PLAINDEALER IS THANKFUL—The Plaindealer has every cause to be thankful today. Besides enjoying the greatest popularity and prosperity in its history during the past year and being now almost overwhelmed with business, Wednesday morning's express brought the proprietor a fine, large, dressed turkey as a remembrance, from the old Lane county home, while Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Adertan, of West Roseburg, remembered the office with a generous supply of the finest mince meat for Thanksgiving mince pies. Under such happy conditions we could only be more thankful were this National day of Thanksgiving and prayer observed two or three times instead of once a year.

TELEPHONE CENTRAL OFFICE—The telephone central office is being moved from the building formerly occupied by M. F. Rapp, druggist, into the corner room of the Taylor & Wilson block formerly occupied by the free reading room which will make an ideal central office, it is now well lighted and conveniently located. The moving of the central office occurred a good deal of work but will only interfere with the local lines a very brief time as the transfer and reconnection are made very speedily. The free reading room now occupies the room one door west of its former location in the same building, which was formerly occupied by Mrs. Geary, ladies furnishings. The final transfer of the central office fixtures to the new quarters will occur about Sunday.

TO BE REPRESENTED BY PRETTY GIRLS—Committees were appointed for the entertainment of the football team from the Roseburg high school during its stay here. On Thanksgiving day the football team will meet the eleven from the Roseburg high school on Kincaid field. The Roseburg team is said to be a strong one and an interesting game is promised. In the evening a banquet and reception will be tendered the visitors by the young ladies of the High School—Eugene Register.

CATTLE SALE—Nichols Bros., the Riddle stock raisers, passed through this city Tuesday noon with a band of 70 head of fine yearlings and two-year-old steers which they were delivering to G. W. Short at Waiilat. It was a fine band of cattle for which the very best market price was received.

Judge Barnett, in the Marion county circuit court Monday decided in the case of the State of Oregon vs. E. P. McCornack and Geo. G. Bingham, bondsmen of George W. Davis, the defendant clerk of the State School Land Board, in the sum of $5,000, in favor of the defendants. It will be remembered that Davis defaulted in a large sum, about $30,000, and left the country. Davis' bonds were only for $5,000 and now the state is unable even to recover this amount.

It will be of interest to the farmers of this county to learn that the New Era Flour Mills, of Roseburg, have just installed a fine new Barley Rolls machine of large capacity and that the mills are now prepared to manufacture a fine dust less feed from your barley while you wait and are even better equipped for turning out a superior quality of flour and feed than ever before. Bring in your grain and they will do the rest.

In the matter of the estate of Wm. Love, deceased, E. R. Hannan was appointed administrator, giving bonds in the sum of $5,000. The heirs named are William A. Love, of Umatilla county; Louis D. Love, of Murray, Idaho, and Lee Love, of Garden valley, Oregon, all sons of deceased. The value of the estate is an old $10,000.

It is an old axiom that "bread is the staff of life" but this depends somewhat on its quality. The fine cream and home made bread made at J. Sevier's bakery on Jackson street near Cass never fails to please. A nice variety of pastries are kept constantly on hand.

High School Notes

THOS. R. TOWNSEND, Editor.
MISS BESSIE KIDDER, Associate.

We are pleased this week to see the smiling countenance of our old school mate, H. Robert Pruner, once among us. The class in classics have begun the reading of Burke's speech on the "Conciliation of America."

The football team leaves for Eugene tonight at 11:45 p. m., to play a game on Thanksgiving with the Eugene high school.

FOOTBALL AT OAKLAND.
Last Saturday morning our team left in high spirits, encouraged by their former defeat at Drain, looked forward to this time of bearing home the laurels; and they were not disappointed. At the train the news of the Oakland delegation and escorted to the hotel for dinner.

At 2:30 p. m., amid a shower of rain, the game was called. Roseburg won the kick-off while to Oakland fell the choice of goals. Within 15 minutes Roseburg had scored a touchdown. Half back, Rump, carrying the pig-skin over the goal line, no more scores were made during this half but Roseburg's goal was not in danger. In the second half, Oakland changed and strengthened her line up by placing in several new players and changing the position of several others. Mahoney made a neat little run and, after several fine plunges, Oakland scored a touchdown. Roseburg kicked off and the ball passed over Oakland's goal line where it was touched by one of Oakland's men, making it a touch-back, containing two points for Roseburg. After a few moments more of playing, the game was closed; no more points being made by either side. The line up of both teams was as follows:

Roseburg	Oakland
W. Falkner	Grubbe
Stearns	Clay
Fraleigh	Mann
Davidson	Benton
Hunt	Hunt
Bryant	Boiler
Leonard	Headroff
Hannan	Hartsock
F. Ramp	T. Gray
V. Ramp	Page
C. Falkner	Mahony
Wollenberg	F. Gray
Boiler	Boiler
Townsend	Mahoney
Morris	referee
Hindman and Johnson	Umpire

The Oakland players, we judge from the Oakland correspondence in the local papers this week, seem to still claim the score and we wish them especially to read the following rules from the 1901 rulebook:

Rule 13. (c) At kick-off if the ball is kicked across the goal line and is there declared dead when in possession of the side defending the goal, it is a touch-back. If it is declared dead in possession of one of the attacking side it is a touchdown.

Rule 29. The referee is sole authority for the score of the game and is judge of forfeiture of the game under the rule. The referee decided that Roseburg made a touchback making the score 7 to 5 in favor of Roseburg, and this ought to decide it. The Oakland team outscored the Roseburg team in weight, about 25 pounds to a man, but the Roseburg team made up for it in quickness and endurance, and won the game fairly.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.
MARRIAGE.—At the home of Rev. S. A. Douglas, in this city, Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 27, 1901, Mr. F. C. Ladd, of this city and Miss Adeline Noe, of Jackson county, Rev. Douglas officiating. The bride is a charming and highly respected lady, possessing many womanly graces and accomplishments and it does not require a prophetic eye to discern that she will make a very companionable life's partner. Mr. Ladd is one of the general proprietors of the new Racket store, and although having only lately cast his lot among us, has made many friends and a very favorable impression here as he evidently did elsewhere—and is held in high esteem by our people. We join with the rest in extending to be and his estimable bride a cordial welcome to our city and wish them a long wedded life blessed with happiness and prosperity.

AT THE OIL WELL.—President M. McCoy and Secretary H. L. Marsters, of the Umpqua Valley Oil Co. have lately visited the prospective oil well at Myrtle Creek. The first 40 feet of the derrick is now up, the foundation for the machinery laid, and work is progressing most satisfactory.

BU REAL ESTATE DEAL.—The Thos. Guthrie farm at Winchester was sold to S. J. Sotherlin Wednesday through the D. S. K. Buick land agency for $10,000. It is one of the finest farms in this section of the country.

THANKSGIVING UNION SERVICE.—Union Thanksgiving service will be held in the M. E. Church on next Thursday at 10 a. m. collection for the poor. All are cordially invited to attend.

CREAM WANTED.—The T. S. Townsend Creamery Co., at 44 Second st., Portland, will pay highest market price for cream. Will sell you Cream Separators, and take your cream in payment. 031d.

PLACE TO BUY PEARLS.—If you are looking for presents do not fail to examine J. T. Bryan's elegant line of silverware and jewelry.

Geo. Kohlhagen, returned home from Dillard today where he bought a carload of fat hogs from S. C. Miller.

Chas. Parks, the grocer, left this morning for a few weeks business and pleasure trip to Portland and LaGrande.

W. A. Webber of Riddle, will spend Thanksgiving with his daughter, Mrs. Lohr of this city.

Hon. J. T. Bridges was transacting business at Drain today.

Notice of Final Settlement.
Notice is hereby given that on Monday, the 27th day of January, 1902, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, the final report of George R. Catchie, administrator of the estate of John Catchie, deceased, will be heard before the County Court at Roseburg, Oregon, at the Court House in said city. All persons having interest in said estate are hereby required to appear at the time and place to show cause, if any they have, why said final account should not be allowed. M. D. THOMPSON, M. D. County Judge.

All in Gold.

I had not been on the streets of Portland more than an hour when a man by the name of Etoe said to me, "Hello, Mr. Richardson, you are just the man I want to see. We, W. T. Turner, formerly of Oakland, and myself, are going to get the finest upright piano that money can buy, together with a piano, and we want you to select them, deliver the instruments and come to our office and get your money—which was paid all in gold. This is lots of faith to place in a dealer, as neither of them would go to see the goods, saying they knew that I could do the right thing by them, which we did, and always do.

We gave them a fine style F. Chickering, like many others that we have placed in our own town, in the homes of Judge Hamilton, Dr. S. Hamilton, Mrs. Mary Campbell, W. H. Fisher, J. F. Barker and others. This instrument was placed in the home with a fine Angelus or piano player. The piano mover acknowledged that it was the finest outfit he had ever delivered, and our customers, who had never seen the instrument until delivered were more than pleased—were really delighted and gave us great praise for our good judgment in selecting such a fine instrument.
