

THE PEOPLE'S STORE

We are redoubling our efforts to make the PEOPLE'S STORE the most popular place for bargain seekers to make their headquarters, as our Fall and Winter goods have arrived and we are selling them at a very low margin.

LADIES: Our Fall Millinery Stock of Street and Walking shapes are the most up-to-date styles that has ever been in the city before, and we are selling them from 25 to 50 per cent. cheaper than you can get them elsewhere.

Our Fall and Winter Stock of Clothing are now in and one of the latest and most up-to-date, and if you will step in and give us a call you will be convinced that we have the most complete and up-to-date line in the city, and you will see that we can sell you cheaper than you can get them elsewhere.

We are also sole W. L. Douglas Shoes and Monarch Shirts

A GOOD FRUIT CROPPING.—F. A. McCall who has a fine fruit farm about two miles west of this city, was in town Saturday and informed us that his new drier which was built this season gave the best of satisfaction, turning out an average of 100 bushels of prunes per day. Mr. McCall's dried prune product this season aggregated 45,000 pounds of which 7,000 were P. types and the balance Italian prunes. Mr. McCall estimates that he lost about 300 bushels of prunes as a result of the rains and the endeavor to forth to dry and save the crop of his neighbors. The entire product of Mr. McCall's orchard, which was of large size and excellent quality, was sold to Clarence Guley for 25 cents per pound.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. D. Brock, in this city, on Wednesday evening, September 23, Henry Rambo and Miss Mand Tipton, W. N. Knox, officiating minister.

Both parties are among our most popular young people, the groom holding a good position with the large mercantile firm of Alvord & Frederick, and the bride is one of Grandville's most charming young ladies. The two parties joined with their friends in wishing them a long and prosperous wedded life.—Grandville, Idaho, Free Press.

The bride's daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tipton, of Garden valley, in this county, and has many friends here who join in wishing her much happiness.

DEPART HORSES IN DEMAND.—S. C. B. train sold his fine black team on Clyde's draft horses last Thursday to Col. H. H. the British Columbia horse buyer at a good round price. Mr. Collins shipped fifteen head of draft horses from this city, north, Thursday evening. It appears that the horse raising industry is improving again as well as cattle raising and a good draft horse finds a ready demand at all time prices.

HEAR'S CROW.—These other towns can crow all they please about their different institutions of which they are proud, but it took an Albany creamery to beat the world's record. It is a big thing to have the best creamery in the United States in our midst. Not the biggest creamery, but the one making the best butter according to the record.—Albany Democrat.

L. O. T. M. Notice—There will be a special meeting of Roseburg Live No. 11 at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon Oct., 23rd. By order of Lady Com.

The $8,000 Eugene woolen mill tonnage subscription has been started by the First National bank with $600. F. L. Chambers, Frank Dunn, and J. H. McClung each give $250. E. H. Ingram, Perry Frank & Son, Hampton Bros. and G. R. Christian each give $200.

No confectory like that home made (sly) at the Candy Kitchen—children cry for it, young ladies are pleased with it and the other people prefer it.

It has been learned that Calogues means "to crawl" in the Polish language. Some have called Calogues earth-nake. But he certainly is not, for a rattlesnake always gives warning before striking. This is more than Calogues did. So the name is too good for him, says the Albany Democrat.

Buffalo Pitts Disc Spring and spike tooth harrow, sold by S. K. Sykes are the best. See them and you will buy no others.

Louis Shaffer who resides on Bear creek near Comstock, is seriously ill with pneumonia. He is a veteran of the Civil war and has many friends who will be pleased to learn of his early recovery. Dr. Geo. Wall of Cottage Grove, is attending him.

The Overy Plow Co. stamp their name on every share, Mch and Lard-side. The genuine only, sold by Churchill & Woolley.

Editor F. W. Chausse of the Grants Case One year spent Friday in this city on his return home from Portland where he went as a delegate to the K. P. grand lodge. We were favored with a pleasant call.

The Pan American Spike tooth harrow with levers are second to none. See them at S. K. Sykes.

Mr. R. Chadwick made the office a pleasant call this morning. He was returning to his home in Portland after a few days visit with relatives at this place.—Lebanon Critic.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 21.—Tonight and Tuesday fair.

THOS. GIBSON, Observer.

Lunch will be served on Friday, Oct. 23, noon and evening at the Free Reading Room. Come and help a good cause. This is doing a splendid work and needs your assistance. We want the people of Roseburg to take a personal interest in the Reading Room. Thirty dollars per month will insure a good safe place where your young people can find books, magazines and papers to read. Open and free to all between the hours of 9 a. m. and 9:30 p. m. Kindly give us your assistance. The janitor at the room will gladly receive and give you credit for same.

It will be of interest to the farmers of this county to learn that the New Era Flour Mills, of Roseburg have just installed a fine new Barley Roller machine of large capacity and that the mills are now prepared to manufacture a fine quality of less feed from your barley which you want and are even better equipped for turning out a superior quality of flour and feed than ever before. Bring in your grain and they will do the rest.

A friend who returned to town yesterday from the mountains presented to this office a copy of "The Comraiser," Bryan's paper, which was found under a big tree forty miles from anywhere. It bears date of June 7, 1901, is well preserved and across its title page appears in bold type, "Emperor McKinley." It is supposed that a Roseburg subscriber on receiving that paper retires to the spot above mentioned to peruse its contents.

It is an old axiom that "bread is the staff of life," but this depends somewhat on its quality. The fine cream and home made bread made at J. Siever's bakery on Jackson street near Cass never fails to please. A nice variety of pastries also kept constantly on hand.

Noah Sellers, of South Myrtle Creek, was in town Saturday transacting business. He says much interest still continues in the South Myrtle mines and some good properties are being developed in that mining district. He reports a large prune product about Myrtle Creek this season and says that a very small part was lost or damaged by the rains. Most of the dried prunes of that section were sold to Mr. Ward, the eastern prune buyer, at a fair price.

Stearns & Chenoweth have Iron Crag wagons, the best and cheapest. They offer all Hacks and Buggies at reduced prices, new, all steel horse wagons, steel Ranges and Stoves of all sorts, Pioneer White Lead, Lined Oil, Doors and Windows.

S. S. Catching who lately returned home from the Nome gold fields, has decided to spend the winter at his old home at Riddle and with his family returned to that place Sunday where they own a comfortable home. Mr. Catching made us a pleasant call Saturday and carried away a receipt for a two years' subscription to the PLAINDEALER.

Some unscrupulous dealers call common cast iron Stoves to their customers for the genuine Oliver. Look for the name cast in every one—don't buy the bogus.

Two colored minstrels have been entertaining guests at Hotel McCallen at meal time for the past two days. They are experts with the mandolin and guitar and also sing well. Hotel McCallen is rapidly taking on metropolitan airs and its many guests will be taking their meals with a full orchestra accompaniment.

"Fide of Douglas" is the brand you will always find on the sacks containing the best flour obtainable in Southern Oregon. Try it and be convinced.

L. E. Bean of the Roseburg land office returned home from the Blue River mining district Saturday morning where he has valuable interests. He reports the prospects very bright in both the Blue River and Bohemia mining camps and says Lane is surely coming to the front as a gold producing country.

Notions, the odd things so many unusual things here. Those you don't know where to get, but don't want to pay much for, Hildebrand's.

Wood has been kept up to such a high price in and about Roseburg this fall—$1.75 to $2.25 per tier, fir and oak—that many of our citizens are having their winter's wood shipped in by car load lots from Pass Creek Canyon and receive it at a lower price even after freight is paid.

Now is the time to buy your plows and harrows; see the Syracuse Steel and Chilled plows before buying elsewhere for sale by S. K. Sykes.

The Roseburg Review and PLAINDEALER are calling each other names again. Why can't the brethren dwell together in harmony?—Marchfield Mail.

The other fellow won't be good.

Those desiring to pay their subscription in wood should bring it along 800N as our woodshed is filling up rapidly and our collector will take the field November 1st and will be unable to accept wood on subscription at that time.

Everybody can have nice, light, white bread if they will use Bachford's "Pride of Douglas" flour.

Geo. Wilson, who was arrested on the charge of assault and battery on A. W. Patterson, the school teacher at Brockway, was arraigned before Justice Robinson Saturday. He pleaded guilty and was fined $20 and costs.

Soldier's Home Products.

One of the most productive tracts in this vicinity is the Soldier's Home Farm. Besides being located on very rich river bottom land, the farm is kept in a high state of cultivation and contains very near being self-sustaining, at least in the production of berries, fruits and garden vegetables. Besides having an abundance of these products for consumption in their season the Cannamania's restaurant which supervised the canning preserving, etc., of the following amount of berries and vegetables:

Fruit and berries, 1295 quarts; jelly, 100 quarts; tomatoes, 265 quarts; plum butter, 13 gallons; crab apple butter, 17 gallons; pear preserves, 11 gallons; tomato catsup, 122 bottles; dried prunes, 350 pounds.

Besides the products mentioned above, 2,000 large and luscious water melons were grown this season, potatoes in abundance for the home, sweet corn for the tables and fodder for the milch cows, four acres of good hay, a number of hogs are fattened and killed every season, and carrots, turnips and rutabagas grown in abundance for feed for the farm cows and horses. The part of the farm formerly covered with brush and stumps is rapidly being cleared and placed in cultivation, less than eight acres remaining uncleared of stumps and which is in pasture.

Dissolution of Partnership.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 21, 1901. The partnership heretofore existing between W. C. Conner and F. W. Roach is this day dissolved by mutual consent. F. W. Roach retiring from the business of the Roseburg PLAINDEALER. W. C. Conner continues the business, assuming all partnership debts and obligations and all accounts due the firm are payable to the said W. C. Conner.

W. C. CONNER and F. W. ROACH.

Not Necessary, Mr. Printer.

Now that we have got down to wholesale prices, and the public knows it, we do not need to advertise so extensively. Two pianos and two organs sold on Friday, and three pianos going out Saturday is evidence that the people have found out just where they can get the most reliable pianos and organs for the money. The place is the old and reliable music house of T. K. Richardson, Roseburg, Oregon.

The Spud in the Middle West.

Why do you climb so high, Potato?

Why scorn our deep and hungry sigh, Potato?

We've loved you long, we love you still, We always have, and always will—Our thoughts and other spots you fill, Potato.

We used to peel your jacket off, Potato;

No more that garment will you doff, Potato.

We take you in with peel and all, And nose and eye, both great and small No morsel do we dare let fall, Potato.

Then must we buy you by the quart, Potato?

O, prove yourself of the mellow sort, Potato.

Give ear to our despairing cry, Admit you've got your perch to high; Our longing midst, O, satisfy, Potato.

ALASKA LETTER.

Hon. C. A. Schibredo and Party Complete a Long Hazardous Journey.

FR. YUKON ALASKA, Sept. 16, 1901. EDITOR PLAINDEALER:—Fort Yukon is within the Arctic Circle, so you will see by this that we are in the Frigid Zone.

FR. YUKON ALASKA, Sept. 16, 1901. EDITOR PLAINDEALER:—Fort Yukon is within the Arctic Circle, so you will see by this that we are in the Frigid Zone.

We are now one hundred miles down the Yukon river, so called because of the low flat country through which the Yukon river makes its way acrossward. These flats are from forty to sixty miles wide and three hundred miles long, and the river covers the whole expanse, only it is broken up by islands, there are thousands of islands scattered all through this space; the channels are not wide, sometimes one quarter of a mile and other places probably three miles wide. The trouble in traveling through these flats is the danger of getting drawn into sloughs in which the water moves so slowly, or after running several miles spreads out over wide shoals over which it is impossible to get a boat, which means a long hard back track pull with the oars. So far we have had no trouble of the kind, so we have run on to bars over which we have not been able to pull our boat, by wading.

The trip down the Yukon, is a great one; the scenery is grand and the country so vast and wonderful in resources, it would take a series of articles to begin to do the subject justice, so I will not now attempt it, but will give you a brief outline of our trip. We are making the trip from the head of the Yukon river, beginning at the head of Lake Linderman to the mouth of the river.

Our boat is 24 feet long with 6 1/2 feet beam. We are carrying in all, about one ton of goods, including stove, beds, guns and provisions. We have our beds in the forward part, goods midship, and our cooking and dining room in the rear. Our sleeping apartments are covered with a tent like home made of oiled canvas. We carry a mast 12 feet high, and when the wind is favorable raise sail and add much to our speed. We carry a 30-50 Winchester, a 12 gauge shot gun, a 41 Colt and a 38 Smith & Weston, so you know we are fully armed for any kind of game—we have got eight lots of game and nearly all of them are enjoying their usual good health, but one week ago we discovered a bear walking along the beach, so we opened fire, and he lay Mr. Bear underfoot to climb a bluff almost perpendicular, and about one thousand feet high, was a caution. We landed our boat, went back up stream and with the aid of a soft nose bullet from the Winchester secured the bear.

Some men and occupy level ground with common people. We have his skin on our fore deck, the animal was good. I made an attempt to shoot a goose, the gun was loaded with buck shot, a heavy charge, when the gun "went off" the "goose" that pulled the trigger had a skin-deep nose and a black eye with a face all covered with blood, while the other goose escaped with an injured wing, which after a few attempts worked sufficiently well to enable it to make good its escape, the gun kicked, it still lames my nose with care.

We are now one hundred miles down the river, and still have two hundred miles to make. The weather is mild and clear, last night we had about one inch of ice in still water. In the sun it is about 70 degrees during the day.

We next move for Khatanga and will now hurry on so that we will get through before the ice begins to form.

Am in the very best of health. Regards to Douglas county friends.

C. A. SCHIBREDO.

STOCK ADVANCING.

Umpqua Valley Oil Company Will Soon Commence Sinking First Well.

The Umpqua Valley Oil Co., is highly elated over the favorable prospects for early operations in sinking their first well and the report of the expert geologist who has been carefully looking over the company's grounds in this county.

A telegram from Bakersfield, California, Saturday announced that the oil well drilling plant which was recently purchased at that place was loaded on the cars that day and made ready for immediate shipment and it will therefore only be a matter of a few days when this expensive machinery will arrive here and be taken to the site selected for the first drilling operations, which will not be announced for a few days. On the strength of securing this valuable plant and the report of the expert geologist local oil stock took another soar this morning being advanced five cents on the share or thirty cents per share and is considerably in demand both at home and abroad even at that price. The expert geologist returned home this morning from a visit to the company's bonded lands near Myrtle Creek and is equally as well impressed with what he found at that place as other parts of the county where unmistakable evidence of oil is found which almost positively assures the success of the company.

The appearance of great deposits of nickel ore, conglomerate, sandstone, shale, sea shells and coal, together with salt and oily springs, at various places in the county is evidence of a geological formation peculiar to this county, all of which are the best indications that oil exists in quantities underneath this remarkable formation and will yield profitable returns when it is once tapped by the drill.

Sudden Death of John Canady.

The many friends of John Canady, an old and highly respected citizen of Oakland, were greatly surprised to learn of his sudden demise last Friday Oct. 18, 1901, at his home. He was walking about his place conversing with a friend, Prof. Jas. Young, when he was stricken with heart failure without warning and soon expired. Deceased was about 60 years of age and one of the large taxpayers of the county. He leaves a brother, Dr. M. M. Canady, of Lane county, and two sisters, Mrs. J. F. Rice, Jr., of Rice Hill, and Mrs. Marsh, of Lane county. The funeral was held at Oakland Sunday, at one o'clock p. m., under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. and A. O. U. W. lodges, of which orders the deceased has long been a member. Many members of these orders in Roseburg and old friends of deceased went over to Oakland Sunday to attend the funeral services.
