The Review seems particularly interested in Mr. Hermann's welfare lately. Charlie shouldn't worry so long as Mr. Hermann's friends don't.

The democrats of this county remind me of two small boys fighting over who shall get the core of an apple—only in this case there 'aint goin' to be no core."

Clay Stocum, republican candidate for constable, is a good old substantial citizen of Roseburg, and would fulfill the duties of the office without fear or favor.

There isn't a more popular candidate in this judicial district, than Hon. Geo. M. Brown. When the qualifications and fitness of Mr. Brown and Mr. Hazard are compared, the voters will not be long in deciding to vote for Brown.

We believe in good roads; we believe in a gravel loader instead of a shovel with a time killer hanging on the handle; we believe in rock crushers and gravel for roads instead of straw and fence rails; we also believe in accessible and safe bridges.

The Nome rush is on! Almost every train from the east brings dozens of men into Portland and Seattle, and every steamer that leaves for the north is loaded with these men and their outfits. Most all seem to be going to Nome rather than Klondike.

The Review of Saturday evening came out with its editorial leader "Shifty Toe, Tongue," copied bodily from an exchange and palmed off on the public as something original. We have been reading that same "machine made" editorial in the fusion press for the past two weeks. Fisher is as dilatory and inefficient with his scissors as with his pen.

The Review came out recently with an article headed "The Oregonian Condemns Tongue." Oh yes, the Oregonian "condemns" Tongue, as will be seen from the following paragraph taken from last Friday's daily:

"No man who has any interest in stable business conditions, gold values for crops and wages, confidence for capital and steady employment for labor can afford to vote for Dr. Daly. The First district should re-elect Representative Tongue by 5,000 majority."

In beginning an editorial on the alleged decadence of the Republican party the Roseburg Review somewhat ungrammatically yet truthfully states: "Time was when the affairs of Government, as administered by Republicans, was largely for the interests of the people and was given their honest support." This is tardy admission of virtues of the republican party. How comes it that, when the party was administering affairs in the interests of the people, the Review was opposing it as bitterly as it does today? Was the Review against the people then, or is it simply "forlorn against the government, regardless"—Oregonian.

Hon. R. A. Booth is an able, brilliant and progressive man, and would make a senator in whom Josephine, Douglas and Lane counties might well point with just pride. His opponent, R. M. Veatch, is a typical obstructionist and calamity howler, a fact his record in the Oregon legislature will bear out. Not a single measure of judicious legislation can be ascribed to him, and his alleged record for economy was made simply by voting in the negative on every measure that was introduced, either good or bad. It was just such obstructionists as he that were responsible for that disgraceful "hold-up legislature" of a few years ago. The fact of the matter is, Veatch has never succeeded in anything but politics, and only then through some fat appointment. On the other hand, Mr. Booth is progressive, liberal; a man who works for the betterment of the condition of his fellow man, especially the laboring classes. He possesses, in a high degree, the qualifications that go toward making a good, conscientious, economical legislator—a position for which by instinct, numbers and predictions, he would prove with becoming dignity and County Clerk's Affidavit.

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK OF DOUGLAS COUNTY,
 ROSEBURG, OREGON, SEPT. 14, 1898.
 I hereby certify that I will turn into the Douglas County Treasury from my salary during my terms of office, the sum of $500 on or before the first day of February, 1899.
 J. F. GAZLEY, County Clerk.
 Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of September, 1898.
 J. S. FITZHUGH,
 Notary Public for Oregon.

In order to somewhat justify himself for not returning one cent of his salary back into the county treasury, as he pledged himself as above to do, Mr. Gazley now, with brazen effrontery, sets forth the claim of being the author and finisher of the bill passed in the legislature providing for the reduction of the salaries of the officers of this county. The facts are the man, through whom Gazley claims he urged the passage of this bill, Representative Wilson, opposed the only measure introduced for this object, which bill was drafted and introduced by the Douglas county republican senator, the late Hon. A. W. Reed, and it was only through the persistent personal efforts of Mr. Reed and the union representatives, Wonacott and Conn, that Mr. Gazley's right-hand man was prevailed upon to support the Reed bill, ever word of which can be proven conclusively. The Roseburg Review even repeats the claims of Mr. Gazley in its issue of May 3, 1900, when it said:

THE REVIEW'S ADMISSION:

"Senator Reed introduced a bill reducing and re-adjusting the salaries of the officials of Douglas county and in order to insure its passage the Union representatives, Wilson, Wonacott and Conn, introduced no measure, but came to the support of Mr. Reed's bill."

The people of Grants Pass will celebrate the glorious Fourth of July. The republicans of Douglas county will celebrate June 5th.

The PLAIND DEALER will give some attention to the Review for its insult to Colonel Summers and members of the 2nd Oregon, in its next issue.

Prof. H. J. Robinette, republican candidate for justice of the peace, is a bright, intelligent gentleman, a true American citizen, and would fill the office with dignity and without prejudice or partiality. Elect him.

Douglas county's interests in the Oregon legislature will be safe in the hands of such able men as Hon. R. A. Booth, Hon. E. D. Briggs, Hon. A. C. Marsters, A. R. Mattoon and C. Ross King. Vote this representative ticket straight.

Who ever heard of a railroad boy being in the infant class. It is a dead easy proposition to them, that were it not for the money they spend in Roseburg, that many a fusion pop who is blather-skiting against "industrial trusts," would have to "hit" the road.—Ex.

What do the people think of a newspaper so narrow, prejudiced and rabidly partisan that it would refuse to publish an announcement of public speaking for any party other than its own? Such a sheet is the Roseburg Review, which refuses to announce the coming of Hon. W. M. Howard of Alabama, who will speak at this place May 31 at 2 p. m., from a True Populist standpoint.

We note that our old democratic friend, Dr. K. A. Leep, of Myrtle Point is a candidate for state senator of Coos county. He is a good fellow but we are surprised at this selection of the Coos county democrat when it is so well known that Dock was a member of the "Third" house of that disgraceful "hold-up" legislature a few years ago. Had it not been for our vigilance in looking after the fellow he would have returned home without any reputation at all. Dock can't be good!

Some of the fusion officials of this county are indeed enterprising if nothing else, a fact that forcibly presents itself, when it is announced that the county clerk fosters and maintains a full fledged brokers office in connection with his office, in which a general traffic is carried on in county warrants, depriving many of our farmers and fruit growers the privilege of making like investments. The present incumbent for assessor also has a reputation for enterprise, two months of each year being spent harvesting in Eastern Oregon, while his work here is entrusted to a cheap deputy. Both these officials are up for re-election, but are very likely to be placed on the retired list June 4.

If Arrogance is a Virtue, the Boss is a Saint.

The inevitable wail of the Douglas county fusion pop., will be—"If I had served my party with half the zeal I have served my boss, it would not have left me in my old age to pick rage from the political rubbish of fusionism."

Public Speaking.

Hon. W. M. Howard, ex-senator of Alabama will address the citizens of Roseburg on the political issues of the day in the interests of the true populist party on May 31st at 2 p. m. and at Myrtle Creek 8 p. m. on the same day. All regardless of party affiliations are requested to be present.
