A TRAGIC DEATH.

Young Lady Formerly of This County Burned to Death.

Meagre reports of a young lady having been severely burned at an Independence hop vard came to Corvallis the first of the week, but it was not realized at the time that it was an estimable resident of Kings Valley, and a student of O. A. C. Such proved to be the fact, however, and the first sad news was supplemented by the sadder intelligence that she had died Tuesday evening at

The unfortunate young lady was Miss Florence Winniford, who with her parents has resided in Kings Valley about two years. The family formerly resided in Douglas county where they located more than twenty years ago, having come originally from the South, Deceased is a sister of Mrs. C. A. tovable companion, Miss Winniford and a brother were picking hope in the Burton yard in Polk county, and while she was preparing the the evening meal about the camp stove Saturday, her clothing took fire. At ones she was greatly alarmed and ran. In vain her friends called to her to stop, mean while endeavoring to overtake her, but this they were not able to do before the lower portions of her bidy were severely burned. She was removed to Independence at once and for a time enconraging reports came from the bedmire bot on Tuesday she passed away. Thursday the remains were conveyed to Kings Valley where on the same date occurred the feneral service and burisl. Her tragic death has cast a shadow athwart the portal of the new college year and as returning students enter they will feel the sorrow attendant upon this bereavement. This death is the more aff at ing to students because of the fact that Morn Wiggiford and brother, were at the time of the souldent, endesvoring to earn money which would enable them to resome their studies at the coffege.-Cirva he Times.
