

Glendale.

A. Slocum went out to the Gold Bug Mine today, on official business.

Mrs. F. T. Lady left this morning for an extended visit to relatives at Riddles and Canyonville.

C. R. Totten of Glenellen who has been seriously ill, is able to be out again we are glad to say.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gross prominent residents of Wolf creek, were our guests on Saturday and Sunday.

Business in all lines of trade is brisk at this place, and Glendale is the liveliest town in Southern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Clements are visiting Mrs. Clement's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Miller at Binger, this week.

Rev. M. J. Hickie of the Catholic church, will lecture at Woodford's Hall on Friday evening the 27th inst. His subject is Sunny Italy, Roman Art, etc.

James Clements, barber of Glendale has arranged to spend one day of each week at Wolf creek at which place they have no barber shop. He may be found at the office of Hotel Kearns.

Rev. Hall Oliver pastor of this parish, was called by telegram to Ogden, Utah, to assist his brother, who is also a minister, in a series of evangelical meetings at various points in that state.

Mrs. Edward Gorsline and children who have spent the winter at Medford returned to their home at the Gorsline Mill on Eliff creek, on Monday where they will spend the summer.

J. L. Dewey, union nominee for sheriff is suffering from a relapse of "grip" since his return to Glendale. [This is nothing in comparison to the sufferings he will endure early in June.—Ed.]

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kennedy the popular proprietors of Hotel Glendale, are to give the supper for the grand party to be given by the members of the A. O. U. W. lodge at this place on May 12th.

By Monday's issue of our paper we notice that the standard bearers of the republican party, will commence the canvass of South Douglas at Riddles on the 27th inst. So they will doubtless reach this place early in next week.

William Wood who has been dangerously ill. Is much better at this date. His attending physician Dr. W. F. Kremer of Grants Pass says he will recover. Many friends are in attendance at his bedside, at the home of his mother on Eliff Creek.

Thos. M. Herbig proprietor of the new Glendale Hotel building on Pacific Ave. has leased his building to Mrs. R. M. Eliff and her daughter. Mrs. James E. Shea has opened a neat little drug store in the two rooms on the west side of the building, which will be a great convenience to the people of this valley.

Calapooia Items.

Don't forget the box supper Friday night.

Willie Stevens of Tyee, was the guest of Miss H. H. last Sunday.

Rev. Skidmore preached an interesting sermon to a well filled house Sunday G. W. Stevens is improving his all ready beautiful farm, in the way of fencing.

There will be a basket dinner at the school house Sunday and preaching by Rev. Leonard.

H. Pinkston passed through our valley with a band of cattle which he bought in Looking Glass recently.

Mrs. Farnsworth and Miss Kate Farnsworth were visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stephens last Sunday.

Frank Edgington of Millwood, was the guest of G. W. Stephens last Sunday. You can guess at the rest.

A certain young man on Calapooia is going to get "tin canned," if he don't attend to his business better in the future than he has in the past.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Beidler on April 21st, a farewell party was given in honor of Miss Emma Stevens of Tyee. In the early evening the guests were entertained with various games and music. At 11:30 an elegant supper was served to which all did ample justice. Those present were: Misses M. L. Sutton, Maggie, Fara and Hattie Howard, Emma and Olla Stevens, Bertha and Angy Stevens, Mollie Leatherwood, Silva and Ethel Gross, Mrs. M. Hunt, Mrs. Wood, Messrs. Char. Stevens, Edward Edison, H. L. McNabb, E. L. Richards, Thos. Leatherwood, Willie Stevens, Ira, Chas. and Fred Beidler, Lester Hatchinson, John Richards, Alva Stephens.

Parrott will be our next sheriff. He is the choice of this community.

Willie Stevens and Chas. Beidler were the guests of Berl Starr last Sunday.

Otto and James Powell were the guests of J. E. Zachary one day this week.

Rev. Skidmore preached a very interesting sermon to a large and attentive audience on the 22nd.

We are having weather very favorable to "grippe" and there are several cases in the neighborhood.

Mrs. W. H. Cole of Tyee has been sick with the la grippe for the past week, but we are pleased to note is convalescent at this writing.

The cold weather has not injured the fruit as yet. The prospect for an abundant crop has never before been equaled on Calapooia.

The social given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beidler was a grand success in every respect, every one reports having had a very good time.

"Rubberneck," the Review's correspondent, evidently had snakes in his boots when he wrote the last items. He hasn't been right since Bryan came to Roseburg.

There seems to be little interest taken in the political pot in which Brine-ism is simmering. His old-time followers are afraid to fall into it for they realize that it would take several years to wash themselves of this terrible liquid.

One of Uncle Sam's inspectors was recently looking over the road from Oakland to Coles Valley in view of extending the mail route from Stephens to Coles Valley. He tells us that the day is not far off when we will have a stage running from Oakland to Coles Valley. This is a move in the right direction and the people will be greatly pleased.

The latest organization in the way of a trust is "The Matrimonial Bee Trust." The arrangements were completed last week through the untiring efforts of Edward Richards, the president, and H. L. McNabb, the secretary. Any young man wishing to join it will be admitted upon making ten formal bows to the president and paying the sum fixed by the by-laws, which can be had by applying to the secretary for same.

The Scottsburg Cemetery.

At a meeting held at Scottsburg recently for the purpose of devising plans for the improvement of the Scottsburg cemetery, Fred Weatherly, Wm. Burchard, and T. W. Andrews, were chosen to act as trustees and the following resolutions were adopted:

First—That the trustees be authorized to raise sufficient funds by assessment to furnish good and durable stakes to mark the location of all lots contained in said grounds.

Second—That said trustees shall insist that no noxious spreading plant or shrub shall be planted within the limits of said grounds.

Third—That all parties holding lots in said grounds shall be subject to an assessment not to exceed one dollar per year.

Fourth—That all parties wishing to select lots prior to January 1, 1901 may do so by paying regular assessment on the same. And that all parties paying said assessment shall receive a certificate for the same.

Fifth—That after January 1, 1901 all lots will be held at $5 each if not selected prior to that date.

Sixth—That annual meetings shall be held and that an account of all money collected and the disbursements thereof be furnished and read at such meetings.

It was also decided that a copy of said resolutions be sent to the Roseburg PLAINDEALER for publication.

T. W. ANDREWS,
Chairman.

Dr. Darrin

Has arrived in Canyonville and is stopping at the Briggs Hotel until May 7, where consultation is free. Hear Ye Britons.

And so my brave old England, The Boers are not whipped yet, They are not cowed nor beaten, But still have lots of grit.

With all your boasted valor, With all your British pride, You're not a match for honest Boers When fighting side by side.

With all your bright regalia, With all your warlike tog, You're only the paid hirelings From island glen and bog.

Can't you remember Britons, More than a hundred years ago, You tried to play this same old gag Upon your Yankee foe?

When with your tyrant letters, You tried to crush the land, And make them bow to British rule, Our small brave Yankee band.

But Ah! you found them ready To meet you in the field, And although you were three to one You could not make them yield.

'Twas then like Boers that fight today, They prayed and fought and bled, Preferring to the English yoke A free man's grave instead.

With all your Christian graces, With all your blood so blue, With all your boasted honors, You stoop to crush the few.

You still possess this same old greed That always marked your course, You want to rob the Boers of home, And brand them with your curse.

May God forbid that you should win In this unholy war, For shame upon your Christian name, What are you fighting for?

If there's a God who rules supreme, To whom you bow in prayer, Remember that the Boers pray too, And God is everywhere.
