Mrs. M. E. Conkling Honored—Mrs. M. E. Conkling of Roseburg, formerly a resident of Roseburg and well and favorably known here, was elected Right Worthy Grand Matron of the general Grand Chapter Order of Eastern Star, at its last session. This is the highest office in this beneficent and popular order. Mrs. Conkling was initiated into the order by Roseburg Chapter No. 8, where she still retains her membership. She is Past Matron of this Chapter, and Past Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon. The last of the five people ever thus honored in this state. She has been nothing in her career, a whole in her devotion and bent in her life for the principles of the order and its divine objects. Her excellent position is now due to the hard work done years ago, and to faithful service for many years. Her many friends in Roseburg take a special pleasure and pride in her deserved promotion.

Heavy Rain—During the past forty eight hours the heavy rain and wind storm which wrought so much havoc in California seems to have crossed over the border into this state, and while a very little rain accompanied the rain here there has been a perfect deluge of water and in consequence the rivers and streams are all nearly back full again. No damage has resulted in this state, but slides and washouts in Northern California, greatly interfered with railroad traffic, both freight and passenger trains being delayed. Here in Southern Oregon the rain will prove of vast benefit, insuring a good harvest and supplying plenty of water to enable the many placer miners to make a good spring clean up in their mines.

The Revival Meetings—Evangelist Marshall's meet now at the M. E. church continue to draw large crowds both afternoon and evening regardless of the inclement weather, and interest continues to increase in the services. Many conversions have already been made and every meeting adds to the list. These meetings have already been productive of much good which will be felt throughout the entire community and ere the close of the meetings the cause of Christianity will have been greatly strengthened in this city.

Born—At Greenback, near Placer, Oregon, Feb. 19, 1903 to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fawcett, a son.

By calling on J. D. Hamilton at the Roseburg court house, you can get blue prints of any corner or township in the Roseburg land district.

..Its Now... OR WAIT

another year for the kind of bargains we are offering. As is our custom, every year at this time, we turn all the heavy weight goods we can into cash and we are making such liberal reductions that every buyer will do his pocket book an injustice to neglect our offerings in Heavy Underwear, Hosiery, Fascinators, Comforts, Blankets, Children's dresses, Mackintoshes, Clothing, Heavy Overshirts, etc., etc.

New goods for the coming season are coming in, our assortment has always been large, but we will be able to show you, a larger and handsomer collection this season than ever before. Don't overlook our Special sale of Turkish bath towels, large size two for a quarter, they're going fast.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Healey, of Portland, deputy supreme organizers of the Order of Washington, are in Roseburg for the purpose of instituting an order in this city. This order is a fraternal, beneficiary society admitting men and women both on equal terms and is duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Oregon. Besides its insurance, which becomes fully paid up after a stated period of years, the order has a combination of sick and accident benefits. Its ritualistic ceremony is of a patriotic nature and very impressive.

On account of the irregular survey of many of the townships in the Roseburg land district, it is almost impossible to locate section corners without a copy of the Government survey. Frank E. Alley, Abstractor of this city, has a complete set of tracings of all surveyed townships, and will furnish blue prints of same, showing all vacant lands.
