturday afternoon from Manila, was released from quarantine today. The Tartar brought advices from the Philippines up to March 6. One of the reports from Manila is that William Odun, who is spoken of as a miner of large experience, has returned from a prospecting trip on the distant coast of Vigan. He showed rich specimens of gold, and declared that he had located a ledge of quartz as rich as anything in Colorado or California. He is organizing a company of ex-soldiers, and will go into the mountain districts of Vigan to secure claims. In an interview in the Manila Freedom, Odun says: "Never before did I see such indications of mineral wealth. I have traveled from the Klondike to South Africa, and I am convinced that there is not a much richer mineral country in the world than the Island of Luzon."

Acker's Saved Her Life

"About two miles from Vassar, Mich., where I keep a drug store, lives Mrs. T. M. Bratt. She was very sick and hopeless with consumption. I watched her case with interest after she began taking Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, because I had heard so much about its wonderful cures. Well, sir, perhaps you will doubt it, but with my own eyes I saw this woman get well and strong on that remedy. In a very short time the cough stopped, her lungs were healed up, the soreness went away, and she began taking on flesh. She herself said: 'Mr. Bullard, I owe my life to Acker's English Remedy. It is a certain cure.' In Mrs. Bratt's neighborhood her recovery has occasioned much comment, as you can easily understand. Her case was one where everybody thought it was only a question of a little while until she would die. I feel it a duty as a druggist to write this letter, so that there need be no more deaths from consumption." (Signed) E. A. BULLARD, Vassar, Mich.

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.
