Hereafter the forest rangers must pass an examination, but it will be as to their fitness for the position in connection with their knowledge of the country, ability to ride and take care of a horse, etc., and they won't have to have a knowledge of Latin and trigonometry.

The remains of the infant child of Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Moore, which recently died in New York state, arrived here Thursday evening and were buried in Belle Passi cemetery, Friday. The body was accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. Moore and her mother Mrs. Layman, Woodburn Independent.

Geo. H. Graves, the man who sells everything to everybody and cares not who gets swindled as long as he holds his job, was again on our streets Friday with his bunch of brooms upon his back shaking hands with his friends and customers. Graves is a good fellow and has many friends and customers here who have traded with the Harry Uona Co. for years.

J. O. Stemmler, a prominent farmer and stock man of Dora, Coos county, arrived in town Thursday, in company with other stockmen, with a large band of fine beef cattle for L. Kohlhaugen, the butcher. Our old friend Stemmler made us a pleasant call, and reported everything flourishing over in Coos, except the demo-pops. Republican prosperity has completely demoralized them politically.

Epworth League of the M. E. church held its regular business and social meeting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. George R. Arnold, Friday evening. After the conclusion of the business session games and social converse occupied the remainder of the evening in a very pleasing manner. A very novel lunch was served consisting of salted crackers, Saratoga chips and lemonade which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Y. P. S. C. E. Rose Festival.

The second annual rose festival under the supervision of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church of this city was celebrated at the Opera House Thursday evening. The house was tastefully decorated with the C. E. colors, wreaths, emblems of orders, etc., in solid masses of roses. Directly in front of the stage was a large arch of roses with "Y. P. S. C. E. Rose Festival" in gold letters across its face. Two long tables across the parquet were weighted down with beautiful roses, as was also several smaller tables on each side bearing the emblems of the different orders and huge bouquets.

The following program was rendered in which each number received the heartiest applause.
Vocal solo, "Ashore," Miss Georgia Jacobs.
Recitation, Selected, Miss Kate Fullerton.

Vocal solo, Selected, Dan Langenberg.
Recitation, "John Maynard," Miss Noll.
Vocal solo, Selected, Miss Lena Kearney.

Piano solo, "La Gavoite," Wm. G. Sanvlett, Mrs. I. Wollenberg.
Vocal solo, "Anchored," L. R. Traver.
The following judges were then selected: Mrs. J. C. Aiken, Mrs. M. Josephson and S. C. Flint. After carefully examining every bouquet and emblem in the house the judges awarded the prizes as follows:

Single variety—First prize, Mrs. W. Willis. Second prize, Mrs. G. W. Bales.
More than five varieties—First prize, Miss Gertrude Rast. Second prize, Mrs. F. W. Benson.
Most unique bouquet—Mrs. F. W. Benson.
Best executed lodge emblem—Eastern Star.

There were about 38 entries for prizes besides the decorations, which far exceeded that of last year and shows that our town people are fast taking an interest in celebrating the reign of our most beautiful floral decoration.

After the awarding of the prizes, which were donated by our liberal merchants and business men, elegant refreshments were served upon the stage from which the society netted a good round sum and made the Rose Festival a financial success as well as social.
