REPUBLICANS ACT-NOT PROMISE.

The "Appeal to Reason," the famous populist paper of Kansas, contains the following solid chunk of wisdom which some people might think about:

Our democratic friends tell us they favor the people more than the republicans. Well, they do—with their mouths. You may think this unkind. Lead me your embowered ear, my festive and good-intentioned democrat, for a moment. Your national platform said: "We favor direct legislation wherever practical." Now didn't it? Well, is direct legislation practical in a state? Has any democratic state passed such a law? No. Not Oregon, a red-hot republican state, with overwhelming majority in the legislature, has twice passed such a law, and it will be submitted to the people next June. That is the most important piece of legislation that has been proposed since the foundation of the government. Don't talk to me about the democrats favoring a rule by the people. They will not do what they promise. In this instance the republicans did not promise, and have done. I am willing to give the devil his due.

President Cleveland, at 65, retains his mental faculties to a remarkable degree. As an illustration: Referring to Henry Waterson's criticism of the republican party, Mr. Cleveland said: "Well, the party may get badly mixed up with itself at times, but it seems to have the faculty of pulling together at convenient seasons."

These be the times when the delegate to the county convention looks down on us tiny mortals as a pumpkin looks down upon a cucumber. He is the gentleman that amounts to something—occupies a front seat, and knows all about how the whole thing happened.

One great trouble with the "Independent" republican primary ticket in this city Saturday, was that it bore the local democratic press label. True, loyal republicans are always inclined to look with suspicion upon anything bearing a democratic trademark.

The republican county convention will be held in this city next Saturday and the Congressional convention on Monday. Mr. Tongue will no doubt be reconciliated by acclamation, at least he is deserving of such a compliment.

Registration continues slow at the clerk's office. The voters are straggling in at their leisure. Everyone is waiting for the last day. Better go and register now and avoid the rush.

Prince Henry's report to his imperial brother of his visit to the United States might well be summed up in these words: "I came, I saw, I conquered."

When they met, the Kaiser embraced his brother, kissing him on both cheeks. Goetz Henry wishes now that he had stayed among his friends.

Did you hear anybody say "let well enough alone" during the days of Cleveland rule, Cozy armies and free soap?

It is always an easy matter to start a new political party. The great trouble is to keep it going after the start off.

Mr. Simon, we know now how you feel: we feel too.—Independents.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Willis Dunaway for state printer, and Ralph Dunaway for city attorney is all that the Oregonian family wants as far as heard from, says a Portland exchange.

Columb Robert A. Miller, formerly of Jackson county, now of Clackamas county, is being favorably spoken of in connection with the democratic nomination for governor. Col. Miller has been fighting the battles of democracy for 10, these many years and is widely known over the state.

In the state republican primaries held Saturday Gen. secured several county delegations. Johns, of Baker, carried his home delegation; Moody and Williamson ran close for congress in Eastern Oregon, and the republicans seem to be enthusiastic and thoroughly alive throughout the state, which means success in June.

The House of Commons can discount our U. S. Senate. Friday Mr. Dillon remarked to Mr. Chamberlain: "I will not honor the gentleman that he is a damned liar." Dillon was suspended for a week and no one was hurt. In the U. S. instead of suspending the man who gave the lie they gave the man who resented it jail confinement.

Portland Democrats are now casting around for a strong candidate to run for state Senator against Judge H. E. McGinn. Several names are being mentioned, among the most prominent being ex-Governor Pennington, Charles E. Ladd and John M. Grant. They claim that with either one of these candidates they can make it very interesting for their opponent.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

EUGENE KIDNAPER CAPTURED—W. S. Rohrer, who kidnapped his 5-year-old daughter from her mother at Eugene, as stated on the front page of the PLAINDEALER, was captured in Roseburg yesterday by Sheriff Withers. Eugene and Sheriff Parrott, and his deputy, H. T. McClellan, of this county. Ever since the officers received notice here, to look out for Rohrer, both the sheriff and sheriff's deputies, as well as the look-out last Saturday Sheriff Parrott received word that Rohrer was hiding in what is known as one of the Emporia houses, west of the railroad track and just opposite Mrs. Rast's house. The house is occupied by a Mr. Nail and his family. About eight o'clock the sheriff and his deputies surrounded the house. After knocking at the door and receiving no response, they gained entrance through a side door which was unlocked, and found Mr. Nail in bed in one of the rear rooms, and soon apprehended Mr. Rohrer and his little daughter. The Nail family were not in but were visiting with neighbors. Rohrer was placed under arrest and taken to Eugene Saturday night, accompanied by his little daughter.

Mark Turpin of Winchester was in Roseburg this week circulating a petition for the purpose of asking the legislature to make the fish law for fishing in the Umpqua river the same as that of the Columbia. Mr. Turpin caught about 2500 lbs. of fish last season and says were the laws governing fishing in the Umpqua the same as that of the Columbia he could have caught twice as many.

Mrs. David Clements, a daughter of Mr. Jeff Singleton, who has been in this city to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Salzman, left for her home at DeBorgia, Montana, on this morning's local.

A party of about 25 people consisting of eight families from Kansas have just arrived in this city with the intention of locating here. They state that several more families will arrive tonight.

Our republican friends who were so prompt in sending in the primary returns to the PLAINDEALER, will please accept our choicest thanks.

Mrs. N. Boyd and son Johnnie have returned from Ashland where they have been for some time past for the benefit of the latter's health.

C. F. Efinger, a representative of the San Francisco Hotel Gazette, was looking after the interests of his publication in Roseburg today.

Mrs. Elmer Hamilton and baby left on this morning's trip for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. Cochran, at Winchester.

Members of the Degree of Honor are requested to meet at the T. O. F. Hall Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock by order of C. F. N.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES

A Few Spirited But Good Natured Contests.

WHO THE DELEGATES ARE.

"Independent" Ticket in Roseburg, Delected by the Regular Ticket, Two to One.

The republican primaries were held in the several precincts in Douglas county last Saturday, pursuant to the call of the republican central committee, and delegates were elected to attend the county convention which convenes in Roseburg Saturday, March 29, 1902, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m., in the courthouse.

Several spirited, yet good natured local contests occurred in the selection of delegates in a few precincts, Roseburg being the scene of about the liveliest of these contests, where the issue was between the followers of Hon. A. M. Crawford, candidate for the nomination of attorney general, and Hon. J. C. Fullerton, candidate for the nomination for governor. The Fullerton people, championed by Hon. John H. Shupe, were the first to put a primary ticket in the field, coming out late Friday evening with a ticket for each of the four Roseburg precincts, which was designated "Independent Republican Ticket." This independent movement created a slight surprise, and on Saturday morning the Crawford, or regular republicans, headed by Senator A. C. Marsters, issued a primary ticket for the four precincts under the head of "Republican Ticket," and the delegates, supervisors and committeemen on this ticket won by a majority of about two to one, in each of the four precincts, the vote falling only about one-third short of the full vote of two years ago.

At Drain an effort was put forth to secure a solid delegation favorable to Roy Applegate, of that city, for the nomination of representative from that part of the county and this movement was eminently successful.

It is also understood that the delegation from Kiddle and some other precincts will come to the convention enthusiastic for the nomination of Atty. W. H. Riddle for representative from that part of the county. It is also stated that Prof. J. E. Love of Canyonville, will have considerable following for the same nomination.

While there was considerable factional strife exhibited in a few precincts there is no question that what all of these little party differences will be settled in the county convention and that every true republican will show magnanimity and good sense enough to abide by the will of the majority, and will, follow the example of Chairman Crawford, of the republican county central committee who we overheard sensibly remark: "No matter who is nominated in the convention next Saturday I will be ready to pull off my coat and work for the success of the entire ticket." This is a true and characteristic spirit of republicanism and is significant of the continued success of the party in county, state and national politics.

The following is the list of delegates chosen from the various precincts Saturday, and also the precinct officers nominated, so far as can be ascertained:

ROSEBURG PRECINCT.

The polling place was at the city hall. H. C. Shocum was chosen chairman and A. J. Buchanan and C. S. Jackson, clerks.

Independent Ticket—Delegates, Al. Chord, J. W. Wright, L. M. Moore, Roland Agee, F. W. Benson, Geo. W. Jones and Frank Galkins; committeeman, J. W. Wright.

Result—Regulars 38, independents 11.

WEST ROSEBURG.

The polling place was at the house of the Rose House Co. Gratton Worthington was chosen chairman and J. C. Comstock and W. P. Ross clerks.

Regular Ticket—Delegates, G. W. Worthington, G. W. Bragg, D. S. K. Buick, L. D. Carle, J. R. Boss, Ben. Russell, Geo. Perry, More Kirk; road supervisor, G. W. Keavortie; committeeman, Harvey Jones.

Independent Ticket—Delegates, Wm. Moore, C. P. Clark, Geo. J. Heaton, Jas. Moore, Jas. Fletcher, B. F. Gilbert, P. E. Alley, Tilly Troxel; committeeman, P. E. Alley.

Result—Regulars 70, independents 11.

It will be noticed that the same name of a few persons appear on each of the contesting tickets above which is the result of factional lines not being closely drawn.

OTHER PRECINCTS.

As far as the outgoing precincts are concerned in the Crawford, Fullerton contest, the strength of these two parties is about equally divided, so far as can be ascertained.

Oakland Precinct—Delegates, J. H. Cochran, L. W. Dunham, A. F. Brown, J. M. Leeper, A. G. Young, H. R. Manning, A. F. Stearns; road supervisor, J. J. Hunt.

THE COOLEY COMPANY.

Will Open A Weeks Engagement in "Peaceful Valley" tonight.

Theatre goers are delighted over the announcement that the Frank Cooley Co. will open a weeks engagement here tonight and it looks as if a crowded house will greet Mr. Cooley in "Peaceful Valley" this opening play.

"Peaceful Valley" is the most beautiful comedy ever written and containing a most amusing which is bound to please. The plot contains the history of events occurring in the lives of several New Hampshire families residing in the White Mountains. The hero of the play is a young man who is a bright, somewhat green-country sturdily-built young man who has to work his way through college. He goes to New York to find a lost sister and to seek a fortune. His adventures there are very humorous and never fail to put the audience in a good humor. After five years of privation he gains a favorable decision in a law suit and regains possession of some property which is worth a fortune and marries the girl of his choice. Section on sale at Strong's Furniture store. Prices 10-20-50cents.

Myrtle Creek News.

Dr. Hall is visiting with his mother, Mrs. John Hall.

Mrs. Alice Corbin is seriously ill with congestion of the lungs.

The pit well is showing up good and making 9 to 10 feet per day.

The children of the Sunday school of this place are preparing to have an egg roasting on the hills next Saturday.

John Heinrich, Sr., arrived here and on Saturday went by stage to his mining property on South Myrtle. The Little Chieftain and The Continental.

Your correspondent was favored with a view of an assay made by W. G. Wright of Grants Pass, on quartz from South Myrtle mines, and the work checked which carried in gold, silver and copper values at $174.84 per ton.

The neatness in which Sam Bayless has trimmed the oak trees on our streets is very suggestive. That he will be wanted by all orchardists next year to trim fruit trees, grape vines, etc., apply at once or you will not be able to secure his services.

Through the very able services and attention of Dr. Whitecomb, Mrs. Armitage has so far recovered from her severe attack of blood poisoning, that she is again able to attend to her duties as superintendent of Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and other much needed work to benefit the moral standing of a democratic locality.

The republican primaries held here today resulted in H. Callon, county committeeman, Ed Weaver, H. Jones, J. R. Weaver, Lon Robinson, delegates to county convention. H. Jones carried off for justice of the peace. C. R. McGee, constable; E. H. Fisher, road supervisor; district No. 42; Wm. Stevens, road supervisor district No. 41; Wm. Stevens, road supervisor district No. 42.

DEAR SIR—We send you by this mail sample of sulphur taken from our stock of spray material. Please make a careful analysis of same and inform us if it is of such standard of purity that it will fill all requirements for making first class spray compounds. If it is not sufficiently pure for such purpose please inform us where we can obtain sulphur which will meet all requirements.

Very respectfully,

Corvallis, Oregon, December 12, 1901.

Mr. A. C. Marsters & Co., Roseburg, Ore.

GENTLEMEN—Your letter concerning sulfur and the sample of sulfur, have been received.

I have examined this sample and find that it is almost entirely pure sulfur. I think that it would answer the purposes very satisfactorily for spraying compounds or insecticides. I think that if you have plenty of this quality, or can get it, that it will be as good as any sulfur that we can obtain for spraying materials.

Very truly yours,
A. L. KNISELY.
