COW CREEK VALLEY PROSPEROUS.—William Sanderson, an old esteemed pioneer citizen of Riddle, was transacting business in Roseburg Saturday, and remembered this office with a pleasant call. Mr. Sanderson reports that the prospects were never brighter for a lively and prosperous season in the Cow Creek valley than at the present time and feels sure that part of the county will secure its full share of the new immigration this year, as the fertile fields, productive orchards, rich mines and forests and splendid stock range of that part of the county form a combination that cannot be beaten anywhere on earth, and is sure to prove an attraction for the pioneers home-seeker. Mr. Sanderson, though a life long democrat, has, like hundreds of others, discovered that republicanism stands solidly for prosperity and good government, and is the party for him from now on. Mr. Sanderson in order to get the local county and general news up-to-date twice-a-week and also some good, solid republican doctrine, had his name enrolled on our subscription list for one year, cash in advance, for which he has our thanks.

REVIVAL MEETINGS CLOSE.—One of the most interesting and successful revival meetings ever held in this city closed Sunday evening at the M. E. Church, resulting in about 100 conversions and 63 accessions to that church, besides those who decided to affiliate with other churches. The meetings were conducted by Evangelist Marshall, of Oakland, Cal., who proved himself an earnest, eloquent, consecrated and unselfish worker for the salvation of souls. His meetings were largely attended the crowds increasing until only those who went to the church early at service time were assured seats. The Evangelist made a host of friends at this place and the influence for good resulting from his meetings will be felt for a long time in this community. He took his departure for Cottage Grove this morning where after a few days rest and recuperation, he will go to Marshfield to conduct a series of meetings. The best wishes of his many Roseburg friends go with him.

A. O. C. W. AT GLENDALE.—Last Saturday night was made a memorable occasion in the local Workmen lodge at Glendale, several candidates being initiated into the order, after which a splendid banquet was given to the members and their guests. S. S. Weaver, one of Myrtle Creek's prominent citizens, accompanied by his two children were in Roseburg on business Saturday and paid the PLAIN DEALER a pleasant visit. Mr. Weaver states that the miners on Myrtle Creek have established a local mail service, that they will receive their mail by carrier twice a week. Each miner pays the carrier 25 cents a month for his services which saves them considerable time and trouble as the roads in that section are at present not in the best of order.

T. W. Peters, who recently entered the Wells Fargo Express messenger service spent Sunday in Roseburg. Mr. Peters informed us that a large number of homesekers arrived at Junction City Saturday and that on the same train were a large number of eastern people who intended locating at Eugene and Ashland. These places have been paying forth an effort to secure new immigration while Roseburg has done nothing in this direction and the result is plain enough—Roseburg gets left.

On account of the irregular surveys of many of the townships in the Roseburg land district, it is almost impossible to locate section corners without a copy of the Government survey. Frank E. Miss Blanche Riddle, who graduated from the O. A. G. last commencement, has been principal of the Yoncalla public schools with three assistants since that time. Miss Riddle is one of the girls that will succeed anywhere. She has energy and good judgment neither of which failed her in securing her education; and in less than one year she rose to the principalship of one of the best schools in Douglas county. This is the typical Oregon girl. And yet there are some who say that a girl has no chance in the world. The O. A. G. girl is a success.—Corvallis Gazette.
