THE DEVIL'S SOLILOQUY.

One night as the devil sat musing alone in the midst of his cozy warm fire and trying to figure the difference in guilt between a thief and an all-round liar, his memory turned to the scenes of his youth, and his eyes filled with hot, boiling tears, so he took down his ledger and turned to a page dated back about six thousand years.

"I suppose," he exclaimed, as he glanced through the book, "I'm doing the best I can, for my business denotes a continual increase ever since the creation o' man. I've critibuted a good harvest for six thousand years, and should be contented with the yield, and give my opponent permission to have the gleanings I leave in the field.

"I gathered a very diversified crop o' merchants and lawyers galore; I've fiddlers, gamblers and insurance men; I've murderers, forgers and liars, and filled up my furnace with boodlers until they actually put out the fires.

"I've railroad conductors and doctors to spare; horse traders and church members to spend; republicans, democrats, parties and whigs and two or three newspaper men. But there is one class, I am glad to say, can never find entrance here; their souls are so dirty I'm sure they'd demoralize hell in a year.

"I refer to to that 'thing' neither human or bear—the carrion crow of the world—who never is happy unless he can feast on the wreck of an innocent girl. A million o' 'y are in my warmest of rooms his deeds would not entice; so I'll give him a month and tell him to start a select hot hell of his own."

With his fingers he lit an asbestos cigar and placing his boot on the shelf in matters, "I may be a very bad man, at I've got some respect for myself."

GENERAL NEWS.

It is reported that the Pope has appointed a committee whose duty it shall be to examine the Bible scriptim, and to report in its opinion as to what portions thereof are considering divinely inspired.

Oregon timber is being well advertised at the Charleston exposition. In fact the entire Oregon exhibition is receiving many valuable press notices that are a good advertisement for the state.

Quite a number of young men who were in the Spanish American war have taken up homesteads and timber claims in the last few days the volunteers have special concessions in taking up lands—guard.

The most valuable quarter section of land in the whole world is probably that of Beaumont, Texas, upon which are located the great oil wells. Two years ago this tract would have been dear at $50 per acre, while today it is valued at $400,000,000.

Lute Wright, a member of Richards & Pringle's colored minstrels, was lynched in New Madrid, Mo., Saturday night. Some trouble arose between white boys and the negroes in the orchestra and in a struggle with the musicians a negro on the stage fired into the audience. Several persons were injured but non seriously. The identity of the shooter was discovered and he was taken out and lynched.

Miserable Mothers.

CHILDREN ROBBED OF THEIR BIRTHRIGHT.

The most serious thing in life is maternity. The child who inherits weakness is handicapped for life in the struggle for existence. The weak and sickly mother surely devotes her offspring to misery and misfortune. The romantic idea of marriage is based on love and love alone. The scientific idea of marriage demands sound health as a basis of matrimony. The utter helplessness of love is written in a thousand experiences of young motherhood. The child, the mother would die for, cries in her arms, and she is too weak and worn to comfort it. She can do naught but weep in sympathy.

As surely as the most serious thing in life is maternity so the most necessary thing for the prospective mother is preparation. For preparation is possible. There is, in general, no need for the weakness and weariness so often associated with maternity. There is no need for the nervous anxiety, the prolonged birth pangs, and after enervation, so commonly experienced by mothers.

In this day, even women understand the training necessary for athletic exercise. They know that to successfully sustain the strain of outdoor sports they must prepare themselves by training. And yet the average woman will face the great strain of maternity without the slightest preparation for the extraordinary event before her. Nerves, muscles are all to be submitted to an extraordinary strain and yet there is no attempt to fit them for the ordeal.

PROPER PREPARATION.

The fact needs to be impressed on every woman that she can prepare for the strain of motherhood as she can prepare for any other extraordinary demand to be made upon the vital forces. The nature of this preparation is well set forth in the following letter:

"I take pleasure in informing you of the birth of a boy in perfect health, on May 18th, 1899," writes Mrs. L. E. Corti, of Waltonville, Pa., Box 25. "I cannot find words sufficiently strong to express to you my thanks, for the baby's coming was almost without pain, and when my husband arrived with the doctor the child was already born. The neighbors who were with me, and my husband and the doctor could not believe their eyes. Having suffered so much before I never believed myself able to be delivered of a living child. I tell everybody this happy event was due to the help of God and of your medicines. I shall never be without your medicines henceforth and shall never fail in recommending your 'Favorite Prescription.' I have used the medicines which you prescribed with the best results.

"Our hearts are full of gratitude to you for your medicines, which have given us the happiness of having a living child of our own, after so much suffering and disappointment.

"I recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to all young women who are in the same condition that I was in as one of the best remedies in existence. I have used eight bottles and find myself in perfect health. Accept my best wishes for your welfare to the end of your days."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been the means of preparing thousands of women for happy motherhood. It prevents or cures nausea, tranquillizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces refreshing sleep. It imparts great vitality and muscular vigor so that the baby's advent is practically painless. It gives the mother strength to give her child, and is an unrivaled tonic for nursing mothers.

WOMEN ARE SURPRISED

at the prompt and permanent benefit derived from the use of "Favorite Prescription." Its effects are not transient and temporary, but they conduce to a condition of womanly well being, which seems oftentimes like a renewal of youth, so marked are its effects and so lasting the vigor which it imparts.

Mrs. Orrin Stiles, of Downing, Dunn Co., Wis., writes: "I have been intending to write to you ever since my baby was born in regard to what your 'Favorite Prescription' has done for me. I cannot praise it enough, for I have not been as well for five years as I now am. In July last I had a baby boy, weight 11 pounds, and I was only sick a short time, and since I got up have not had one sick day. I have not had any uterine trouble since I got up. I was not only surprised myself but all my friends here are surprised to see me so well."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It corrects irregularity, dries disagreeable drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

Thousands of women have been surprised at the cures effected by the patient and persistent use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine has cured diseases which have failed to yield to any other remedy. When doctors have declared a cure was hopeless, and when other medicines had been tried in vain, "Favorite Prescription" has brought about a lasting cure. There is no other put up medicine specially prepared for woman's use which has so wide and wonderful a cure of womanly diseases to its credit.

Sick people, especially those suffering from chronic diseases, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free and so obtain without charge the opinion of a specialist on their ailments. All correspondence strictly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss, therefore accept no substitute.

Contest Notice.

United States Land Office,
Roseburg, Oregon, Jan. 15, 1902.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by

T. H. HILL,

contestant against homestead entry No. 4011, made January 12, 1901, for SE¼ NE¼, E½ SE¼ and SW¼ SE¼, section 12, township 26 S., R 5 W., by

CHARLES F. VAUGHN,

Contestee, in which it is alleged that the said Charles F. Vaughn has wholly abandoned the land; that he has not resided upon nor cultivated the same for more than six months last past, and that said claim has been abandoned by the said entrymen for a long period of time and that said entrymen is not residing in the neighborhood of the land, and that said alleged absence from the land is not due to his employment in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine, during the war with Spain or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on March 4, 1902, before the Register and Receiver of United States Land Office, at Roseburg, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed January 18, 1902, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
