

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Mrs. J. A. McDougall is quite seriously ill at her home in this city.

To make your wife love you—Buy a Racine buggy of S. K. Sykes.

The Narrow Coaster brake on Rambler bicycle is not an experiment.

For first class dentistry go to Dr. Little of Oakland.

Mrs. W. J. Brand is slowly recovering from a severe attack of the la grippe.

Advertising is a spring tonic for business. Try an ad in the Semi-Weekly PLAINDEALER.

“Leave your happy home” and enjoy a trip in a Racine buggy purchased of S. K. Sykes.

Mrs. Wm. Dyer of San Francisco, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Parker, in Edenbowser.

Miss Molly Jones left on Thursday night's overland to visit with her sister, Mrs. Allison, of Portland.

If you want a squirrel poison that will kill both coming and going, call on A. C. Marsters & Co., for it.

Lee London, son of V. C. London, had the misfortune to run a nail in his foot, last week, and as a result is quite lame.

L. S. Shipley, the Josephine county miner and politician, visited the city Saturday returning on the overland this morning.

Miss Phloesie P. Shambrook went to her home at Umpqua Ferry Friday morning, owing to the severe illness of her mother.

The Epworth League anniversary will be celebrated at the M. E. church, next Sunday evening. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Ira Pilkington, the blacksmith, is carrying his arm in a sling this week, as his hand was badly bruised by the handling of a wild horse.

Subscribe for the PLAINDEALER. Sixteen pages every week for only $2 per annum. Many new names are being added to our list daily.

Al Morris, a banker (?) of Sumpter, arrived in this city Friday. A PLAINDEALER reporter tried to see him but he refused to be interviewed.

“Farmer” Frank Calkins has purchased a 300-pound U. S. creamery separator of Churchill & Woolley. The machine was on exhibition at their store Saturday.

Bert Brown and Stonewall Sutherland of Oakland, were in Roseburg Friday. Bert is walking with a stiff knee, the result of having a horse fall with him a short time ago.

Dr. J. G. Goble, the optician, will be at the McClallen House in Roseburg on Monday, April 30th. At Oakland on Friday and Saturday, May 4th and 5th, at the Thomas Hotel.

T. G. Ruth and D. Lynes were at the county-seat Monday. The former is engaged in mining near Tolo and denies that he will engage in the newspaper business again.—Ashland Tidings.

Gen. W. H. Byars arrived from Roseburg Sunday, and left for the mountains yesterday, with a party of six or eight helpers, to complete the survey of Tp. 23, S. R. 14, W.—Port Orford Tribune.

J. W. Cook, the proprietor of the Musick mine in Bohemia, accompanied by his wife, and Nat Martin of Cottage Grove were in Roseburg Friday on business before the United States Land office.

Mrs. Wm. Buchanan, of Corvallis, wife of the county clerk of Benton county, visited Miss Dora Wilkins, of this city Saturday, and went south on the local that evening to visit with her sister in Ashland.

The Epworth League social announced Sunday evening to be given at the M. E. church, will be held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Geo. R. Arnold, next Friday evening. All members of the League and their friends are invited.

The Native Sons of Butteville have built a genuine log cabin for a lodgeroom, tells the Lebanon Express-Advance. It was dedicated Friday with a number of the grand officers in attendance. Butteville also boasts of the oldest native son in the state, he being 82 years of age.

M. McCoy received Saturday a pair of thoroughbred Belgian hares from the Golden West Belgian Hare Co., of Los Angeles, Cal. This is the first pair of hares that have been imported to this town, and now we expect soon to be eating hare in place of chicken or turkey.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ricks of Junction City, who have been visiting relatives in the city, returned home Saturday morning. They were accompanied by Mrs. Protzman, who will reside with them for some time with the hopes that the change of climate may improve her health.

BREVITIES.

Ride a Rambler. House For Rent.—Five-room cottage, furnished, for rent. Apply to D. S. West.

See our window display for $2 values in ladies' Oxford ties at only $1.50. Novelty Store.

Marriage is not a failure when you ride in Racine buggies and road wagons bought of S. K. Sykes.

Mens' cork ventilated hats at the Novelty Store are just the thing for coming warm weather.

Howard Calkins left for Isadora on this morning's local and will return horseback tomorrow.

$1.25 buys a good pair of heavy shoes at the Novelty Store or better ones for $1.50, $1.75, $2, etc.

Cam Cox returned from Dillard this morning. Mr. Cox will go to Sumpter about the 15th of this month.

Bargains in Quaker Bath cabinets Factory price $5 each. Price this week while they last $3 each, at Rapp's Drug Store.

The Novelty Store ad in which a fine new line of dress goods, millinery, clothing are made a specialty, came in too late for this issue.

E. DuGas, M. D., member Board of Pension Examiners, Office, Marsters building residing corner Douglas and Jackson street.

For job printing neatly and promptly executed at reasonable prices, patronize the Roseburg Book and Job Office. Work usually turned out the same day order is received. HARRY E. LOVELL, Manager.

Next Sunday evening at the M. E. church will be held the anniversary of the Epworth League. A special and interesting program is being prepared for the occasion. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

A letter containing an ad from Dr. Darrin arrived to late for this issue, wherein he states that he has been prevailed on to visit Glendale before returning to Roseburg. He will be at Hotel Glendale from May 7 to May 25, 1900.

Virginia democrats have inaugurated a movement for holding a constitutional convention the main object of which is to disfranchise the negroes. Here is another instance of where Mr. Bryan's party believes the National constitution should follow the flag abroad but not at home.

If there is any truth in the purpose of the Beers to migrate to America, it will be a hard jolt for the anti. Is it possible the burghers are ignorant what a bloodthirsty crowd of conquerors and tyrants we are in this country? Atkinson and Winslow have been neglecting their duty.

Our Exchanges have already begun to advocate the usual Fourth of July celebrations at their respective towns. What is Roseburg going to do about appropriate observances of Independence day? A great success was made of the celebration last year, can it not be repeated?

Ex-Senator Charles Cogswell, formerly of Lakeview and now of Portland, was here last week on his way to Lakeview to take charge of the bank at that place during the absence of its proprietor, Dr. Daly, while canvassing the district for election as congressman on the fusion ticket.—Klamath Republican.

Thomas Guthrie's large barn on his place at Winchester, was burned to the ground Friday night, at 11 o'clock. With it was burned 300 tons of hay, 200 bushels of grain, two carts, one hay rake, a seeder, a chopper and a horse power. The origin of the fire is unknown. The barn was insured for $300, by Agent V. C. London, of this city, in the London & Lancashire Co.

We are indebted to W. B. Clarke of Millwood, for the following news item: “Saturday morning about 8 o'clock Mr. Samuel Hebord, who was employed in Clarke & Baker's mill as offbearer, let his right arm come in contact with one of the large saws cutting a fearful gash in the muscle of his arm between the hand and the elbow. No bones were broken and at present Mr. H. is feeling quite easy. It will be some time before Hebord will be able to work again.”

Prof. Wm. McQueen, principal of the Riddle public school, was a Roseburg visitor Saturday and favored the PLAINDEALER with a pleasant call. He reports the Riddle school in a very flourishing condition, there being 70 pupils enrolled and an average attendance of over 60. We have been personally acquainted with Prof. McQueen for many years and know him to be one of the most thorough, competent and successful young educators in the country, and withal a gentleman in every sense of the word. His home is near Cottage Grove.

Geo. H. Wikson, of Brockway, made this office a pleasant call today.

Mrs. Frank Anderson left on this morning's local to visit with her mother, Mrs. Rob Garrison, of Portland.

Norris & Roe's big trained dog and pony show is the attraction in Roseburg today. The street parade at 11:30 a.m., was very creditable.

A special feature of the rose festival Thursday evening, will be the musical program by the best talent of the city. Program will appear later.

H. G. Householder will open an ice cream and soda water stand in the room made vacant for him by the removal of the Roseburg Book & Job Office to the office of the PLAINDEALER. We wish him success.

Thos. Dunneath and U. E. Wilson of Galesville, made the PLAINDEALER a pleasant call Monday while in town looking after business matters. We found them both genial gentlemen and they will hereafter read the PLAINDEALER regularly.

Parties residing at Galesville who are in town today, after having heard the spouting of the fusion candidates at that place last week, state that if Roseburg cannot produce better speakers for the fusion cause than the candidates in question, little good will be accomplished by their canvass of the county. Mr. Gazley is reported as taking up all the time allotted him in explaining why he did not pay that $500 of his salary back into the county treasury as he promised to do.

Elkton Notes.

Mrs. R. Haney has gone to Gardiner to visit her daughter Mrs. Nettie Meeker.

The people of Elkton and vicinity were made glad last week, by the genial face of our friend, Mr. Stratford.

Wm. Roberts of the Commercial Hotel, droye the stage for J. A. Culy, last week.

Mrs. Coborn, who had a display of millinery goods at this place, returned to Drain, Tuesday.

Mrs. Wm. Bell, who has been visiting in Roseburg for some time, has returned to her home.

Some young ladies of our town have been soliciting funds for the starving people of India. Let us hope that every village in the U. S. may do their best to help the needy ones.

J. M. Robinson, who has been assessing in the Scottsburg vicinity, has returned home.

Elkton will soon boast of a mill, as some timbers have been brought and the work will soon begin.

Mrs. Gray of Gardiner, passed through last week with the infant child of Mr. Chandler, which she is taking to its father.

Mr. Jewett, of Gardiner, who has been in California for the part two months, returned last week.

Oscar Hinsdale, of Gardiner, was called to San Francisco, last week, on account of the death of his uncle.

J. M. Stark, of Cottage Grove, spent a few days in our midst, last week.

Al Smith brought a load of passengers up from Scottsburg one day last week.

The roads are being worked and much improved, the stage will now be able to travel much faster than before.

Ewing Powell was in town, last week.

Mr. Hampton and wife, who have been for several years in Washington, have returned to this place, and will take charge of the Beckley farm.

Who?

To the Public.

Believing we can do better by our patrons and ourselves by selling strictly for cash, we have decided to keep no books from May 1, 1900. Hoping this may suit the convenience of those who wish to deal with us, also at all times soliciting a fair share of patronage we are Respectfully yours, GADDIS BROS.

(m7.)

Letter List

Remaining uncalled for at the Roseburg postoffice. Andrus, Mrs. Orphelia

Fisher, Wm. L. Jones, Will Bowman, D. J. McClellan, Lewis Carter, Amon Roth, Albert Dow, Robert Wilcox, Mrs Mary Esbom, Mrs. Lillie Wattermeir, Joseph

Persons calling for these letters will please state the date on which they were advertised, May 7, 1900.

The letters will be charged for at the rate of one cent each.

Wm. A. FRATER, P. M.

Rambler BICYCLES

THEY ARE MECHANICALLY SCIENTIFICALLY ARTISTICALLY PERFECT.

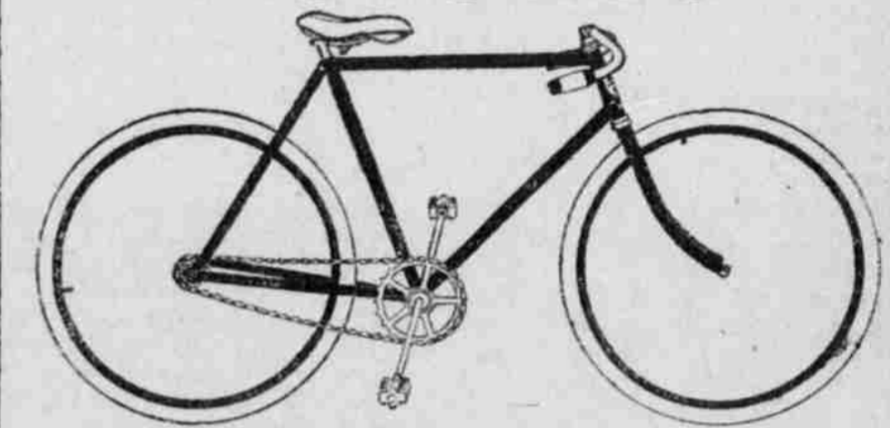

As a Perfect, Durable, Easy-running Roadster the is the leader that always leads. The High Grade Clipper Chainless ---the wheel that made the chainless a success. Price $60.

A full line of Bicycle Sundries. New wheels on installment plan. A. C. MARSTERS & CO.

COLUMBIA AND HARTFORD BICYCLES.

STANDARD OF THE WORLD Columbia Chainless $90 and $75. Columbia Chain Wheels $40 and $50. Hartford Chain Wheels $30 and $35. Coaster and Brake on any wheel $6 extra. Pennants $20 and $25. Stormer $30 and $35. RACKET STORE.

THE C. I. K. STORE.

New Goods Constantly Arriving. Step in. Glad to show them to you.

Just received our spring line of Men's and Boys' Suits.

A splendid line, it'll do you good to see them, whether you want to purchase or not. They were made by Friend Bros. & Co. of Milwaukee, Wis., and are called the "Perfection Clothing" they fit as if your tailor had made them for you.

Our stock of Spring Shapes in Men's Hats is now complete. We are agents for the celebrated "GORDON HAT." They come in all Shapes and Colors and are worth $3.00.

Our stock of Men's Furnishing Goods

Was never better or cheaper. In fact every department of our business is now in a perfect shape. We carry everything in the Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Notions and Gents' Furnishing Good Lines, also Boots, Shoes, Hats, and Caps.

Our business is growing. Every month it is larger, and why? Because we give good Goods and Honest Values. No misrepresentation. Everything as represented or money back.

FISHER & BELLOWS. Phone Main 185.

Subscribe FOR THE PLAINDEALER