From Our Correspondents.

Glendale News.

Rev. W. A. Snick of Roseburg, Oregon, says "goodly congregations at Glendale last Sunday morning and evening."

Mrs. George Roberts and daughter who spent the holidays with relatives at this place, returned to their home at Ashland on Monday.

Nelson Jones, wife and two children of Salem, have located at this place and expect to make it their home. Mr. Jones is the brother of Josiah Jones of Glendale.

Frank Kimmont of the Gold Bag mine, who spent the holidays visiting his father at Grants Pass, returned to the Gold Bag mine this week.

Post-master, L. L. Hurd and wife, who spent Christmas visiting Mrs. Hurd's mother, Mrs. Boone on Deer Creek, returned home on the 31st.

Mrs. John Kelleher and children, of Hayhurst, are making an extended visit to Mrs. Kelleher's mother, Mrs. L. Jones, of Glendale.

Hotel Glendale is crowded with guests, to whom the general proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, show travelers attention.

Mrs. Katherine Clark gave a very enjoyable home party on New Year's night. The invited guests were: Mayor and Mrs. M. F. Chase, Mrs. L. E. Stue, Mrs. Violet Lady, Messrs. Sandhagen, Shuck and Darby, and the members of her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Briggs and family, who have resided here for some time, removed to Portland last week.

The Glendale pharmacy is now domiciled in the fine building of Klinge & Sonemann, on Pacific Avenue, where you can find a complete stock of medicines, and everything pertaining to a first-class drug store. It is also the office of our resident physician, Dr. F. R. Bowers. And we would respectfully advise our people to patronize their home drug store, and doctor, and thus build up our own city.

J. J. Guth, lost a valuable cow on Sunday by having her lundered.

Our city merchants, M. T. Chase and Co., Chas. T. Nail, and Sonemann & Klinge, all have stocks of goods, and are making money sales.

Jonah Jones, who owns one of the best teams in this county, is busily engaged doing all kinds of hauling and delivery work. All orders given him will be filled promptly.

Snyder & Co., at the new saw mill on Elfin Creek, gave an elegant dance on Christmas and New Year's. Fine papers were served, the best of music was had, and all was free to their numerous guests, who speak in glowing terms of their generous hospitality.

Miss Katie Martin, the youngest daughter of H. D. Martin, was married to Chester Smith of Portland, on Dec. 17th. The young couple will reside in Portland.

Our popular city Marshal Wm. P. Tolton, resigned his office yesterday to the great regret of his friends. He made an excellent officer.

Alfred Slocum and L. L. Hurd, Notaries Public, are registering voters at their respective offices.

In behalf of the residents of Elfin Creek, at the new saw mill, we desire to call the attention of our county school superintendent to the fact of their need of school. They have a sufficient number of scholars, who are to far from the school to be able to attend there, and they ask for division of this school district, as they can have a school at saw mill. The request is a just and reasonable one, and we hope will secure due attention.
