After lying in obscurity for nearly 40 years letters written in 1859 and containing unprinted matter concerning the famous John Brown raid at Harper's Ferry have been discovered at Richmond. In the loft of Virginia's ancient capitol building. It is said that these letters will be preserved in the State Library, but as their value is estimated at $50,000, John Brown's grandson, who is a resident of East Potomand, may lay some claim to them.

GRAND NEW YEAR BALL.

Largely Attended and a Brilliant Success.

The grand ball and social given under the auspices of the United Brotherhood of Reapers, Roseburg Division No. 1, New Year eve at the opera house, proved the crowning social event of the season. The hall was beautifully and profusely decorated with ferns, evergreen, flowers and emblems of the order. The large lodge room above was utilized for the social provided for those not desiring to join in tripping the light fantastic. Music and games were provided for all and the social proved equally enjoyable as the dance.

The home orchestra furnished music for the dance which was declared by all the best ever secured for a like occasion in Roseburg. The orchestra was composed of—violin, Prof. Appelfohr; clarinet, Joe Wharton; 1st cornet, Louis Bellis; 2nd cornet, Roy Sack; Trombone, L. B. Moore; piano, Dan Langenberg; a novel and pleasing feature was an imitation of a railway tunnel. As the stroke of twelve o'clock approached, ushering in the new year, the lights in the hall were turned out and a locomotive headlight appeared in the tunnel bearing the appropriate legend "1902." It was a beautiful and pleasing incident.

The attendance was large and the floor committee was tireless in its efforts to afford a good time for all in which they succeeded admirably.

THE COMMITTEE

M. G. Gregory, conductor; W. Wrenn, brakeman; C. A. Ziegler, station clerk; C. H. Frances, brakeman; H. C. Bickett, conductor; J. S. Taylor, operator; J. H. Dumphrey, engineer; B. F. Russell, fireman.

The guests enjoyed an excellent supper at the McCallion House, after which the dancing was continued until a late hour. There were visitors present from many points along the line from both north and south and all express themselves as highly pleased with the success and enjoyment of the occasion.

The U. S. R. E. has established a reputation as royal estate entertainers and the local order is to be congratulated heartily upon the splendid success of the occasion.

Schubert Symphony Club.

The Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartet was greeted by a large audience composed of representative people of our city at the opera house last night. Of all those who attended expecting to hear a musical entertainment of the highest class, none were disappointed. The program rendered was versatile and artistic in its arrangement and one of unusual latitude for the enjoyment of the listener, whether possessed or not possessed of a cultured musical ear. The entertainers consisted of the ladies' quartet, Louis McKie, elocutionist and mandolin soloist and Julius A. Brander, violinist. The work of the quartet was excellent, as well as that of each of the others, who were artists in their line, and was highly enjoyed, the entertainers being called and recalled many times for a response.

The high school with its principal, Prof. L. R. Traver, is to be congratulated for bringing such a refined and high class entertainment to our city.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

V. S. Woodruff of Melrose was a Roseburg visitor today. He informed us that a very pleasant and enjoyable New Year party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hollie, near Melrose New Year eve, and was largely attended by the young people of that community. Dancing was the principal feature of the evening and all reported a good time. On New Year evening a very enjoyable dance was given at Alex Churchill's home at Milwau, and a good time was enjoyed by all.

It is an old axiom that "bread is the staff of life," but this depends somewhat on its quality. The fine cream and home made bread made at J. Stever's bakery on Jackson street near Case never fails to please. A nice variety of pastries also kept constantly on hand.

Wherever Chinamen are found, preparations are being made for the New Year's festival which falls on any date between Jan. 21 to Feb. 19. All debts are settled, debtors selling out stocks of goods at ruinous prices to get money to pay up. The Chinese New Year is the most thoroughly celebrated festival in the world.

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS

January 1902 Term Convened This Morning.

The first term of county court for the new year convened this morning it being the regular January term. Present, M. D. Thompson, judge; A. E. Nichols and J. C. Young, commissioners; D. E. Shambrook, clerk; and E. L. Farrott, sheriff. The first business to receive the attention of the court was the drawing of the jury list for the ensuing year. The January circuit court will convene Monday the 20th.

The present term of court is confronted with a great deal of important business, including a canvass of the reports of the various road supervisors, appointment of judges and clerks for the June election, besides the usual routine business. It is not probable that the court will be able to finish up the work of the term before the last of next week.

The Football Game

A football game was played New Year day on the Pine street grounds between a town team and the high school team. The line-up is as follows:

CYCLISTS HIGH SCHOOL
McMullen, R. E. Finkler
Adams, R. F. Fryer
Thompson, R. G. Tuff
Byron, L. C. Davidson
Hann, L. Leonard
L. U. Bryant
Reisenstein, L. E. Haman
Townsend, C. B. Morris
McWilliams, R. H. E. Ramp, Capt.
Taylor, L. H. Flood
Osney, F. B. Wollenberg

The picked team had little practice and had never before played together, although included several good players. However, the high school team had the advantage in this respect and won easily, the score being 22 to 0 in their favor.

Notice.

A winter trip to Southern California and Arizona via the fast one Shasta Route is one never to be forgotten. Renewed acquaintance with this section will ever develop fresh points of interest and added source of enjoyment under its sunny skies, in the variety and added industries, in its prolific vegetation and among its numberless resorts of mountain, shore, valley and plain.

Two trains leave Portland daily, morning and evening for California. These trains are equipped with the most improved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, and the low rates place the trip in reach of all.

Told in Side Heads

WELCOME TO 1902.—Roseburg welcomed 1902 in much the same manner as it did 1901 and many others of the new year's predecessors. Numerous watch-night parties—some at churches and others at homes—were held to see the old year out and the new year in. As the clock tolled the hour of the dying year, a vociferous welcome was extended to the new. If any one in Roseburg was permitted to sleep he must have been under a hypnotic spell. It seemed as if everybody was trying to add his mite to the chorus of "Auld Lang Syne" which was being sung over that portion of the city.

BASKET BALL TEAM.—The girls who played the Basket Ball game on last Friday evening at the opera house were: Ella Black, Jessie Kilder, Hazel Jewett, Vivian Jewett, Edie Bondick, Edna Parker, Gerie East, Katie Fallerton, Lillian Stanton, Velle Barker, Willibro Red, Hanna Wollenberg. The first six named composed the winning team, score 15 to 9. Every one present at the game was highly entertained. It is expected that the High School team will play a match game with some other school in the near future.

A service of revival meetings will be given at the M. E. Church South, on Sunday, Jan. 5. Every body is invited to attend, and the pastors and congregations of other churches are earnestly requested to co-operate as much as possible.
