

THE PEOPLE'S STORE

We are redoubling our efforts to make the PEOPLE'S STORE the most popular place for bargain seekers to make their headquarters, as our Fall and Winter goods have arrived and we are selling them at a very low margin.

LADIES: Our Fall Millinery Stock of Street and Walking shapes are the most up-to-date styles that has ever been in the city before, and we are selling them from 25 to 50 per cent. cheaper than you can get them elsewhere.

Our Fall and Winter Stock of Clothing are now in and one of the latest and most up-to-date, and if you will step in and give us a call you will be convinced that we have the most complete and up-to-date line in the city, and you will see that we can sell you cheaper than you can get them elsewhere.

We are also sole agents for . . . . . W. L. Douglas Shoes and Monarch Shirts . . . . .

Told in Side Heads

AN ERROR WEDS.—J. C. Roberts, the junior editor of the Myrtle Point Enterprise and a personal friend of the PLAINDEALER man, was married last Wednesday, Nov. 6, 1901, to Miss Kate Braden, a popular and highly esteemed young school teacher of Myrtle Point. Being a prior, Bro. Roberts will never tease his wife for "pie" at the table, but may possibly have to provide a "foot" of "small-caps" for the ward-robe, that there may be a proper "display" of "home-matter." Like all other good printers he has succeeded in making a "good impression," which we trust will be lasting. Well, young man, here's our best wishes with the hope that you and yours may ever be "thin-spaced," and that in the future you will provide a good "pressman" and a good "leader" and able to provide plenty of "plate-matter," and should any other cheap ever meddle with your "formas," produce your "shooting-stick" and demonstrate the exact location of your "battery." So give us your "best" and your wife for us, and remember you will always find us at the top of the column and next to pure reading matter—this position our contract calls for with no omission. May you dwell in peace and happiness together, live long, and prosper exceedingly.

DOUGLAS COUNTY GOES ONE BETTER.—In our last issue appeared an account of an independent man growing 2 crops of Barbank potatoes on a single tract of ground this season. Now comes a Douglas county man, Attorney Louis Barzee of Roseburg, who goes the Polk county man one better. Mr. Barzee resides on a small place belonging to G. W. Dimnick near Wilbur. On March 16 of this year he planted a tract of ground and planted it to Early Rose potatoes, which he dug and marketed about July 1st at 3 cents per pound. The ground was immediately replanted to field corn, which was a good crop and was fed to his cow during September and October when pasture was poor. He then seeded the same ground to turnips and now has a fine crop of this vegetable for table use and winter feed for his cow. Here is a practical demonstration of the rotation of crops in this portion of Oregon.

PEARS AND APPLES PROFITABLE.

W. C. Winston who is extensively engaged in the fruit business at Winston a few miles south of this city was in town Friday. He says he sold his dried pears at a good price, but his Bartlett pears and winter apples proved his greatest source of revenue this season, which were sold to a Medford party on the trees in his orchard at a very remunerative price. Mr. Winston thinks there is his money in Bartlett pears and red winter apples, providing the orchards are well cared for and sprayed systematically.

PRODUCTIVE DOUGLAS.—H. Remington whose property is within the city, raised and dried from a two-thirds gathered crop, grown on a three-acre tract, 4,433 pounds of Italian, petite and silver prunes, this year, and from the same three acres cut three tons of clover and timothy hay. Can any soil in the world beat that for productivity?—Drain Nonpareil.

EXISTENT IN THE WORLD.—E. A. Kartz, the Salem prune buyer says Douglas county prunes are larger than those grown in Marion county. He might have added that the Douglas county prune is the largest and finest in quality, grown anywhere.

FOUND.—Sometimes ago a double-breasted jacket, black, for a girl about 8 years old, was found in the court house yard and brought to this office where the owner may reclaim it by proving property.

MARRIED.—At Galesville, Nov. 5, 1901, M. M. Cavness and Elizabeth Whitaker, Frank Plotner, J. P. officiating. Mr. Cavness halls from New Mexico.

MARRIED.—At Drain, Nov. 7, 1901, M. N. Easley and Susan Dickerson, Rev. Jas. Moore, officiating.

WANTED.—A woman or girl to do general housework, in small family. Inquire at this office.

The new editor of the Drain Nonpareil is trying to make a mash on the PLAINDEALER's city editor. Here is his first bouquet: "Miss Laura E. Jones, the only handsome city editor in the state, and solicitor and collector for the PLAINDEALER, passed through Drain this morning enroute to Scottsburg and Gardiner. We wish her a prosperous and safe return."

Don't forget you get the genuine Oliver plows and extras at Churchill & Woolley's.

Douglas county farmers always have something to sell.

J. D. Morgareige, wife and niece, arrived at this place from Hot Springs, South Dakota, Thursday and have taken rooms in this city for the winter. Mr. Morgareige resided in Yamhill county some years ago prior to going to the Dakotas. He is looking for a place suitable for fruit growing and chicken raising near Roseburg and if he is successful in securing such a place will locate here permanently. We welcome this estimable family to our city.

"The address, while entertaining and pleasing, was interwoven with pathos, and at times sparkled with wit and humor of a high order. Mr. Gaston is a gifted and pleasing orator, and this lecture may be classed as a masterpiece."

—Hon. J. T. Campbell, Ex-United States Minister to China.

T. K. Richardson and K. N. Womack have just returned home from a trip to Cottage Grove and the Bismia mines and were very much pleased with the prospects of this mining district. Mr. Richardson's brother, John, has a valuable mine in this district which he is actively exploring and lively times are anticipated in this district next season. Mr. Richardson and his salesman report a large sale of musical instruments at Cottage Grove and vicinity.

Call at Wollenberg Bros. and get a Standard Fashion Sheet for the month of December. It will interest you if you have any dress-making to do.

E. R. Applegate, of Drain, was in town Saturday enroute to Gold Hill, where with his brother, L. C. Applegate, he is opening a first-class general merchandise store. The new establishment will be in the immediate charge of L. C. Applegate, as Roy expects to spend most of his time in Drain, as heretofore.

Churchill & Woolley have exhausted the Portland stock on Clark's cutnaws and have telegraphed the factory for a supply; you'll have to hurry if you want one.

Hon. G. W. Riddle came down from his Asasala mill this morning on business. He reports having been somewhat delayed in lumber shipments on account of the death of cars. Unlike the rest of us, he would be pleased to see the fall rains set in that his flames might become available for floating lumber and wood.

Sherwin & Williams block stove pipe enamel, just the thing to black out, crumple and pipe, range, etc. Churchill & Woolley sell it.

L. A. Margers of Cleveland and J. I. Chapman of Wilbur last week, received a pure blood Angora goat from Canklin Bros., of Nashville, California. This goat is said to be the best in the flock, and the flock has been bred pure for over 30 years. No doubt this is the finest Angora goat ever brought to Douglas Co.

"Pride of Douglas" is the brand you will always find on the sacks containing the best flour obtainable in Southern Oregon. Try it and be convinced. It.

L. A. Marters of Cleveland made this office a pleasant call today while transacting business in town. He informs us that a Myrtle Creek party is just completing a new store building at Cleveland in which he will soon open a nice stock of general merchandise.

I will willingly exchange any Simond's Cross Cut saw in the sawery to user, if the fact is in the saw. Sold only by S. K. Sykes.

A new post-office to be known as Dixville has been established at what was formerly known as the Four Corners, on Deer Creek. The supplies went out to the new office Saturday from this city and August Sublimann has been appointed postmaster.

Ladies, you should see that elegant new line of automobile and jackets at H. Marks & Co. The sweetest thing in town.

Miss Laura E. Jones, of the PLAINDEALER, is doing good work for the paper down the Umpqua. On arriving at Drain and finding that the stage did not leave for two days later she proceeded on her way to Elkhorn on horseback, and is now at Gardiner.

PROPOSED MASONIC TEMPLE.

Another Substantial Two-Story Brick Building to be Erected in Roseburg Yet this Year.

Plans have been prepared by Architect Frank E. Alley and bids are now called for by Laurel Lodge No. 13, A. F. & A. M., for the erection of a two-story brick building on the premises now owned by the Lodge opposite the Court House. The building as planned will have a 100 ft. front on Douglas St. and a 50 ft. frontage on Kane St.

The lower floor will be divided into suites of office rooms, with hall ways leading from convenient entrances on either street.

The corner offices are to be provided with fireproof vaults and with floors will be provided with lavatories, etc., to meet the requirements of a modern office building. All rooms will be well lighted and owing to the location near the court house, will make very desirable offices for members of the legal profession. The upper floor will comprise the main lodge room and parlor, parlors, smoking room for the Masonic fraternity, a smoking or social room adjoining the main room for the use of members, and a second hall 28x36 in size which will be used as a banquet room when not occupied by other orders.

It is the intention of the members to let the contract and have the building completed as soon as possible, which will add another to the long list of substantial buildings erected in Roseburg this season.

FREIGHT TRAIN WRECKED.

Fourteen Cars Leave the Track. One Man Killed.

The through freight, train No. 222, drawn by three engines under Engineer W. F. Anderson, Desmoye and Ross, and in charge of M. C. Gregory and brakeman Jas. Tynan and H. Gilvin, jumped the track without any apparent cause, one-half mile west of Wolf Creek, at 2:30 Friday morning. Fourteen cars were piled in the ditch, and two of them were completely torn over. One unfortunate, unidentified hobo was crushed to death beneath a ship anchor, but beyond this no serious casualty occurred.

A wrecking train was dispatched to the scene from Roseburg early in the morning and another left Portland at 6:30 a. m., which would indicate that the wreckage was plentiful and the damage to the track large. The train was run back at the rate of about 15 miles an hour when approaching Wolf Creek station, which is the first station south of Gladvale and just beyond the county line between Douglas and Josephine. It is about 70 miles by rail to Roseburg.

As the regular morning northbound passenger train No. 11 did not arrive on its scheduled time, in consequence of the freight wreck at Wolf Creek, a stop train was made up to take the regular passenger train leaving at 10:50 a. m. The track was finally cleared and the through train reached here at 4:30 in the afternoon.

The engines fortunately did not leave the track. Coroner T. A. Hood, of Josephine county, went to the scene and held an inquest over the remains of the unknown journeyman.

THE GREAT Reduction Sale..

Still continues at the T. K. RICHARDSON MUSIC HOUSE.

and the way instruments are leaving the store, it is evident that the public is taking advantage of our extremely low prices

The correct system is a great thing. The test of a correct system is its fruits. Our system of piano selling simplifies the manner of piano purchasing, so that a child can buy an instrument without paying a penny too much for it. The high prices on pianos that we hear of now and then, seem wonderful to us. Piano questions of all kinds are gladly answered by us. We have been selling music and musical instruments right here in Roseburg for over eleven years and six years in Portland, Oregon, and we can refer to hundreds of purchasers who are all well pleased with the instruments and the prices paid for them, except one. We will give name later with explanations.

We have now made another reduction of 10 per cent. in order to close out what goods we have in stock, to make room for another car load. With the above reduction you are practically buying these pianos and organs at wholesale prices. If you are interested in getting a piano, call on or address: "Pass 761 T. K.
