Funston's Troops Took Garcia Prisoner in North Luzon—Three Americans Killed, Seven Wounded.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The war department has received the following cablegram:

"Manila, May 8.—General Pantaleon Garcia, a prominent insurgent officer of the Northern Provinces, was captured yesterday, with some valuable documents, by Funston's troops. Regard the capture an important one.

"MACARTHUR."

MANILA, May 8.—A force of rebels on May 2, attacked 20 men of Company I, of the Forty-fourth Regiment, stationed at Barotac, Ilo Ilo Province, Island of Panay. Three of the Americans were killed and seven wounded.

Another Island Scooped In.

ANCKLAND, N. Z., May 8.—Advices from Samoa announce that the American flag has been hoisted over the island of Tutuila amid great native rejoicing, and the chiefs made formal cession of the island to the United States. The inhabitants of Manoa also request the formal hoisting of the American flag over that island.

Drops the Admiral.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—A special from Springfield, O., says:

W. S. Thomas, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, states that John R. McLean has deserted his brother-in-law, Admiral Dewey, and jumped into the front seat of Bryan's band wagon. McLean has authorized the state convention, and has abandoned all thought of having the time when it will best suit Dewey's interests. Chairman Thomas stated further that there was no possible room for misconstruction of McLean's action, declaring that it meant that the Dewey candidacy, which has fallen flat the country over, is to be gradually abandoned. The plan is to let the people gradually forget the matter.

Reorganizing the National Guard.

Orders have been issued for the regimental organization of the Oregon National Guard. The old names of First and Second Regiments are dropped. In District No. 1, which embodies Portland and Oregon City, the organization will be named Third Regiment, and No. 2, which is up the Valley, will be termed the Fourth Regiment, and the battalion east of the Cascades, which is designated as the third military district, will be known as the First Separate Battalion. One independent Company A, at Marshfield, is not included in the organization.

The companies of the Fourth Regiment will be designated as follows:

- Separate Company C, Eugene, Company A.
- Company B, Ashland, Company B.
- Company C, Eugene, Company C.
- Separate Company D, Woodburn, Company D.
- Separate Company E, Roseburg, Company D.
- Company K, Salem, Company F.
- Separate Company G, Albany, Company G.
- Company H, Grants Pass, Company H.

Lane County Suicide.

W. R. Marquis, an old soldier, well known here, committed suicide Sunday night at his home north of Eugene on the river road. The body was found in a straw barn about one-half mile from the residence. He had removed his hat, coat and boots, and laid his pocket-book, a letter to the coroner, and some other letters, on the coat. It is apparent that the unfortunate man then reclined on the straw and committed the deed. The instrument used was a .44-calibre bulldog revolver, the ball entering the head above the right ear and coming out at the left temple. The head and right hand were powder-burned. Besides a letter left to Coroner Cheshire, was one left to the wife, one to the son, and others. The letter to Mrs. Marquis was placed on the gate at the residence. It told of the reasons for committing the deed, where the body could be found, and gave instructions for the burial.

Mr. Marquis attended church with his family Sunday morning, going from there to Springfield, where the letters were written, and returned sometime during the night to take his life as he described. Deceased had talked of committing suicide, but as late as Saturday had promised his son and daughter that he would not do so.

It appears that the deceased has for several years been afflicted with melancholia, sometimes in an acute form, and the tragedy caused by this temperament has superinduced this action.

OLD INDIAN FIGHTERS. Pioneers Who Defended Their Homes Against War Parties. Resolutions Passed.

At a meeting of Bennett Camp No. 8 of Indian War Veterans of the North Pacific coast, held in the city of Salem, Oregon, May 5, 1900, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We have learned through our representative in congress, Hon. Thomas H. Tongue, that the speaker of the house of representatives of the United States is opposed to any legislation tending toward the relief of those old Indian War Veterans who served in the early Indian wars in Oregon, who for many years have been asking to be placed on the pension roll, or to receive at least some recognition at the hands of this our government, and

WHEREAS, We are informed by our representative in congress, Hon. Thomas H. Tongue, that Speaker Henderson has taken the same stand in this matter as did the former speaker, Thomas E. Reed, and

WHEREAS, We have been put off from year to year with different explanations of this matter, and would like to locate the source of the opposition to our just demands, therefore be it

Resolved, By the Indian War Veterans of Bennett Camp, that we hereby most respectfully call upon the Hon. Speaker Henderson, of the house of representatives of the United States to give his reasons for so opposing the legislation that we ask.

Saginaw Smallpox.

Judge Potter and Dr. D. A. Paine returned from Saginaw this morning and report the smallpox at that place, of mild type and the patients fast recovering. The doctor fumigated the places thoroughly and left instructions for disinfecting. The gentlemen went from here to Cottage Grove by train, from there to Saginaw by wheel.—Guard.

Klondike Population.

William Ogilvie, president of the Yukon commission, has telegraphed to Hon. Clifford Sifton census returns which are nearly completed, of the population of Dawson and the Klondike, says the Alaskan. This shows that since January of last year the population has more than doubled, for whereas it was then 4236 it is now 8805. The figures this year are: Dawson, 5403; Klondike 3307. Voters in Dawson, 1129; in Klondike, 821.

It is interesting to note that the number of Americans are over two to one to the number of British subjects. There are in this recent census 5539 Americans and only 2767 British and 497 of other nationalities.

State News.

The postoffice at Merlin, Josephine county was robbed Saturday night of $1200. There have been no arrests made.

The Portland Telegram of May 7, prints a list of 1000 names of people who will leave for Cape Nome through Portland, this month.

Albany Democrat: Not content with a law business, hop yard, wheat ranch and numerous other fields, A. C. Woodcock, of Eugene, has just purchased at sheriff's sale the famous Belknap springs on the McKenzie, including 162 acres. Price, $1200. Woodcock may never own the world, but he is fast getting hold of Lane county.

General News.

A St. Louis judge rules that it is a man's duty to build the morning fire. Thus one by one the rights of being taken from him and the next thing we hear he will also have to wash and dress the baby.

That wonderful, record breaking cow at Ragle'sville, has given birth to five calves again. This occurred last week. Up to date she has given birth to twenty-one calves in six years. The cow belongs to Hira Sims who lives three miles from Ragle'sville. In '93 she gave birth to one calf, '94 to triplets, '95 to five, raising two, '96 to triplets, raising all, '98 to four, all being well developed but dead, 1900 to five again, all well developed but dead. In all, it makes twenty-one calves at six births, and she was successful in raising nine.—Ogden (Ind.) Journal.

Sprague river, Klamath county, is the anglers' dream of a paradise. It is a cold mountain-fed stream, of remarkable clearness, and flows with millpond quietness between low grass-tufted banks on which there is no brush or timber. The Lakeview Roster of May 3 gives an account of a big catch. It says: "Rev. L. A. Myers and H. Schmitt returned from the north fork of Sprague river in Klamath county last week with the greatest catch of trout yet brought from that county. With hook and line they caught about 400 pounds between them. The largest caught weighed 13 pounds and a fraction."

A Registration Law Injustice.

Portland Telegram: "Under the registration law," said a citizen "nearly 1000 people in Oregon will be prevented from voting at the National election, as I understand it. By election time I will have been in the state eight months, but will not be able to vote. I believe the registration law is a good thing in fact, an absolute necessity, but so far as my observation goes it is going to work an injustice to some. When the books close I will have lived here two months. As the books close six months before the presidential election that shuts me out."

Knock-Out Drops

"I am a saloon-keeper, and used to think that rock and rye, or whiskey and quinine were proper remedies for coughs and colds. Most of my acquaintances were of the same opinion. Now I know something at least a thousand times better. It is Acker's English Remedy for Coughs and Colds. A good while ago I began to cough and found out then that rock and rye was no good. I got worse and I was beginning to think that the trouble would run into consumption. I didn't take any stock in patent medicines, but somehow or other I tried Acker's English Remedy. One bottle did the business for me—knocked that cough out completely—and it has never come back again. There is never a day passes that I don't say a good word about this wonderful medicine. I almost forgot to say that I am stronger and fleshier now, since taking the remedy, than I was before the cough began. I write this letter voluntarily and cheerfully and am glad to do it." (Signed) CHAS. HUMMEL, Saloon-keeper, Pocatello, Idaho.

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.
