Hildebrand's THE UNDERPRICED STORE.

The basket ball game at the Opera House Friday evening by the High School girls, and those of the lower grades and was won by the latter, the score being 18 to 9. The game was a very enthusiastic one from start to finish, and the girls fairly delighted the audience with their vim and skill. It is needless to say, should they ever play in public again, that a full house will be accorded them.

On account of the irregular surveys of many of the townships in the Roseburg land district, it is almost impossible to locate section corners without a copy of the Government survey. Frank E. Alley, Abstractor of this city, has a complete set of tracings of all surveyed townships, and will furnish blue prints of same, showing all vacant land, at $1 each.

Hon. C. A. Seibred, arrived in Roseburg from Salem Saturday, where he has been spending the Christmas with his family at his late return to Oregon from Skagway, Alaska. The Judge is a little undecided as to whether he will relocate in Roseburg or at some point in the lower Willamette valley. The family have a cozy home here and their many friends are eager for them to become permanent residents of Roseburg. We were favored with a pleasant call from our fellow townsman.

For Abstracts of Title, guaranteed to be full and correct copies of all records effecting the title, call on Frank E. Alley, Abstractor in the Marks building. His work is guaranteed correct, and prices are reasonable.

John H. Beck and wife who have been enjoying a pleasant, though brief visit with the parents of the former at this place went to Myrtle Creek Sunday evening to visit briefly with relatives and will then return to their Northern California home. Mr. Beck is one of the leading business men of that section of the state and is a very busy man.

THE POULTRY SHOW.

Closed Saturday Night. A Fine Exhibit of Poultry and Eggs.

The Second Annual Poultry Show of the Douglas County Poultry Association closed in this city Saturday evening and while, owing to the diversion of holiday week, the attendance of visitors was not as large as was anticipated, the exhibits far exceeded the show of last year in variety and excellence, denoting much progress in the poultry industry in this county. The exhibit was a most creditable one and gave the industry a renewed impetus in this section of the state. The officers in charge are to be heartily congratulated upon their success in presenting to the public such an interesting exhibition of fine fowl demonstration, the fact that a valuable industry of no small proportion has sprung up in our county which promises to liberally reward all those who give it a fair share of time and attention.

Mr. W. W. Browning, of Ogden, Utah, finished his labor Friday as judge at the poultry show in Slocum's hall. In result thereof, more convenient than ever, for the information of the welcome visitors at the elegant display of pet stock was the little score card attached to each coop showing the quality of the fowls within. The standing of nearly all the birds was very good and considering the fact that poultry raising in Douglas county on a fair scale is yet in its infancy, the general degree of the stock was exceptionally high. Below will be found the leading scores:

A UNIQUE CALENDAR.—This office acknowledges with thanks, compliments of the sets in from S. C. Flint's shoe store, in the shape of a neat and unique cardboard folder. On the outside front page is the picture of a stonning and stylishly dressed young lady. The second page contains a calendar for the year and two large packages of needles for all kinds of sewing. The third page has a pair of "laughing faces" with the inscription "See those happy faces, made happy by wearing a pair of stylish, comfortable shoes from S. C. Flint's shoe store." The back page contains a fine story for the store and the folder, which is of a delicate blue and buff color, bears the title of "A Few Useful Points, presented by S. C. Flint, Roseburg, Ore."

THE SCHUBERT AT Y. M. C. A.—The annual Christmas evening at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association was the Schubert Symphony Club, lady quartet accompanying. The membership was largely represented. The entertainment was of a high order and the performers received unstinted applause, and there was constant encouragement to lengthen the programme. "A Bachelor's Remarks on Marriage," was one of the funniest bits of the evening. Miss Mabel Delany McKie, Miss Ella Claire Garbner and Mr. Louis McPherson proved to be well able to hold the audience. The quartet of ladies voices was excellent.—Evening Telegram.

AT THE ROSEBURG OPERA HOUSE, JAN. 1.—A BEE WOOD CONTRACT.—L. L. Hurd, the general postmaster at Glendale, was transacting business in Roseburg Saturday. In a pleasant visit at the PLAINDEALER office, he informed us that E. E. Redfield had just closed a contract with the Southern Pacific Company for the delivery of 1500 cords of railroad wood on the track near Glendale. This contract means employment for a large number of men in that vicinity during the winter and spring. Mr. Hurd says Glendale is forging ahead rapidly.

NEW PHOTO TAKEN.—John H. Taylor, of the well known wagon gallery, has his photo tent at the old stand until after the holidays and is prepared to supply old and new customers with fine photos from stamp size up. His prices are as usual, at the bottom. He is prepared to supply the Holiday trade in photos. JIP

PARTICULARS.—wanted for one or two shoes through the winter. Must have access to shed for shelter, and light feed during severe winter. Address "Eugene" this office stating price and location.

PLACE TO BUY FURNITURE.—If you are looking for presents do not fail to examine J. T. Bryan's elegant line of silverware and jewelry.

AT THE OIL PLANT.—A brief respite from drilling operations at the oil plant on C. O. White's place near Myrtle Creek was taken for the Christmas tide, but apparently pending away through the hard shale and its progress as usual, while "spudding in" or boring the drill tools, has been slow. John H. Harty, an old Pennsylvania Oil driller, has the work in charge and is conducting the drilling operations most successfully and satisfactorily to all concerned, fully demonstrating the fact that he thoroughly understands the business. After twenty or thirty more feet in depth is gained, the big drill will begin to make rapid progress and the work will steadily increase in interest until the oil begins to gush for it—at least, this is the opinion of some of the best geologists and oil experts on this coast.

MARRIED.—In this city, Friday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Gillette, by Justice Robinson, Mr. M. H. Gillette of Pendleton, Oregon, and Mrs. Mollie Perry, of this county. The groom is a brother of Assessor H. B. Gillette of this city. The PLAINDEALER joins their many friends in extending congratulations. They will visit San Francisco and other California points before they go to Pendleton, where they will make their future home.

HELD THE LUCKY NUMBER.—Mort Woodruff, of Melrose, held the lucky number—1575—in the grand drawing of Wm. Currier's grocery, and was awarded the beautiful large prize doll. The prize proved a drawing card at Currier's grocery.

MARRIED.—In Grants Pass, at the Newman M. E. Church, on Thursday morning, Dec. 26, 1901, Frank Moe and Mrs. Jennie Cary, Mrs. Cary's father, Rev. Robert Booth, officiating, Pastor McDonald acting.

FOR SALE.—TWO YOUNG COCKER, male and female. Inquire of LeNort Roseburg, 1017, Mill St., Roseburg, Oregon.

T. W. Andrews and daughter Selie, of Scottsburg, were Roseburg visitors the latter part of the week. This office was favored with a pleasant call, and Mr. Andrews reports every thing lively in his section. He is manager of the tannery at Scottsburg at present, but informs us that Mr. W. P. Reed is putting up a new tannery building at Gardiner, near the creamery, and in all probability it is, Mr. Andrews will have charge of it when ready for operations.

Geo. M. Bassett, the genial S. P. Agent at Drain, was in attendance at the poultry show and was quite well pleased at carrying off a second prize on his coop of Barred Plymouth Rocks, which were picked promiscuously from his chicken pen, that represents the average of his breed of fowls, which scored 92.
