MORE LIGHTS NEEDED.

One of the very darkest places in Roseburg after night-fall is to be found at the north end of Jackson street between the McClalla Hotel and Deer creek bridge, and considering the great amount of travel here or citizens who would be benefited, it looks like the city council would no longer delay in ordering at least two incandescent or one arc light located in this part of town. The street mentioned is not only the main business street of the city, but the main traveled thoroughfare approaching Roseburg from the north, and lights located as above designated would aid as a beacon to belated travelers coming to our city. Come, City Dads, don't be parsimonious! Let us have more light on North Jackson street before some bold, bad foot-pat reliever the town of some of its pecuniary wealth by holding up the editor of this paper or the Review, or some other wealthy and substantial citizen of the North end.

NEW ENTERPRISE FOR ROSEBURG.

The engine and boiler for the new Roseburg Steam Laundry arrived this week and the other machinery necessary for a first class and up-to-date laundry will arrive in a few days. The machinery will be installed in the Howell building on Mill street and Mr. Homer Phillips, of the American Laundry of Portland, an expert in the business, will personally conduct this new enterprise. W. M. Moore, is instrumental in the establishment of this new and much needed institution and is one of its principal owners. The plant will be complete in every detail and will turn out as good work as any laundry in the state not excepting the Portland laundries, and it is to be hoped that not only the people of this city, but of the other towns of the county will extend it a liberal patronage. The proprietors are enterprising, accommodating, and very worthy gentlemen and are deserving of liberal patronage.

TWO LIGHT PLANTS.

The old water and light Co. of Roseburg have their electric light plant erected and now have a force of men at work stringing the wires which work when completed will give this city two first-class electric light plants.

ANOTHER NEW COMER.

F. A. Bly of Rising City, Nebraska, who recently began reading the PLAINDEALER, has already been put to favor old Douglas county and put in his appearance at our office Wednesday. He is a genial and enterprising gentleman and contemplates locating here permanently. These balmy sunny days, blooming roses, green grass and ripe berries of various kinds about this city and vicinity in the middle of November is a revelation to him and he is congratulating himself upon the change and his wisdom in subscribing for the PLAINDEALER.

CREAM WANTED.

The T. S. Townsend Creamery Co., at 44 Second st., Portland, pay highest market price for cream. They will sell you Cream Separators, and take your cream in payment. 0314.

Another Copper Deal.

The Skinkyo copper district is attracting unusual attention at the present time and on the extraordinary favorable reports of the most reliable expert conservative capital in seeking investment there. Next spring and summer a great rush of prospectors is expected to take place into the district and the entire territory will be most thoroughly prospected. Following the recent bonding of the McVey claims on Joe Creek to Captain De La Mar for $250,000 as published in the last issue of the Tidings comes a report from the Redding "Free Press" of the bonding of another copper property in the same district. It says: "Some time ago Dan McCarthy secured a bond on a group of sixteen copper claims some miles west of the Joe creek country. A tunnel and three shafts were good ones. Mr. McCarthy stated Saturday that he has just succeeded in rebonding the group to a company of Hartford, Connecticut, capitalists for $170,000."

ROSEBURG, Ore., Nov. 14.—Tonight and Friday fair weather. Thos. Gimso, Observer.

Miss Laura E. Jones, the PLAINDEALER's city editor and solicitor, who has been spending the week at Scottsburg Gardner and Elkton, sends in a list this morning of twenty-five new subscribers paid in advance to January, 1902, besides several fine orders of job printing. She finds the PLAINDEALER growing rapidly in favor where ever she goes. Our subscription list will be increased several hundred names before her canvass of this county is completed.

It will be of interest to the farmers of this county to learn that the New Era Flour Mills, of Roseburg, have just installed a new Newbury Roller machine of large capacity and that the mill is now prepared to manufacture a fine dust less feed from your barley with you wait and are even better equipped for turning out a superior quality of flour and feed than ever before. Bring in your grain and they will do the rest. It.

County Judge M. D. Thompson is being referred to as the "Bridge Builder." Though at present a little expensive to the county to build and repair its bridges Judge Thompson does not propose to shirk this duty to the county simply to make for himself a record for "economy." It is a proposition which could no longer be delayed and to Judge Thompson belongs the credit of meeting this demand fairly and fearlessly.

It is an old axiom that "bread is the staff of life" but this depends somewhat on its quality. The fine cream and home made bread made by J. S. Sauer, a baker on Jackson street near Cass never fails to please. A nice variety of pastries also kept constantly on hand.

We'll bet he found short-pickling along the route, because the old settlers down that way all read the PLAINDEALER and the new comers were only waiting for an invitation to do so, which was cordially extended by Miss Jones, with the desired results. Go way back and sit down, neighbor.

Energy, ambition and big fresh stocks are behind every step in this store's progress; we are building up on the selling of "reliable qualities." Hildebrand's.

BALTY SOUTHERN OREGON.

Fresh Berries and Garden Vegetables Still in the Market.

A practical demonstration of Douglas county's right to the claim for the "Isle of Oregon," was presented this week by Mr. L. S. Coon, the strawberry grower and propagator of Dillard and others. Mr. Coon presented to the PLAINDEALER a box of large and luscious strawberries Tuesday night in his garden, as are usually seen in the markets in June. At the same time a crate of the same berries were sent to J. F. Barker & Co., the grocers, but were on display but a short time until they were all sold. The berries were grown without any protection or artificial methods in the open air, and it is not that the wild strawberries are in bloom on the hillside and meadows.

W. A. Greek, who lives three miles west of this city, brought in a fine basket of flowers, there being enough to nearly fill a bushel basket. It has been his custom to send a bouquet of chrysanthemums each year, grown in the open air, to friends in Montana as a Christmas present.

While somewhat later in the season than usual, no killing frosts has yet occurred and fresh ripe tomatoes, onions, string beans, lettuce, turnips and other tender vegetables are to be found in hundreds of gardens throughout our county, and even in the groceries about town.

As evidence of the usual mildness of our early winter months Edwin Weaver, the Myrtle Creek fruit grower who was in town Tuesday, reported ripe berries on his blackberry vines, and says that his wife tendered him an agreeable surprise Monday by serving at dinner fine string beans fresh from the garden. At the McClalla home the past few days red raspberries, fresh from the home garden, have been an item upon the regular menu cards.

Arrested for Lewd Cohabitation.

Lee L. Welch, a former resident of this city, was arrested in Roseburg yesterday charged with adultery. He deserted her a few weeks ago and it is claimed was living with a woman in Roseburg. His wife resides in this city and all the parties are well known here. The hearing will be given at Roseburg this morning at 10 o'clock.—A. H. Herald.

Welch was given a hearing before Justice Robinette Wednesday afternoon, waived examination and was held in the sum of $500 to appear at January term of circuit court. Bonds not being furnished he was placed in the county jail to await trial. He is a good mechanic and has been living with a Miss McCollough in West Roseburg for some time past. The three children by his first wife are being cared for by the officials. Complaint was filed against Welch by his wife who resides at Albany.
