

The Twice-a-Week Roseburg Plaindealer

Published Mondays and Thursdays. W. C. CONNER & F. W. ROACH, Editors and Proprietors.

Clinching Race. We have arranged with a large number of papers and magazines for rates which will give to our subscribers two publications for a slight advance over the cost of THE PLAINDEALER alone.

Advertising Rates on Application. SEPTEMBER 12, 1901.

With a bumper hop crop, a bumper prune and apple crop and a state fair, Oregon is sure of expansion.

The Portland bath fund has reached nearly $5,000, and the bath house promises to be an established fact during the coming year.

The anarchists know better than to fool with Teddy. They believe him to be a walking arsenal and an expert with a brace of pistols.

The Polish residents of New York repudiate the story that Czolgosz is of Polish extraction, and charge his ancestry upon Russia.

The country is to be congratulated upon the excellent prospects for recovery of the President. The next best reason for congratulation is its narrow escape from Rooseveltism.

Everything is being put in ship-shape for the Street Fair and Carnival next week. Many booths, band stands, dancing platforms, vegetable, stock and poultry booths are being erected.

Vice-President Roosevelt is in demand as a speaker. He has received two thousand invitations to make speeches since January 1st.

The Roseburg Plaindealer is a good newspaper in a good field and receives a splendid patronage. It can, therefore, afford to give proper credit for anything which it considers worth clipping from a less fortunate contemporary.

Oh, thank you, Brother Soule! but regarding your little "proper credit" joke, we will wager a two-pence that we profited that item from the same exchange that you did.

By the following Editorial extract from the Salem Journal it will be noted that Editor Hofer is a very observing gentleman and that to him the seaside furnishes a rare field for observation as well as a place at which burnt-out brain force may be replenished by a clam and fish diet.

Both men and woman are made honest and better by sea bathing and the libelous pictures in the newspapers are the only bad things in connection with life at the seashore.

IRREPRESSIBLE "TEDDY." According to a reported incident that occurred as Vice-President Roosevelt was leaving the Milburn House yesterday, he was not afraid to step aside and shake hands with a negro laborer who asked him if he would do so, nor shake hands with several other workmen who came up, and he took time to make them a little speech. Roosevelt must be a difficult man for the secret service detectives to follow and guard. Even if he were President, his impulsive nature and natural bravery would overcome caution and prudence, and lead him to take more chances than most men would in such a position, though he ran no risk in this instance.

A Little Politics. Representative Tongue has been invited by the Ohio republicans to stump that state.

A modest man generally gets what he asks for. There's Brownell of Oregon county. He only wants to go to the State Senate. Salem Journal.

Judge Steven A. Lowell, of Pendleton, has announced himself as a candidate for governor. There is at least one good reason why he will not get the nomination.

The loyal Mitchell followers are clamoring for Judge Galloway's position in the Oregon City "land office" and some of them are beginning to think that their chief is no longer the sole dispenser of the fruit on the federal patronage tree.

PRESIDENT'S RECOVERY ASSURED.

Removal of Particles of his Coat From Wound Accomplished.

BUFFALO, Sept. 11.—The president continues to show the most unmistakable signs of improvement and the uneasiness caused by last night's operation for the removal of a piece of coat carried into the wound by the bullet, has given way to more pronounced confidence than ever. The president is so cheery that one of the doctor's remarked that they would permit him to smoke a cigar before long. He had not shown the slightest depression from the dressing of the wound last night. Mrs. McKinley had her usual morning visit with him and the situation was so bright that all of those about him and many who came to inquire as to the president's condition were cheered with confidence akin to absolute certainty that the president is on the high road to recovery.

The following bulletin was issued today at 3:30 o'clock: BUFFALO, Sept. 12.—The president continues to gain and his full recovery is assured. His wounds are becoming more healthy and nourishment is now given more freely.

A Convenient Fruit Evaporator.

A PLAINDEALER representative visited the fine fruit farms of F. A. McCall and P. Reed on the river bottom opposite the Soldiers Home Tuesday, and there found a desirable fruit paradise. Never have we seen more thrifty, heavy yielding and better cared for orchards of various varieties of fruits, especially adapted to this county which includes apples, pears, peaches and plums, the two latter named fruits predominating. There is a Crawford peach orchard all been worked at regular intervals, only the McIntosh, have 6 or 7 years of age, and 250 bushels capacity per day. It is equipped with modern truck tractors, heating pipes, trays dipping apparatus, bins, etc., and the McIntosh, have 6 or 7 years of age, and 250 bushels capacity per day.
