A PROSPEROUS LOCALITY.

The picturesque little town of Myrtle MURDER CAUGHT AT PORTLAND. Creek, Douglas county, Oregon, is situated at the confinence of Myrtle Ureek with the South Umpqua River, and on a gently sloping south hill side.

There is no other little town in Southern Oregon that has a brighter future before it than has Myrtle Creek. The beautiful peach, prupe and apple orchards, and the rich grain fields and grassy mountain sides, the vast timber belts and valuable mineral deposits surrounding the place, bring many thousand dollers into the community yearly and make sure a permanent, increasingly prosperous locality.
